

A LIFE-POICY SUIT

Insurance Company Refuses to Pay Risk on Geary.

HE WAS KILLED IN THE PHILIPPINES

Class Forbid Engaging in War, but Company Was Notified and Accepted Premiums Regularly.

CORVALLIS, Or., Aug. 22.—Mrs. Maud Geary, widow of the late Captain Woodbridge Geary, has begun suit in the Benton County Circuit Court against the Prudential Savings Life Assurance Society of New York, for the recovery of the sum of $3000. The amount represents the policy held with the company by Captain Geary at the time of his death, but refused to pay. The grounds for the refusal are the following clause in the printed policy, to which Captain Geary subscribed when taking out the policy: "That I will not personally engage in military or naval service in time of war without first obtaining in each and every case the written consent of the society."

In her complaint Mrs. Geary alleges that the above clause is void, as it is pleaded by the defendant company, as a bar to her proceedings, because, when making application for the policy, January 2, 1896, Captain Geary, then second lieutenant, accepted the terms of the contract that he was engaged in active military service, and was liable at any time to be called into the field; and that the agent of defendant gave the applicant written consent to engage at all times in active military service. This written consent, however, together with the plaintiff's copy of the policy, was destroyed by a fire which occurred at Corvallis, July 1, 1898, and in which the Geary residence and a large part of the contents were destroyed.

As a further reason, Mrs. Geary alleges that the premium on the policy has been regularly paid, and has always been accepted by defendant, with the full knowledge on the part of the latter that Captain Geary was in the field. When her husband was called to Corvallis, in Spanish-American War, the company was at once notified. When he went, later, to the Philippines, similar notification was given defendant. July 3, 1898, plaintiff paid and defendant accepted the semi-annual premium on the policy, January 3, 1899, the premium was again paid and accepted, as it was also on July 8, 1898. On the 11th of October, following the last payment, Captain Geary was killed in battle in the Philippines.

AN INDEPENDENT FIRE

At 1 o'clock this morning the barn of Judge McPadden was destroyed by fire. The flames started in the upper story, in a room where a number of horses and cows in the lower story were saved. The rest of the contents, together with the building, were reduced to ashes. The loss foots up over $50. The insurance company was unquestionably of incendiary origin.

AFTER 52 YEARS.

Man Who Came to Oregon in 1846

Reports From Mississipi. SALLIS, Or., Aug. 22.—Mrs. E. M. Croson, of this city, has received a letter from a member of the company with which she crossed the plains in 1846, but of whom she had heard nothing for 52 years. The letter came from Mr. Sutton Burns, who now resides at Bonfield, Miss. He saw Mrs. Croson's name in The Oregonian's list of pioneers, and wrote to inquire whether she is the same Mrs. Croson who came to Oregon with Captain Rice Dunbar's company. Mr. Burns went by the name of Sutton, when, as an orphan boy of 13 years, he came to Oregon with his brother's family. The brother having died on the plains, the Sutton boy was cared for by the Crosons, and made his home with them until 1848. In his letter Sutton relates stories of several incidents of the perilous journey across the mountains. "Apple Grove's cut-off," and of the hardships encountered in the winter spent on the Umpqua.

Old Philippine Penal Code.

State Librarian J. B. Putnam today received a copy of a translation of the penal code of the Philippines. The code was established by an edict of King Alfonso of Spain, in 1848. In this code a crime or misdemeanor is defined to be any act or omission punished by law. "Mens rea" is not required from criminal liability are imbeciles and lunatics, and persons under 3 years of age. He who acts in defense of his person or rights is also exempt, provided there are the following circumstances: (1) Illegal aggression; (2) reasonable necessity of the means employed to prevent or repel it; (3) lack of sufficient provocation on the part of the other person defending himself. He who acts in compulsion of an irresistible force or "under the impulse of an uncontrollable fear of an equal or greater injury" is also exempt. Among the circumstances which are held to aggravate criminal liability are: "When the act is committed with treachery; when the crime is committed in consideration of a price, reward, or bribe; when the act is committed with abuse of confidence; when advantage is taken by the culprit of his public position; when the crime is committed in a sacred place, in the palace of the Governor General, or in the presence of the latter, or when public authorities are engaged in the discharge of their duties; and when the culprit is a vagrant." It is also provided that "the circumstance of the culprit being a native, mestizo or Chinese shall be taken into consideration by the Judges and courts for the purpose of increasing or reducing the penalties awarded. He who acts with a specific intention, the nature of the act, and the condition of the person offended, which shall be left to the judgment of the forum."

