ZITZMAN'S DEATH. investigation Shows It to Have Been

Accidental. Sheriff Lossy, District Attorney Miller and Coroner House have returned to vale from their trip to the Zitzman such. The body of Zitzman was found in the field alongside of his mower. A former's jury was impaneled, and after staning to the evidence, returned a ver-ct that the deceased came to his death the accidental discharge of his own Sitzman was mowing. His sickle beconfing clogged with grass, he stopped is tram, backled up a few feet, and got ff the machine to extricate the grass at of the ingers of the mover, He ook hold of the pluman rod with his left and and was loosening the grass with its right. He carried his revolver—a st-liber Coll's—in a shoulder holster on he left shoulder, and it was loose in the cabbard. When he stooped it fell, strik-ns the hammer on the finger har of the ower, and was discharged. The builet ruck Zitzman in the left breast near is left shoulder, coming out under the got shoulder. Death was instantaneous. commed leaves considerable property, as far as known leaves no relatin this country. The remains were buried at Ironside by friends.

Rogne Biver Valley Fruit.

MEDFORD, Or., Aug. 21.—The fruit crop r Rogue River Valley is going to turn ut much shorter than was first estiated, supecially on prars, prunes and luma. The pear crop is very light, Near-all plums and prunes will be shipped ried this year, and will amount to 15 to cars. Of the later apples for Eastern and foreign markets there will probably be 150 to 175 cars. The general condi-tions have been excellent and fruit will all be large and well-colored stock.
