Mr. Huntington was attacked with severe coughing just after retiring. His wife and he occupied the same apartment, and when the coughing attack came on, Mrs. Huntington gave him a glass of stimulant, as she had always done before. This seemed to relieve him for a moment. Then he said to Mrs. Burtington: I am very very to Mrs. Huntington: T am very, very ill. Those were the last words spoken by him, and he sank into unconsciousness

THE FIGHT OFF.

Jeffries Will Not Meet Winner of

Sharkey-Fitzsimmons Match. NEW YORK, Aug. 15,-There will be no fight between the winner of the Sharkay-Fitzsimmons match and James J. Jeffries, as was originally intended. Jeffries has decided to declare this match off, as he does not think there would be any credit in defeating a man who had another hard battle in the same week. Again, the winner might not be in condition to fight. This would give Jeffries all his hard work of training for nothing. Jeffries is willing enough to fight some good man before September 1, but, it is said, he realizes that should he defent Fixsimmons or Sharkey his victim would claim that he was out of condition.

This contract, it is alleged, has been violated by the defendant, which has made a subsequent defendant, which has made a subsequent contract with Defendant DeForce and has been delivering its fish offal to him, thereby causing the plaintiff great pecuniary loss. He asks that the defendant be compelled to comply with the terms of the original contract, and that the second contract be declared null and

SPEECH AT THE ANNUAL MEET-ING OF CHICAGO SOCIETIES.

Stevenson, Towne and Alschuler Were Also Heard-Governor Roosevelt's Campaign Tour.

CHICAGO, Aug. 16.—Mr. Bryan, Mr. Stevenson and others made speeches to-day at Sunnyside Park on the occasion of the annual meeting of the United Irish Societies of Cook County. The attendance was large, notwithstanding threatening weather. Mr. Bryan's speech was first of the series, but before he was heard the assembly adopted an address from which the following is an extract:
"Within the year freedom has received."

"Within the year freedom has received desperate blows at the hands of nations who claimed to be wedded to liberty, and we regret to say that the foreign policy of our own American Republic has exhibof our own American Republic, has exhibited a desire on the part of our Government to share in the seizure of territory, which is the distinguishink mark of the nation that throttled liberty upon this continent, burnd its capitol at Washington, destroyed its archives and set the merciless saveges upon defenseless women and children achildren burnting and deen and children, scalping, burning and destroying them.

The man whose happiness depends upon what others do for him may be doomed to disappointment, but if one's happiness depends upon what he does for others, he need not be disappointed. (Renewed applause.) I hope you will credit me with the ambition that is within the reach of every citizen of this land, an ambition which all can entertam, and which, to my mind be a heaver subtition than that my mind, is a higher ambition than that for any office, and that as an ambition to do what I can to make this Nation so great and good that to be a simple citizen will be greater than to be a King in any other land. (Great applause.)

"I am not here this afternoon to flatter your pride by telling you what the descendants of Erin have accomplished. While paying a tribute to the Irish race a voice shouted: "Your name should be "O'Brien." (Laughter and applause.) Mr. Bryan replied: "My friend has tried to ingratiate me into your favor by suggesting that my name is 'O'Brien,' and not Bryan. If the gentleman knew as much about it as I do, he would know that 'Bryan' is the original name and 'O'Brien'. Mr. Bryan then turned his attention to imperialism, concluding as follows:
"When we speak against imperialism or protest against wars of conquest they say that we are pleading the cause of the Filipino. I deny it. Mr. Stevenson followed Mr. Bryan. His speech dwelt upon a recent visit to Ire-land, and he eulogized the Irish people. Charles A. Towne was the third speaker of the day. CREED REVISIONS. Presbyterian Committee Begins

Work at Saratoga. SARATOGA, N. Y., Aug. 15.—The committee on the revision of the confession of faith appointed under a resolution of the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in St. Louis in May last is in session here. As this is the first meeting of the committee, its work here, according to the secretary, the Rev. Dr. W. H. Roberta is largely preliminary. Its plants of the property of the Roberts, is largely preliminary. Its ultimate action must be based in a great measure on the recommendations of the Presbyterian churches, certainly few of which have taken action as yet.

The power and scope of the committee, as defined by the General Assembly, is:
"To consider the whole matter of a restatement of the doctrines most surely believed among us, and which substan-tially are embodied in our confession of faith. "That this committee be enjoined dillgently to pursue the inquiries, seeking light and knowledge from every available source, and to report to the next assem-

Catarrh is an obstinate and dangerous disease. It clings tenaciously to the system, and grows more malignant with each returning Fall and Winter.

The time to take treatment for diseases of a catarrhal nature is now. The climatic conditions are most favorable—in fact, the best of the year—the liability to taking cold being the lowest, and one month's treatment now will do more good than two months in cold and rainy weather.

Now is the time. Those who suffer from catarrh should take advantage of all the influences that operate now in favor of a cure. They should not put off treatment until next Winter's stormy

I was under treatment at the Copeland Institute but a short time when I noticed an improvement. The pain began to leave, my appetite and strength returned and my head cleared up. I have not felt so well in years as I do now.

I had heard of the remarkable results of the Copeland treatment in catarrh. I made up my mind to try it, and I was completely surprised at the promptness and thoroughness with which the treat-

This poison through the general circulation is deposited in the joints, muscles and nerves, causing the most intense pain Rheumatism may attack with such suddenness and severity as to make within a few days a healthy, active person helpless and bed-ridden, with distorted limbs and shattered nerves; or it may be slow in developing, with slight wandering pains, just severe enough to make one feel uncomfortable; the tendency in such cases is to grow worse, and finally become chronic.

Like other blood diseases, Rheumatism is often inherited, and exposure to damp or cold, want of proper food, insufficient clothing, or anything calculated to impair the health, will frequently cause it to develop in early life, but more often not until middle age or later. In whatever form, whether acute or chronic sequired or Rheumatism is Strictly a Blood Disease, and no liniment or other external treatment can reach the trouble. Neither do the preparations of potash and mercury, and the various mineral salts, which the doctors always prescribe, cure Rheumatism, but ruin the digestion and break down the constitution.

A remedy which builds up the general health and at the same time rids the system of the poison is the only safe and certain cure for Rheunatism. S. S. S., made of roots, herbs and barks of woaderful solvent, purifying properties, attacks the disease in the right way, and in the right place—the blood—and quickly neutralizes the acid and dissolves all poisonous deposits, stimulates and reinforces the overworked, worn-out organs, and clears the system of all unhealthy accumulations. S. S. S. cures permanently and thoroughly, and keeps the blood in a pure, healthy state. Mr. J. O. Mailey, 123 W. 15th Street, Indianapolis, Ind., for eighteen months was so terribly afflicted with Rheumatism he was unable to feed or dress himself. Doctors said his case was hopelets. He had tried fifty-two prescriptions that friends had given him, without the slightest relief. A few bottles of S. S. cured him permanently, and he has never had a rheumatic pain since. This was five years aga.
