Lieutemant-Commander Chaites Pond, who was in charge of the expedi-tion with more in factors of the expedition, will report in favor of the station being located at Sand Iriand, the western and larger of the two islands lying within the stoll.

The steamships of the Canadian-Austra-In Company will in future continue to stop at this port, as the difficulty which prevented the Aorangi coming in last week has been removed. This difficulty was three judgments aggregating 5.30, secured against the steamship company, and E untried suits by members of a col-ored minartel company, who were re-faced transportation on secount of their dor. A compromise was effected for the warm of Life 000.

The Trust in Politics.

Burns Items. The Democratic candidate for the Presdency has persunded the Populists, Dem-orats and Silver Republicant to pool heir interests. In short he has formed political trust for the express purpose of destroying competition, yet stands on a plaiform which declares that such methods are destructive to personal lib-erty and dengerous to National life.
