RUHLIN KNOCKEDOUT

Defeated by Fitzsimmons in the Sixth Round.

A RIGHT ON THE JAW DID IT

Akron Gignt Worn Out by Fearful Body Blows-A Fierce and Bloody Battle.

NEW YORK, Aug. 16.-Bob Fitzsimmons, ex-champion pugilist of the world, met Gus Ruhlin, the Akron Clant, at the Garden, and won by knocking the Ohloan flown and out in the sixth round. Before the light and for some weeks past there have been many reports to the effect that Pitzsimmons was too old to cope Successfully with his younger opponent. It was argued that Pitasimmons' well-known knowledge of the game and his capability of hard hitting would not be able to counterbalance the youth and gib as well as the recently-acquired ring tactics of the Ohio man. Tonight, however, all this has been changed. Fitz-simmons did the trick cleanly and cleverly. It was a fierce and bloody battle while it lasted, and at times it looked as if Hublin would get the better of the older man, but Pitusimmons, at the proper time, cut loose with his fearful body which finally snuffed out the Ohio

The betting all along had favored Pitzsimmons, many wagers at the rate of 80 to 30 on "Lanky Bob" being made. Tonight, however, at the ringside, there was a flush of Ruhlin money, which forced the odds in Ruhlin's favor at the rate of 160 to 80. This state of affairs did not last long, however, and by the time the men put up their hands for the opening round, they were equal favor-Ites at even money.

ons himself conceded about 32 ounds to Rublin, and this in itself was serious handleap. But, as the result showed. Fitzsimmons was equal to the task he had set himself against, and out with that terrible solar plexus slow, which, whenever it landed, shook lus from head to foot, From the word "go" the men started

In with hurricane-like force. Both were wild at times, but Fitzsimmone was al-ways the quicker to steady himself. Bushin clinched a good deal, and for three or four rounds was the aggressor. He landed some hard straight lefts on Fitz-simmons' face, and swung his right to the body and head with fearful force. several of these blows staggered Fitz-dramons, but none of them landed on the mark, as Pitssimmons was too shifty. At times both missed swings with either hand, but many of Ruhlin's were dodged in the eleverest manner. Fitzsimmons ced Rublin to break ground, and in the first to ease up and take refuge in a clinch. Time and again Fitzsimmons creed Rublin to the ropes, from which esition Rublin got away rather clumsily, tille Fitzsimmons was always very quick in his foot movements. When Ruh link mose began to bleed from a left punch the sight of the blood seemed to make a obtervent effect upon him, and Pitzshimmons was quick to see this.

On the first signs of weakness on Ruhin's part. Pitasimmons began his attack in the bedy, and each blow which he amied there made Gus wince with pain. Fitzsimmons' handlers kept orging him to play for the solar plexus, but he only ried it accessionally. Evidently he was waiting an opportunity for a right swing to the mark the fourth and fifth rounds both showed plainly the effects of the and rapid work they had done in preceding two rounds. Both were fired and leg weary, but Ruhlin showed up much the worse of the two. Fits-simmons was always the quicker on his feet at the call of time, but now and then, during the rounds, he seemed to stand still and glare at his opponent. Painkin at these times stood still, being evidently grateful for the chance of breathing which Fitzsimmens afforded him. Just once Fitzsimmons touched the when he slipped down from a

In the sixth round Ruhlin was slow in to time, while straight lefts for Fitzstimmons head. Bob side-stepped safely, and landed lefts and rights to the head and neck, and. with a fearful left on the solar plexus. Figsimmons sent Rublin in a heap to the floor. This was the beginning of the end that soon followed. Bublin, after taking nine seconds of the count, aroso to his feet groupy from the effects of the blow. Fitzsimmons knew he had his man Rublin, after and was roady for him. As soon as Ruh-Im get up. Pitzsimmons rushed, sending two lefts to the face and then shot his right with fearful force to the point of Rublin's law, Gus pitched forward, as If struck with an axe, and fell on his Wild scenes were then enacted in an what seemes were then expected in has about the ring. It seemed as if every one in the building wanted to great the winner or sympushine with the loser, and the pelles had a busy quarter of an hour getting the people out of the build-ing. Fitzelmmons left the building five minutes after he had struck the winning blow, but it took Rubbin 12 minutes to come around so he could walk to his Pitzeimmons was a little bit dazed when he reached his dressing-room, and when he reached his dressing-form, asked some of those gathered about If it was not the 15th round in which the fight was finished. He soon recovered reason and then indulged in a hearty

