MAY BE A PROSECUTION

DISTRICT ATTORNEY WILL INVESTIGATE SCHMEER CONTEST. If It Appears That Crime Against Ballot Has Been Committed, He Will Take Action.

A criminal prosecution may be instituted by District Attorney Chamberlain against the persons suspected of fraudulent work in the Ninth Ward election for Councilman. Yesterday he said that he had not followed the case closely as it developed in the civil action for a recount...

After the policeman came, my husband was found. Then I went to the neighbors with the pistol near my friends. As I stood talking to Mrs. Scheer, with my back to our house, she said: 'There he comes. He came up, grabbed me at the arm, took his pistol, and shot at me three times. One ball grazed my arm, and another my ear. I ran away, and after that I did not know what happened.'

Police Captain Hoare, Patrolman Wheeler and R. F. Beatty testified to hearing the reports and finding the man in the kitchen with the pistol near him. The medical examination showed that both shots fired took effect. The first was not necessarily fatal, having been fired at a few inches from the body between his teeth and eleventh ribs, and lodging in the spine. The second shot penetrated his right temple, and produced death instantly.

INJUSTICE TO PORTLAND

LIVESTOCK BOUGHT HERE SHIPPED FROM SEATTLE. War Department Seems Inclined to Side-track This Port in Favor of the Sound.

During the past week 13 cars of horses and mules intended for Government use have been shipped from the East through Portland to Seattle. These animals will be taken to Asia on a transport of much less draught than vessels coming up the Columbia and Willamette rivers.

FIRE FIVE SHOTS.

Coroner's Jury Investigates Suicide of Frederick Chonrad. The coroner's jury held an inquest yesterday afternoon on the body of Frederick Chonrad, of 569 Raleigh street, who committed suicide Saturday evening.

After the policeman came, my husband was found. Then I went to the neighbors with the pistol near my friends. As I stood talking to Mrs. Scheer, with my back to our house, she said: 'There he comes. He came up, grabbed me at the arm, took his pistol, and shot at me three times. One ball grazed my arm, and another my ear. I ran away, and after that I did not know what happened.'

Mr. Chonrad had been quarreling and growing at his wife for a week. He had been sick and she was worried. He got up and came home at night and took care of the house, and did the work. He had not worked for a month.

After the policeman had gone Chonrad came toward us, walking out in his stocking feet, carrying a pistol behind him. Then he said a few words to me. 'Just as you made it, you shall have it.'

ENTER A PROTEST. PORTLAND, July 29.—(To the Editor.)—Noticing by today's issue that the Gas Company advertises a considerable reduction in the price of its product, I would like to ask if there is any longer a reservation on the part of the city of Portland in regard to the gas supply.

ONLY COURTS CAN DECIDE. Controversy Which Must Be Settled by a Lawyer. PORTLAND, Or., July 29.—(To the Editor.)—Will you kindly answer me, through the columns of The Weekly Oregonian, the following question:

HE BLAMES THE POWERS

PASTOR OF IMMANUEL BAPTIST CHURCH OF THE CHINESE WAR.

Says Greed of Gain, Not Conversion of the Heathen, Has Led to the Present Uprising.

At Immanuel Baptist Church last evening, the pastor, Rev. S. L. Lapan, who has seen much service in foreign countries as missionary and otherwise, spoke on "Reasons for Riot in China."

HE BLAMES THE POWERS. The results of trade with savage tribes is their land shorn of its wealth and the native more corrupted and demoralized.