55 and 60 Marry.

William Miller better known as "Uncle Scotch," an octogenarian of this city, married today Mary Pearson, aged 60, of Klamath County. Miller is a well-known member of the Masonic fraternity, and is 52 years of age. He owns a large amount of real estate north of Salem.

Charged With Bicycle Stealing.

Chief of Police Burns, of Oregon City, came to Salem today to take charge of Ed Gratton, of Portland, who is wanted by Oregon City to answer to a charge of stealing a bicycle. Gratton was arrested by the Constable at Gervais, and a bicycle formerly in his possession was found in the trash near Chemawa. The bicycle is not the one which Gratton is alleged to have stolen, but is a Hambley bearing Multnomah County tax No. 184.

NEW PRICES FOR PRUNES

AGREED UPON BY WILLAMETTE VALLEY PRUNE ASSOCIATION.

Makes a Difference How the Fruit Is Packed—New Warehouse Machinery to Be Purchased.

SALEM, Or., Aug. 22.—About 10 days ago the Willamette Valley Prune Association decided upon a scale of prices at which the association will offer to sell the goods under its control. These prices were made known at the time to the members of the association and to outside buyers, and were made public today. For Fellenberg prunes the association price is fixed on a basis of 5 cents in bags, 5 1/2 cents in 10-pound boxes, and 5 1/2 cents in 25-pound boxes. On the basis above stated, the largest size of Fellenberg's, 3 1/2 to 4 to the pound, would be held at 24 cents in bags, 24 cents in 10-pound boxes, and 24 cents in 25-pound boxes.

Capital City Brocivites.

State Land Agent L. B. Geer left this evening on a tour of Crook, Harney, Grant, Morrow, Sherman and Wheeler Counties, looking after farms owned by the state.

John Huffman, a farmer residing on the bank of the Willamette a few miles above Salem, was fined in Justice O'Neil's court this morning for throwing a dead hog into the river.

LIGHT SOCKEY PACK.

Only About 125,000 Cases—Ought to Be 850,000.

VANCOUVER, B. C., Aug. 22.—The sockeye salmon run of the Fraser River this season, which is now practically over, is the lightest on record. The total catch for the 43 canneries engaged in the fishery has been estimated at 125,000 cases, as against 850,000 cases in a good year. The total pack should be seven times as great. During several seasons the aggregate pack has exceeded 800,000 cases. Probably 100,000 cases of salmon were lost on account of the strike, but this year would have been light in any case. Five sailing ships have been chartered to carry the pack to Liverpool, but the probability is more than one or two at most will be used.

Close Call for Senator Howe.

M'MINVILLE, Aug. 22.—A few days ago, Senator W. A. Howe, of Carlton, was accepted by the members of the caucus in a tank he was coating with the composition, and but for the help of a man who was working near, he would not have escaped. The man got the Senator out of the tank after he had fallen in.

Oregon Notes.

Two cases of diphtheria are reported at the Dalles. An asphalt cannery is working on corn and string beans. Mills at Ashland are paying 45 cents per bushel for wheat. O'Neil's fruit-packing house at Central Point has been completed. In Klamath County, the demand for horses is the greatest ever known. Louis Gerber, of Klamath, is sending 20 head of beef cattle to Sacramento. Work is in progress at Pendleton on the street car. The Street Fair and Harvest Carnival. Grant's Pass can get a fall of 47 feet by bringing water from Rogue River, at Savage Rapids. At Corvallis, a petty thief has stolen 1000 lbs. of apples from the store of A. J. Keckheke. William Abrams has sold E. A. McKee 75 acres, two miles east of Albany; price, $1500. Mary C. Boyson has sold George Taylor 100 acres of land adjoining Corvallis on the north, for $900. A Harrisburg company has contracted with R. C. Edwards, of Lowell, for 6,000,000 feet of logs next summer. John Pracht is now booming some Mexican water, which he claims is better than a specific for kidney troubles. Albany boys are turning honest "quarters" by selling baskets of fruit to passengers on trains that stop there. In Harney County, $50 to $75 per head is paid for horses by speculators, who want them to sell to the Government. Since the terrible accident at Eddyville recently, the County Court of Lincoln county has condemned two other bridges. J. B. Graham, formerly of Idaho, died at La Grande, August 30, from dropsy. His age was 60. He left a wife and three sons. H. C. Grady, of La Grande, has received a personal letter from Adlai Stevenson, who says indications are favorable for Bryan's success in Illinois. The big circus is to play at Salem and Medford, both in the afternoon. The reason it stops at these places, says the Eugene Guard, is that the animals must be unloaded for a day. J. W. Walters, who has operated a mill for some time, has just sold a large tract of land in Harney County, and has contracted with loggers for 3,000,000 feet of logs in the Lake Creek mountains. E. A. Masterson, a stockman of Elgin, has returned from Nome. He went on the Despatch, taking up 100 fat steers and 200 fat wethers, but the venture was not a success, and it took close figuring to bring him out even.

