The President Will Be Guarded.

CHICAGO, Aug. 22 .- President McKinley will have a body-guard of 200 police-men, under the command of Capitain Gibbons, and the same number of Na-tional Guardsmen, at the reception to the Nation's chief executive and other distinguished visitors to be given in Me-morial Hall by the G. A. R. officials next Tuesday afternoon at 3:39 o'clock.

This arrangement was determined upon by General John C. Black, chairman of the committee on invitation and courte-sies. At the same time all details for meeting the Presidential party Saturday were completed and the line of march agreed upon for the escort to the head-quarters at the Paimer House. The Fresident's train will be met by a de-tail from the First Illinois Cavalry and Cook's Fife and Drum Corps, of Denver.

The party will take carriages. After arriving at the Paimer House the President will have no ceremonial duties to perform until Monday afternoon at 3 o'clock.

MILWAUKEE, Wis., Aug. 28.-The Democratic State Convention for the nomination of a full state tloket was talled to order at the Palost Theater by State Chairman George W. Peck at noon today. The theater was prettily decorated with the National colors. A huge picture of Bryan, draped in National colors, was placed in front of the stags. Chairman Peck introduced Clark L. Hood, of La Crosse, as the temporary chairman, who spoke briefly on the issues of the campaign.

Chairman Hood confined his remarks mainly to criticising the Republican party. He alluded to the conditions of four years ago, when many of the Democraile leaders who opposed the Chleago platform "had kicked over the traces, the wheel horses had belied, and we were left without leadership." He then con-gra plated the convention that every one of these leaders is with the party today of these leaders is with the party today, and said he thought he could safely claim there is not a Democrat in the United States today who is not in favor of the Kansas City platform. The people had confidence in the intelligence and infegrity of Bryun, he said, and if elected he would find a way to correct the trust evil. Referring to the newly acquired territory, he said the United States was holding beople by taxation without rep-