Bab's seconds wished him to go to a bath right away, but he refused, saying his wife was waiting for him and he must go home. And, as soon as he got his clothes on, he left the building, fol-lawed by an admiring and cheering crowd. Bublin when he reached his dress-ing-room was in a sort of trance, and it was a long time before he fully under-stood that he had been defeated. He was hadly bruised about the bead and was budly bruised about the head, and both eyes were almost closed. He did not care to talk, but managed to say: "I did the best I could, and no man can do more. Fitzaimmons whipped me, and that's all I can say about M. Hilly Madden, Rublin's manager, de-clared that Cus defeat was due to ever-training. James J. Corbett, who acted as one of Rubilin's seconds, also declared that Rubilin was over-trained. "I know this," he said, "for he was with me dur-ing my preparations for my bout with Jeffries. After that Gus continued training for his battle with Sharker, and worked even harder after that for his bear with Pitzsinamons. I warned him bout with Pitzsimmons. I warned him that he was doing too much, but he ironatized that he could stand it. Anybody could see tonight that something was wrong with him, as he sent the right to the jaw repeatedly, but the necessary trength was not behind the blows, White, who referred tonight bout, said: "It was a hard and fierce right, in which both men fought fairly. Pitzelmmons clearly demonstrated that he is nog a has-been and still has the punch that wins. Bublin at times looked as if he might win out, but he lacks ex-perience, which will be remedied in time and I have no doubt that he will be heard from to a much better advantage later on.' The Fight by Rounds.

Round 1-They met in the center of the ring, both feinting. Fitz landed a light right on the ear, and Ruhlin countered with a light left on the cheek. Ruhlin bored in, putting his left across the chest, sending Bob back to the ropes. Fitz broke ground and came to the cer ter quickly. He fell short with a left and right to the body. Fitz then hooked his left to the chin, and Gus came back with his left and right to the chin. Fitz with his sett and right to the chin. Fits missed left and right swinge to the head. Fits bored in but in a mix-up Gus beat him off to the ropes with a left and a right to the face. Ruhlin went at Bob with both hands to the head cutting Fitz' he got up Ruhlin, who did not hear the bell, swung on Fiz' face. Both seconds claimed a foul, but it was not allowed. Round 2-Gus staggered forward. Bob followed him, exchanging lefts and rights on each other's face. Fitz hooked his left to the nose, bringing the blood, and another rapid mix-up followed. Bob bored in, but Gus met him with a left and a right to the face. Bob was fight-ing wildly. Fitz sent a left to the body and followed with a right and a left to the body which made Gus wobble, and he clinched. Ruhlin sent a left to the face and repeated the blow. Fitz brought his left to the ear, and brought his right up to the body. A left jolt put Gus off his feet. Ruhlin went down and took the count. Neither of the men heard the bell, and each was so rattled that he did not know his corner.

Round 3-Gus came out very slowly, but palled in, and they exchanged lefts on the body. Fits missed a left swing to the head, but followed with a right on the Jaw. Fitz poked a left to the head. They exchanged lefts to the face. Gus kept jabbing until Fitz suddenly side-stepped and swung his right to the head. Both men were wild, missing several swings. Fitz was leading, and drove a hard right to the body, but Gus coun-tered with a left to the face. Both shoot still, glaring at each other. Fitz sent a hard left to the wind. Gus clinched and held on, but broke at the referee's bidding. At the close of the round Fitz sent a left and a right to the face. Both sent a left and a right to the face. Both were tired when they went to their corners, but Fitz seemed the fresher.