A Pool of Prunegrowers.

The Willamette Valley Prunegrowers' Association, through its board of directors, has pooled 15 or 20 carloads of Italian and French prunes, belonging to the members of the organization, and is offering the same to Eastern buyers: 20 to 40 cents; 40 to 50, 5 1/2 cents; 50 to 60, 4 1/2 cents; 60 to 70, 4 1/2 cents; 70 to 80, 3 1/2 cents. While these figures are considerably above the market price, which is 20 to 25 cents per bushel, and the price has made sales on this basis and there is little doubt that the whole crop of prunes in this section will be disposed of at remunerative prices.

To Begin Picking August 28.

MILWAUKIE, Or., Aug. 22.—J. S. Risley & Son, who have one of the best hop yards in Clackamas County, report that their yard is free of lice and that the crop will not be quite as large as last season, but the quality will be better; the stems and leaves are smaller, and will dry better. The hops have a nice golden-green color, and are very plump, the hopmen like. Last year they were a dull green, with thick stems and large leaves. The Risleys will pay their pickers 35 cents per bushel and will start August 28 to gather the crop.

Hops of Greenville.

FOREST GROVE, Or., Aug. 22.—William Moore, a merchant at Greenville, said today that he had an excellent hop crop last year, both in quantity and quality, but he will have a greater yield and of better quality this year. He will commence picking September 1. George Ben of Seaside has offered $12 per ton yesterday for Timothy hay. This is the highest price tendered in this section this year. F. W. Johnson, of this place, sold 50 tons at $12.

Sale of 25,000 Bushels of Wheat.

LA GRANDE, Or., Aug. 22.—The Pacific Coast Elevator Company today, through W. T. Couch, purchased of A. B. Conley 25,000 bushels of club wheat. Four buyers submitted sealed bids, but the price paid has not been made public. This is the largest sale of the season in Grand

WHAT THE LAND LAW SAYS

NOMINAL RESIDENCE NOT SUFFICIENT FOR HOMESTEAD.

Timber Claims May Be Taken as Homestead, but Scrutiny of Entryman's Intent Is Required.

OREGON CITY, Aug. 21.—(To the Editor.)—The following expressions are contained in a letter received in this morning's mail from a prominent business man in the Willamette Valley: "I am anxious to take up a homestead in the Willamette Valley, and without evading the law or stretching my conscience, . . . Do you think that the law requires a person to make his domicile upon the land or only 'residence'?" It is understood that the land referred to is heavily timbered. The laws of June 3, 1878, provide for the sale of timber land at $20 per acre in cash. Timberland is desirable for agricultural purposes. Under the homestead law land is secured by the payment only of the taxes on the land for a period of five years' residence and cultivation. The requirements as to residence and cultivation are modified in the case of soldiers, their widows and heirs; but others are only exempt from requirements by commuting their entries. The commutation of a homestead entry consists in paying for the land the Government price of $125 per acre. The Government price is $125 per acre. The law does not expressly prohibit the taking of timber land under the homestead law, providing the entry is bona fide and the entryman takes the land for the purpose of making it a home and not merely for the purpose of securing the tax exemption. In other land districts in the country very remote from Oregon City, it is claimed that many are taking advantage of the homestead laws to secure land valuable only for its timber. They make a colorable showing of 14 months' residence and cultivation upon a homestead claim, utterly worthless for anything else but its timber, many have secured patents for the payment of the Government price of $125 per acre. This is cheaper than buying it under the timber law at $20 per acre; but it often requires considerable nerve and a somewhat boldness in soliciting growers to enter into contracts, but apparently few care to tie up their crops in this way. One grower here who contracted to deliver his crop to a buyer had previously made arrangements with a third party to get what money was needed to care for his crop. Banks here say that they have money to loan on hop crops, and any reputable grower can get all the funds that he needs to harvest his hops.

Few Hop Contracts in Clackamas.

