FALL OF PEKIN

ALLIES CAPTURED THE CITY
WEDNESDAY.

THE LEGATIONS ARE SAFE

Chinese Made an Obstinate Resistance.

ENTRANCE WAS BY THE EAST GATE

The Japanese lost one hundred men In the Pekin-Wharves Heavy Chinese Were Killed.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 7 — The Japanese invasion of Peking, which was announced by the Japanese government

last Thursday, is now only a matter of history. The Japanese forces

are now

subjecting

the city to a

strong bombardment.

Washington, Peking was captured by the allied forces on Wednesday, as nearly everyone expected.

General Denman,

the

United States.

Ambassador to China,

entered Peking

on Wednesday,

as stated in the Japanese

accounts.

The

Japanese forces

are

now

subjecting

the city to a

strong bombardment.

Nearly one hundred

men were killed.

Pekin.

The

Japanese

forces

are

now

subjecting

the city to a

strong bombardment.

Nearly one hundred

men were killed.

Pekin.

The

Japanese

forces

are

now

subjecting

the city to a

strong bombardment.

Nearly one hundred

men were killed.

Pekin.

The

Japanese

forces

are

now

subjecting

the city to a

strong bombardment.

Nearly one hundred

men were killed.

Pekin.

The

Japanese

forces

are

now

subjecting

the city to a

strong bombardment.

Nearly one hundred

men were killed.

Pekin.

The

Japanese

forces

are

now

subjecting

the city to a

strong bombardment.

Nearly one hundred

men were killed.

Pekin.

The

Japanese

forces

are

now

subjecting

the city to a

strong bombardment.

Nearly one hundred

men were killed.

Pekin.

The

Japanese

forces

are

now

subjecting

the city to a

strong bombardment.

Nearly one hundred

men were killed.

Pekin.

The

Japanese

forces

are

now

subjecting

the city to a

strong bombardment.

Nearly one hundred

men were killed.

Pekin.

The

Japanese

forces

are

now

subjecting

the city to a

strong bombardment.

Nearly one hundred

men were killed.

Pekin.

The

Japanese

forces

are

now

subjecting

the city to a

strong bombardment.

Nearly one hundred

men were killed.

Pekin.

The

Japanese

forces

are

now

subjecting

the city to a

strong bombardment.

Nearly one hundred

men were killed.

Pekin.

The

Japanese

forces

are

now

subjecting

the city to a

strong bombardment.

Nearly one hundred

men were killed.

Pekin.

The

Japanese

forces

are

now

subjecting

the city to a

strong bombardment.

Nearly one hundred

men were killed.

Pekin.

The

Japanese

forces

are

now

subjecting

the city to a

strong bombardment.

Nearly one hundred

men were killed.

Pekin.

The

Japanese

forces

are

now

subjecting

the city to a

strong bombardment.

Nearly one hundred

men were killed.

Pekin.