Round 4-Fitz was first up, but Ruhlin met him with a right on the chest, and Fitz swung his left and right to the head, and they came to a clinch on the ropes. Gus tried a left to the head, but fell short. Gus clinched. When they broke away, Gus put his left and right to the head, and Bob put a left to the head, fitzsimmons missed a left swing, and Gus got his right to the head. Gus sent three lefts to the face, and then sent a left and a right in that shook Fitz sent a left and a right in that shook Fitz to his toes. Clinches were frequent, and both men were very tired. Work on both sides was wild. After a clinch, Gus sent a right and a left to the head three times. Firsimmons went back with a left to the solar plexus, and forced Gus to the floor, where he took the count. Gus came up very groggy, but knew enough to hold out his left. Fits missed a swing for the head, Ruhlin ducking underneath it. Round 5-Fitz came up the fresher, Gus tried a left swing, but Fitz dodged. Fitz sent a left swing to the face, and they clinched again. Fitz landed a stiff left over the heart. Fitz kept boring in, and dropped his left to the stomach and his right to the Jaw. They exchanged lefts and rights on the body. Fitz jabbed his left in the face, and Gus swung his right to the nose. Both countered with lefts on the body and clinched. Gus jabbed his left to the face, and Pitz sent his left to the face. Fitz then put a hard left on the body, and threw his right over. Fitz sent a left and a right to the head, and sent Gus reeling around the ring. Both men were bleeding from the mouth and nose. The round ended with Fitz smashing Gus on the face with both hands, the Ohio man being on the ropes when the bell rang.

Round 6-Gus was very slow coming out. They crchanged light lefts and clinched. Gus got his right in, landing on the chin, and Fitz countered with a he Knock-Out Blow.

In the round Ruhlin was slow in the time, while Fitzsimmons of this man. Fitzsimmons got this man, while the latter sent to the work while the latter sent to the sending his right to the best to the bes and Bublin clinched on the ropes. After they broke away Fitz followed Gus up with lefts and rights to the head. With lefts to the body and the jaw, he dropped him to the floor. Gus took the count, when he arose. Pits gave him no time, but landed a right swing to the jaw and put him out. Ruhlin was carried to his corner, and Fitz was declared the win-Time of the round, two minutes and

HUGO TRAIN-ROBBERS LOCATED AND KILLED,

One Shot While Trying to Escape, the Other Burned to Death Where He Took Refuge.

GOODLAND, Kan., Aug. 10.—The two men who held up a Union Pacific passenger train near Hugo, Colo., last Sunday, killing Mr. Fay and plundering the passengers, were killed today by a Sheriff's posse at the Bartholomew ranch, three miles east of this place. The robbors were located in the house on the ranch in the morning, and the posse lined up and cut off escape. After a fusiliade between the robbers and the posse, in which Riggs and Cullens, deputies, were shot, one of the robbers jumped from a window and sought to escape, but was shot to death. The posse then lay siege to the house in which the remaining robber stood guard with a Winchester, and finally succeeded in setting fire to the building, which was destroyed, with its occupant. The robbers have not yet

The Desperadoes Located.

DENVER, Colo., Aug. 10.-The two men who robbed a train on the Union Pacific Railroad near Hugo, Colo., Sunday morn-ing last, were located in a sod house four miles north of Goodland, Kan., early this morning, by Sheriff Coffee, of that county. The men were suspected of being the robbers, and their identity was clearly established by the fierce resistance which they offered upon the approach of the pesse. They had horses which had evidently been ridden down, and they took refuge in the house. They opened fire as soon as the posse approached.

One of the robbers made a break to get away, and a running fire resulted. He fatally wounded two of the posse and seriously wounded a third, and was himself killed. His body is now in the possession of the posse. George Cullens, one of the posse, and D. C. Riggs, proprietor of a hotel at Goodland, who was also with the posse were wounded. The name of the third member of the posse who was shot has not yet been learned. C. E. Ciledson, an engineer who was with the posse, was the one who killed the robber.

The other robber is fortified in the dug-

GOODLAND, Kan., Aug. 10 .- The tw Union Pacific robbers located here this morning are dead, one shot to pieces and the other burned to death in the house on Bartholomew ranch. After the fight in the morning, when the first one was shot. the citizens armed themselves and went to the ranch. The man inside the house was armed with a Winchester, and a too near approach to the house drew his fire. About 4 o'clock some men, by crawling through a cornfield, got in a shed near the house, and from this place threw two railroad fuses on the top of the house, setting it on fire. It was not many minutes until the entire building was in flames, but the robber made no sign, and if he was not shot by a builet from the many that were fred from the outside, he found his death in the flames.

Setting.

CHICAGO, Aug. 10.—An Oriental ro-mance in an Occidental setting was ro-yealed when detectives from the Central Police Station arrested Oadle Herro, a Syrian, charging him with embezzling several thousand dollars' worth of few-elry. The complainant is a jewelry firm in this city where Herro was employed as a salesman in the Asiatic mail order de partment. The young man confessed his guilt and attributed his wrong desire to amass enough wealth to marry one of his countrywomen.