OREGON CITY, Aug. 22.—It is a notable fact that but few Clackamas hop-growers are contracting the sale of their hops—at least but few contracts are being placed on record. Agents for buyers are soliciting growers to enter into contracts, but apparently few care to tie up their crops in this way. One grower here who contracted to deliver his crop to a buyer had previously made arrangements with a third party to get what money was needed to care for his crop. Banks here say that they have money to loan on hop crops, and any reputable grower can get all the funds that he needs to harvest his hops.

BETTER WHEAT PRICES.

The report of Friday, to the effect that the wheat market stands below 45 cents, is erroneous, according to the statement of U. G. Couch, agent for the Pacific Coast Elevator Company at Island City, who reports that his company is paying 45 and 46 cents. This is admittedly a quotation above the regular market price, and is in competition with the local mills, which usually establish a price a couple of cents higher than the market. The price of wheat is now 45 cents, and the price of flour is 1.25 cents per bushel.

Robbed and Murdered.

VANCOUVER, B. C., Aug. 22.—Thomas Clark, aged 45, and supposed to have in his possession several hundred dollars, was found murdered today at Chemalun. He had been struck on the head with a blunt instrument. Robbery was undoubtedly the motive.

Idaho Notes.

Mullan has 400 voters, but so far only 25 have registered. Governor Steuneger has moved up on a 100-acre timber culture claim, three miles south of Caldwell. A company has been formed at Boise to dam Ten Mile Creek and secure a reservoir supply of water for irrigation. The water power of Post Falls, on the Spokane River, is to be converted into electrical power and transmitted to the Coeur d'Alene district for operation of the mines. Jack Murray, of Mullan, killed a mule deer some 45 miles supposed to have in a trap with a half-inch rope. Next morning it was gone. He followed a trail, found the carcass partly eaten, set a rifle in a V-shaped pen, with the deer's head at the entrance, and in a few minutes bagged a 200-pound mountain lion next day.

SOUTH BEND, Wash., Aug. 22.—The Populist county convention met today at South Bend, Wash., and adjourned. The delegates named were: W. B. Donaldson for Superintendent of the Chinook Highway, and T. Church, S. K. Clyde, John Stewart and D. Knapp, delegates to the state convention of candidates for the state convention. The convention will probably be called again September 4, the date to which the Democrats adjourned.

The Democratic Delegates.

The Democratic County Convention met last night and elected A. P. Cochran, J. W. Wentworth, J. L. Myers, William Bullard and Phillip F. Atter as delegates to the state convention. A majority of the delegates are understood to favor Rogers for Governor. Owing to the death of candidate for the state convention, the delegates adjourned to meet September 4 to nominate a county ticket. Mr. W. Johnson was chairman and J. J. Brumback, secretary of the convention. Assistant Attorney General Varnum addressed a fastidious audience, devoting much of his time to denouncing Roosevelt. A banquet followed at the Hotel Albee.

STOREHOUSES FOR TAKE.

30 to Be Built by United States—Furnish at Seattle.

SEATTLE, Aug. 22.—The United States Government will build, within the next four months, 30 large storehouses at Taku, China, for the accommodation of a vast supply of commissary and other goods. The storehouses are to be constructed to that point for the maintenance of American troops. The material for these warehouses will be purchased by the Quartermaster's Department at an early date. Advertisements are now out which include 50,000 feet of common lumber, with ash, doors, hard ware and corrugated iron. Bids will be opened at 10 o'clock on August 23. The Depot Quartermaster at Taku is Captain J. C. Byron, who assisted Captain Robinson, Jr., in dispatching the first four transports from Puget Sound ports to the Philippines.

THUNDER STORM AT ASHLAND.

Did Some Damage, But Greatly Freshened Things.

ASHLAND, Or., Aug. 22.—During the thunder storm in this vicinity, which last night did some damage, the water in the reservoir at Ashland was raised to the top of the dam, with sharp and frequent flashes of lightning. A fire started in the store of Butler & Thompson, a few miles southeast of this city, was struck by lightning, and a nearby stack containing 10 tons of Timothy hay was destroyed. The storm was general as far north as the Rogue River. Twenty-six hundredths of an inch of rain fell in this city, and it freshened up the appearance of things greatly.

Diphtheria at the Dalles.

TWO DALLES, Or., Aug. 22.—Two well-developed cases of diphtheria were reported to the city authorities last night by Dr. G. B. Bennett. The sufferers are the daughters of George Bunn, and they have been ill for several days without a doctor being called. As Mr. Bunn's residence is somewhat isolated from other houses, it is hoped the disease may be confined to the one family. Mr. Bunn's eldest son was buried last week, and many friends visited the house at that time, after the children were taken sick.

Killed a Cannery Boss.
