

CITY NEWS IN BRIEF

Amusements Tonight.

ALBERT'S WINTER GARDEN (Third and Morrison streets)—Concert tonight.

TOURISTS TO TORONTO—Tourists and others wishing to view the celebrated Columbia-River scenery should take the C. R. & N. Co.'s "Chicago-Portland Special" leaving Union depot at 9:35 A. M. and returning at 4 P. M. This train runs through the Gorge of the Columbia, passing the Cascades, the Government locks, the Multnomah Falls, 300 feet high, Rooster Rock, Oregon's Great Old Rock, Hood River, Bonneville and many other points of interest, all of which are in plain view from the train.

WATERING BRIDGES FOR FREE—The newly appointed "tenders" of the various bridges across the Willamette have to keep a bright lookout for fires these days. On the Morrison-street bridge a fire was started yesterday, and Thursday by some one dropping a lighted cigar stub on the plank, which is as dry as tinder. It does not take long to burn a hole through the plank. A bucket with a long rope attached is kept on the bridges, and when a fire is noticed one of the tenders runs and draws a bucket of water and empties it on the hole. If a boat whistles for the draw at this time he has another run to make, and so is kept from being idle.

COMPLETED TONIGHT—The two tracks of the City & Suburban Railway Company's line on First, from 23rd street south, will be completed to Grant street tonight. Connection will be made with the track on Grant street so that cars from First street can run out to Fulton Park and the cemetery at noon every day, and then the tracks will be continued on First street to the bridge across Marquam gulch. The company will then pull the line up to the cemetery at noon, and then the tracks will be continued on First street to the bridge across Marquam gulch. The company will then pull the line up to the cemetery at noon, and then the tracks will be continued on First street to the bridge across Marquam gulch.

DISMISSING EXHIBITION—The matter of the delinquent license fee for the exhibitions lately given in Hawthorne Park is likely to be settled satisfactorily by the parties interested. In order to avoid such complications in the future the Council yesterday amended a section of the old license ordinance so as to provide that any show or exhibition given in any park in the city where an admission fee is charged shall pay a license of $5 per day; provided, that where such show or exhibition is given for a charitable purpose, then all the receipts except enough to cover the expenses are given for charitable purposes, no license shall be collected.

OFFENSE TO TENDERS COMPLAINED—Judge Cameron announced yesterday in the Municipal Court his intention of discouraging the making of arrests for trivial causes and the later dismissal of the cases by refusal of complaining witnesses to prosecute. In such cases after arrests have been made and the case put on the court docket, Judge Cameron will allow no dismissal unless the costs are borne by the complaining witness. Whenever a case is dismissed after or refusal to prosecute by the complaining witness or from suits being brought on trivial grounds, the costs will be assessed on the complaining witness.

REBULAR TO BE PROSECUTED—Detectives Day and Weiner will return from Sacramento in a few days with Frank Johnson and Harry Smith, who committed the burglary in the Brown building, corner Hawthorne and Grant streets, several months ago. The burglars were apprehended over a week ago, and the authorities were at first undecided whether to bring them to this city for prosecution. As there was ground for believing that these men were responsible for other burglaries, District Attorney Chamberlain and Chief of Police McLaughlin finally determined to have them returned for trial.

SPEAKER HENDERSON COMING—Judge M. C. George received a telegram last night from H. D. Henderson, Speaker of the House of Representatives at Los Angeles, saying that he would reach Portland at 7:35 Monday morning. When Mr. Henderson passed through Portland a few weeks ago, he was stopped in Portland on his return East, and it is a reasonable inference that he will remain here at least one day, perhaps till he is likely to be named as a member of Commerce officially or unofficially will do something in the way of entertaining the distinguished guest.

TWO ROOF FIRES—The fire department was called out twice yesterday afternoon on two roof fires. In the first fire, caught from chimney sparks, the first call came at 2:30 from box 3, and the fire was located and extinguished at 3:31. The second fire, however, was not so serious. At 4 o'clock came the second call from box 7. The roof of a one-story dwelling at 239 Clay street, owned by the Hays estate, was found on fire. The damage was about $25.

PORTLAND ART ASSOCIATION—The rooms of the Portland Art Association in the Library building are now open daily from 2 to 4:30 P. M. On Thursday and Saturday afternoon admission is free. During August and September the exhibited photographs will be from the drawings and paintings of Jean Francois Millet.

RESIGNING TO BRACKET—A number of the iron posts for supporting letter boxes, lately planted about the city, are said to be wobbling, and unless the boxes are placed on them before the Fall rains set in it will be necessary to have them trimmed, which will be a troublesome job.

ON account of a double consignment of Swift & Co's premium hams, we offer today at 14 cents, instead of 15 cents; Crosse & Blackwell's hams, 15 cents; regular 7-cent; baby pineapples, 25 cents; regular 25-cent. L. Mayer & Co., 143 Third street.

RIVERS CONCERN—By Southern Pacific band, south of Madison-street bridge. Rowboats and launches foot of Salmon street.

FRANZ CANYON TODAY ONLY. FRANZ CANYON, 167 FIFTH STREET. FRANZ CANYON, CARROLL'S, 222 WASH. OREGON CAMERA CLUB excursion leaves Ash street at 3:30 Sunday morning. Lunches served on board.

OREGON CAMERA CLUB excursion stops at all points of interest on the Columbia River, Sunday, August 5.