Herro told the police that he had been in this country six years. He was born in Damascus and on arriving in New York he obtained a position as an agent for an Oriental Jewelry house. Later he came to the Chicago firm and had sole charge of the trade with the Orient and conducted the correspondence in Syrian and Arabic. As no other member of the house understood these tongues, Herro was never interfered with and his books were seldom looked at.

The young foreigner was made to accompany the officers to his apartments. where many of the missing jewels were found, and also crucibles and chemist's lamps used by him in melting up his plunder. Three Thousand Names Already

Sent In. NEW YORK, Aug. 10.—The names distinguished men and women whose mirers are anxious to secure a niche for them in the Pantheon, or Hall of Fame are still coming in, and the list now in-cludes over 3000 names. The senate of the New York University, to whom the names are sent from all over the country, has just submitted to each of the judges a list of 234 names. Others are accumulating for disposition later.

The work of the judges is no sincecure, the work of the judges is no sincecure. for they are expected to select just who shall occupy the places of honor Of the thousands of names sent in durof the industries of names are all the ing the past few months, 100 were culled by the senate as a whole and a second 100 names were submitted by private individuals of note and seconded by memdividuals of note and seconded by nembers of the senate. Each of the other 24 names was submitted by one or more of the judges, they having been invited to contribute their choice.

John S. Billings, one of the resident udges, said in an interview: "Not much is expected to be done that direction until about the middle of September, when the work of the judges and all those directly interested in this great undertaking will be pushed with I have not even looked revised list of names as yet, and am not yet prepared to make any comment.

The final vote is expected to be submitted by the committee of judges by October I, so that the month of Septemper must necessarily be a busy one for those chosen to make this initial selec-tion. It is not yet settled whether there shall be a meeting of all the judges, who represent every section of the country, but it is generally believed that such a meeting will be held just before the final

Neely Still Held.

NEW YORK, Aug. 10.—John D. Lindsay, counsel for Charles F. W. Neely, who is accused of the embezzlement of Cuban postal funds, and against whom there have been proceedings for extradition to Cuba, said today that he had made appileation to Judge Wallace, of the United States Court, located at Albany, for a writ of habeas corpus for Neely. This, Mr. Lindsay says, Judge Wallace had de-"Judge Wallace did, however," said Mr.

Lindsay, "allow an appeal to the United States Supreme Court, and issued an order directing the Marshal to keep Neely here pending the appeal. Mr. Lindsay explained that the Supreme Court does not meet until next October, when, he said, the appeal would be ar-'We have simply raised a Constitutiona

BT. LOUIS, Aug. 10.—Articles of incorporation were filed in the Recorder's office this afternoon by the Labor Union Street Hallway Company. Its capital stock is placed at $500. Messrs. Edwards. Benson and Collins, the committee appointed by the local street rallway union to ex-ganize a corporation to enter the street rallway business, has engaged James B. Craig as its attorney and advisor. Mr. Craig was at one time president of the Union Pallway Comments of St. James Union Railway Company of St. Joseph, Mo. He says there will not be the slight Mo. He says there will not be the slight-est difficulty in building the road if a franchise can be secured. He declares that all the recessary money is already pledged. He says that the company was organized with a capital stock of 15000 just az a "starter." A mass meeting of the local union labor organizations will be held Saturday night, at which the new street railway project will be formatif-jaunchod.

Ironworkers May Strike. PITTSBURG, Pa., Aug. 10.—The wage differences between the Republic Iron & Steel Company, the American Tin Plate Company and the American accordacompany and the Amaignmated Associa-tion of Iron, Steel and Tin Workers are approaching a climax, and unless a set-tlement is reached very shortly an ex-tensive strike is probable. Another effort to effect a final adjustment of the scale will be made at a general conference to be held in Detroit August 34, a call for which was issued this afternoon by President Shaffer, of the Amalgamated Association. This is the first time in the history of the Amalgamated Association that the general conference committee has been asked to settle wage disputes.

An Overcrowded Prison. SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 10,-The mili-tary prison on Alcatraz Island has been overcrowded for some time past, and the constant arrival of soldlers with long sentences to serve has caused the issu-ance of an order directing the command-ant to release 5 per cent of the prisoners who have served any great portion of their sensences. This is in addition to those recommended by the Board of Clemency some days ago. The command-ant at Alcatraz has decided to release five men each day, in order to prevent the discharge in this city of so many men, many of whom are desperate characters.
