St. Louis Post-Dispatch. The moderate man is doing his unob-trusive best in every walk of life. The moderate woman is doing hers. She is a a good mother, a good friend and neighbor. Generally speaking, she does not call aloud and spare not for her rights; she merely takes them when she needs them. If she needs to run a steamboat she runs it, not to show God and man how well a woman can run a steamboat, but because her dead husband was the captain and she was always with him nd she can do better for the children with the boat than in any other way.