HAWTHORNE PARK TONIGHT—Mrs. Schell and her den of trained lions. Admission, 10 cents. Free choice rooms at "Newtons," Long Beach. Finest service and accommodations. MULTNOMAH VS. TORPEDOES, 2:30 P. M. today, Multnomah Field, Admission, 25c.

LET US HAVE PRASE—F. J. Gardneau, a Canadian pork packer who is in Portland, has been looking into the business in hog products here, and expressed much interest in learning that quantities of lard, bacon, ham, etc., are imported here from the East. He says that in his section of Canada they export hog products, and that with the much more favorable conditions as to soil and climate here the farmers of Oregon should be able not only to supply the home demand for all sorts of hog products, but also to export largely. He says the Canadian farmers grow hogs largely on peas, and that if the Oregon farmers would try the same plan they would find that there is more profit in pork raising than in wheat growing. The climate of Oregon is well adapted to raising peas, and farmers should put in large patch every year. By breaking up some new ground, sowing it to peas, and harvesting it twice they would be assured of a good crop. The peas kill out the weeds, and the hogs eat the vines and the peas and leave the ground in excellent condition for what the next year's crop. A few farmers here have already tried this plan and found it to work well, and if more would try it there would be no need of importing hog products.

WORK ON THE WOMAN'S BUILDING FORMALLY BEGUN.

Important Street Fair Feature Under Way—Votes for Queen Will Be Counted Today.

Mrs. George Wemple, of the woman's auxiliary of the Portland Street Fair and Carnival, yesterday drove the first nail in the woman's building and inaugurated what will be very important movement in connection with the fair. The ceremony for such it was made—was witnessed by many members of the committee, as well as by the general public. Dispatches covering the situation in South Africa, the Philippines and other fields of current warfare interest. The progress of the National political campaign. "Carpenter in the Orient," and articles from the several correspondents of the Oregonian, at the Paris Exposition and other world centers of information. The sixth installment of George Horson's serial story, "The Unspeaking Turk."

A full record of society movements in Portland and elsewhere throughout this state and Washington. News of Summer Resorts. Full reports by The Oregonian's special correspondents of the arrival of visitors and the doings of people at the Oregon and Washington beaches and other Summer resorts. Current news of music and drama, and a review of the latest publications in the literary world. A full-page, illustrated article on "Portland Elks, and Their Work."

The sporting page will contain, in addition to its other features of interest, the regular weekly review by "Willie Atkins" of the local sporting situation, as well as an article on the recent important strides in popularity of the game of lawn tennis, in this community. The departments devoted to humor and poetry will be found as amusing and entertaining as ever. In the department for boys and girls, Miss Alice M. Wells will begin a short serial, describing the exciting adventures of three boys who went on a voyage of discovery to the center of the earth. "Uncle Ted," a new writer for this department, will relate some curious happenings in the Land of Nod, in which the Brownies play pranks with the letters of the alphabet. The other excellent features of this page will be retained.

Ellen Osborn contributes, from Narragansett Pier, the well-known Rhode Island seaside resort, an entertaining letter to "The August Girl," to the page devoted to fashion. "Mary C. Bell" will have an article on the financial dealings of women, which should arouse the interest of the gentler sex, in the woman's department. An article on "Tombstone Absurdities" should attract the attention of the curious, and a column of "Chinese Chow-Chow" will be a novel feature. Many other topics of interest for the general reader will also be found in tomorrow's Sunday Oregonian. A. D. Whitizer will present a cartoon, entitled "An International Cakewalk," which, very cleverly and amusingly, hits off the political conditions in China.

Among the illustrated articles—and the entire paper is replete in this particular—will be one on the ice caverns of Crook County. The latest improved, acknowledged to be best sold on easy installments, Pianos will be on hand at low prices. H. Sinsheimer, 12 Third, Established 1882.

Band Instruments and Musical Instruments. Genuine Martin guitars and mandolins, graphophones and phonographs. The W. B. Allen Co., 311 Third street, the oldest, the largest, music store.

Shirt Waists and Skirts All Reduced. New York Mercantile Co., 256 Third st.

THE SUNDAY OREGONIAN.

Interesting Features Contained in Tomorrow's Issue.

The features of the Sunday Oregonian of tomorrow's issue, in addition to the routine news of the world and the usual minor matters of interest treated of in the various departments, will be as follows: The fullest information on the Chinese crisis. Dispatches covering the situation in South Africa, the Philippines and other fields of current warfare interest. The progress of the National political campaign. "Carpenter in the Orient," and articles from the several correspondents of the Oregonian, at the Paris Exposition and other world centers of information. Three Beauties Yesterday

The Costliest Kimball The Highest-Priced Weber The Finest Chickering

Among our retail sales yesterday were three of the finest pianos we had in stock. A prominent young society lady early yesterday morning secured the large dark case Weber world's fair exhibition style of the Kimball Piano, and it will be delivered at her home on Jefferson street today. One of the highest-priced Weber in the store, in fact, the highest priced Weber piano sold in Oregon, was sold to one of Portland's foremost business women, and delivered at her home on Sixth street, and one of Oregon's most prominent men in business and politics came in and selected one of the new Colonial Chickering—one of the very finest we have ever had in stock.

We sell the three great American pianos of the day—the Chickering of Boston, the Weber of New York, and the Kimball of Chicago. Instruments about the country and standing of which there is no question, and there is no excuse for anyone accepting a mediocre piano while there are in position to furnish these standard makes at prices asked elsewhere for instruments of questionable merit and reputation.
