DIED IN THE ROAD.

Pioneer Miner of the West Expires Prom Heart Trouble.

John P. Moore, a ploneer miner of the Vest, was found dead on the Poster road, hear Sycamore. Tuesday evening, by H. Kesterman. The Coroner was notified and the remains were brought to the East Side Morgue, where an inquest was held. Moore had been in charge of a small plees of land, owned by Mrs. Firther, of Portland, and about three we knago he became very ill, and was taken to the Good Samuritan Hospital for treatment, as he was much inserved he conment. As he was much improved he con-cluded to return home, and started Tues-day on the Mount Scott motor car as far as that line extends. Being old and very feeble, he soon became weary after leav-ing the car in the afternoon and walkel with difficulty. He was seen by an acwas cheerful and bid fair to reach bo He had a vallee and a package with him. He was discovered by Kesterman on the side of the road, and on coming up closer was seen to be dead. showed that he died from heart trouble and exhaustion. It was brought out that he had acute stamach trouble.

Moore was about 6 years of age and a pioneer of Hid. About that year of age and a pioneer of Hid. About that year he came to the mines of California and thence on to Oregon, where he went to the mines. He also spent considerable time in the mines of Idaho. To Bushy, a joung man living at Gresham, he told many of his experiences. At one time he had acquired much moner, but lost it all. There are few places on the Coast where he had not visited. The past six yours he has been living in the country. He has no
