SOUTH DAKOTA REPUBLICAN

Prosperity Has Made a Change There—No Calamity Now.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 11.—One of the leading Republicans of South Dakota, R. S. Pearson, Deputy Auditor for the Interior Department, who endeavors to keep in close touch with the situation at home, makes the unqualified prediction that South Dakota will go Republican this Fall just as surely as will Iowa or Massachusetts, or any other state that is absolutely sure to cast its electoral vote for McKinley. Speaking reflectively, this gentleman said that the Republicans lost the state in 1896 in a foolish endeavor to pacify certain local elements in the party. "But there has been a change in the West, and in South Dakota, since 1896," he continued, "and since that time the Republicans have been steadily gaining."

The predicted success of the Republicans is attributed to numerous causes. Prosperity is doing more for Republicanism than any other one issue, and prosperous conditions in South Dakota are inducing thousands of voters to support the party that brought about such conditions. The evil prophecies regarding the effect of the gold standard, which scared many people into supporting Bryan in 1896, having failed to materialize, cannot be used to advantage, except to the Republicans. The further fact that conditions in that state are so improved today compared to what they were four years ago, and so far different from what was predicted by the Bryan orators if McKinley should be elected, that the Democratic party has made for itself a reputation of being unreliable, and the people have lost confidence in the party leaders. The South Dakota voters it is said do not need campaign literature this year to decide them as to their vote. Their minds are positively made up.

"A successor to Senator Pettigrew will be elected by the Legislature which will be elected in November. In 1898 the Republicans controlled both branches; and prospects for Republican success this year are good, although the majority will be small. The Republicans know they have a hard fight before them, and are organized as they never have been before in the state. I think there will be no trouble about returning a good Republican to the House.

"If the Bryanites can get any satisfaction out of the situation in South Dakota at the present time," concluded this gentleman, "they are not hard to please. If there is a solitary feature of the situation in that state more favorable to them than it was in 1896, I do not know what it is. If there is a solitary feature of the situation in that state that is not more favorable to the Republicans this year than it was in 1896, I do not know what it is.

"South Dakota belongs in the 'surely Republican' column. The cry of imperialism does not frighten our foreign-born population, for they know it is a campaign bogy. The attempt to make partisan capital out of the trust question will not succeed, because the hypocrisy of the Democratic position is well understood by every intelligent person."

A Summary.

Captain A. R. Van Sant, Republican candidate for Governor of Minnesota, thus summarizes the Kansas City platform:

Pull down the flag.
Rip the credit of the country up the back.
Get a bugaboo and call it imperialism.
Then stuff the people full of chaff.

WEATHER CONDITIONS.

The pressure is increasing over California and diminishing over the North Pacific States. A thunder shower is reported at Salt Lake, and light rain has just begun falling at Baker City, while elsewhere in the Rocky Mountain and Pacific Coast States fair weather prevails. The changes in temperature in the Western States have been small and unimportant. The indications are for unsettled and occasional threatening weather in this district Wednesday, with probably showers in Southern Idaho and the near-by portions of the adjoining states.

WEATHER FORECASTS.

Forecasts made at Portland for the 28 hours ending at midnight Wednesday, Aug. 15:

Western Oregon and Western Washington—Partly cloudy and occasional threatening weather; slightly cooler, except near coast; southerly winds.

Eastern Oregon—Threatening, with showers, possibly attended by thunder; variable winds, mostly westerly.

Eastern Washington and Northern Idaho—Increasing cloudiness, probably becoming threatening; southerly winds.

Southern Idaho—Threatening, with possibly thunder showers; probably cooler west portion; south to west winds.

Portland and vicinity—Partly cloudy and occasional threatening weather; slightly cooler; winds mostly southerly.

EDWARD A. BEALS, Forecast Official.
