Well, What's the Matter?

Baker Republican.
It is with extreme reluctance that this strictly party organ is about to expose the devious ways, incompetent methods, mmoral proclivities and criminal neglince of a Federal office-holder of Baker ity, who has, in the face of public laint persistently and incessantly acticed upon the American portion of his people an insolent disregard of all he proprieties of his position.

IN ENPLANATION.

The State Board of Education has decided that an applicant for a state paper need not write on all branches required for the same at any dec examination. The work may be made to extend over three consecutive comminations, the applicant choosing the branches to be taken at each. The writing on the different tranches must be done on the particular days above dempassed, and all applicants who choose a cortain branch must begin thereon at the same time.

An applicant for a county certificate, but a state paper, who has made a standing of 20 per cent or more, on any branch, at the last two examinations taken in Grayon, is satisfied or example on the county of the next examination taken, by such applicant. Such branch or pranches may be taken, in order to make a higher standing, if the applicant so elects.
