Correspondence Springfield Repu

Correspondence Springfield Republican. Election aspects are assuming the char-acter foreseen by your Western corres-pondent in May and June; the McKin-icylte dream of an easy victory has given way to great anxiety about the whole Western midland, from Lake Ontario to the Rocky Monatolas Obit is a con-Rocky Mountains. Ohio is a doubtul sinte, dependent on Jones, the Pro-Tul sints, dependent on Jones, the Pro-hibitionists and the German anti-im-perialists; so are Indiana, Illinois, Mich-igran, Minnesota, and even Wisconsin, which in earity June seemed as safe for McKinley as Massachusetts. Kentucky is to lost to Taylor and his assassinat-ing crowd, and will give Bryan a rous-ing majarity; West Virginia and Mary-land are more Uksiv to an for Bryan and are more likely to go for Bryan than not. In fact, the McKinley party is still losing everywhere, as it has for 5 months past, except in Oregon; and 1f the Chinese trade blockade continues, will be the back of the state of the state of the state of the chinese trade blockade continues. lose in the Pacific States

The stately phalanz of Gold Democrata The stately phalanx of Gold Democrats which made so imposing a show four years ago is fast vanishing sway, and their performance at Indianapolls this week indicates that they are as much McKinleyites now as they were in 1586. The nomination of a third ticket is so deeperately opposed by the McKinley newspapers that clearly they fear its effect on their candidate; it is good pol-icy, therefore if the detext of tumerial. tcy, therefore, if the defeat of imperial-ism is really wanted, to put another clokel in the field. What helped McKin-ley in '96 and was so intended, would tjure him now; the Indianapolis goldbuys do not want him defeated. But where are the followers of these brig-adiets? Does their army consist wholy of Generals and Colonels? It seems so. of the 11,700 who vated in Massechusetts for Palmer, not 500 could probably be mustered now; many are dead, and none of the new voters join this band of de-setters. There was some excuse for the mutiny then, if the mutineers had helped muting then, if the mutineers had helped elect Democrats to Congress, and thus made McKinley's worst sins impossible of commitment; but they allowed him to have a Congress of his own, which first gave him the Dingley tariff, and then allowed him a free hand in his Philip-pine War. It is too into now for these malicontents to pretend they are Demo-cratic they are march Wall-street covers crats; they are merely Wall-street opera tors for a rise. Their newspapers are moved to advocate McEinley by the same argument that made bad poets in the days of Persius the stoic:

Quis expedivit psittaco suum 'Chaire; Piecesque docuit verba nostra conari? etc.

Finding that Senutor Hanna is having a good deal of trouble to recouple his Marshifed speech and his condescending ecture to Mr. Winslow with his speech of inst April against McKinley, Roosevelt, Frye, Hanna, Lodge, Aaron Bur Louis Napoleon, James Buchanan an other imperialists and usurpers; I ha been reading that long speech throug for the first time. And I "ruther co clute," as we say in the country, th it will take a speech or a letter fro our Senator about once in two days fro now to the November election-say such iterations-to make a complete h mony of the gospels in this case. I asserted, and said he proved, in his Ap speech, that McKinley had been adv outing, and in several respects doin what is forbidden by international la demounced as unconstitutional by our S preme Court, abhorred by the alguers Declaration, repelled by Webster a Jefferson, Seward and Marshall, unfries to justice and averse to truth-a nly advocated by the ghost of Asr surr as a vindication of his buccane ly to ing expedition down the Mississippi. 7 only excuse he could find for McKini was "a cloud before his vision." a a sanguine hope that he would thereaft "mand, with the fathers of the Republic astead of which, his well-beloved Brut has given the Constitution. Declarati international law, and Wordsworth's so nets another stab, and has stretched ti platform of his own nominating conve tion to brag of his purpose to keep doing all the things for which our Se or so eloquently scolded him, thr nonths ago. And so, like his illustrio redecessor. Ensign Stebbings, who w n favor of the Maine law, and oppos to its being put in force, Mr. Hoar favors international isw, but is willing to see it violated, loves the Declaration, but hugs the scoffer at it, stands on the Constitution and votes for the man that breaks his oath to maintain it.
