HOMA.

Improvements in the Mount Tabor School Building-East Siders' Outing on the McKenzie.

Tuesday afternoon the new steamer of Captain Hill, the Tahoma, left her moor-lings at the Johnston shipyard on East Water and Clay streets, on a trial trip to Sellwood and back. Her ownet is satisfied that she can easily make 16 miles an hour with 16 pounds of steam. She has an up-od-date new bolier made by a firm in this city. Her engines were those formerly used on the steamer Gov-ented Newell, but were thoroughly re-nited and put is good condition. John C. Farrell, a practical engineer, superin-tended the pincing of the engines in po-ation, and has done excellent work. The Tahoma will scon be inspected, and will then take the pince of the Governor Newell. The officers are: Charles Hill, ospialis. Will Redman, mate: Lew Weth-erford, engineer. erforå, engineer

East Siders on the McKenzie.

"The Bosers," a party of young men from the East Side, who left for Belkap Springs, on the McKenzle River, Au-gust & report a general good time and ome very good sport. Those in the gust & report a general good time and some very good sport. Those in the party are: Douglins Love, Edward Brighm, Archie Tibbetta Dr. W. A. Roberta, George G. Brandenburg, of Portland, and C. E. Mazon, of Harrisburg. "The Box-cra" left Harrisburg by team and were two and a haif days on the trip to the springs, a distance of 5 miles. They had vary good sport on the road. Dr. Rob-erts killed a deer about 25 miles from the springs. Brandenburg and Brigam caught 210 trout, and the party feasted on venison steaks and red sides on the way in. On the Nih the Portlanders left the springs for a four days' trip up the applications for a four days' trip up the giver to the McKentie Falls. It was a hard trip along a blazed trail, but they were amply repaid for their trouble. The falls are about 20 miles from the aprings. and are about 50 feet in height. Below is a large basin, 200 feet in diameter, Below which fairly terms with the speckicd beauties. An ordinary hook was of no more good thun a pin, as the gamy fish would snap them off in a winking. Howwould shap them off in a twinking, isow-ever, the hoys succeeded in bringing back to camp To pounds of dreased lish. There are about 155 campers at Bellinap Springs. Among them are several people from the metropolis. This is an ideal place for an outing, as there are a great many an outing, as there are a great many deer in the mountains, and the river fair-ly teems with trout. One of the campers caught an eight-pound Dolly Variden trout Saturday which measured 37 inches. Brig-am, Love and Brandenburg caught 370 trout in Lost Lake last week in four nours' fishing

At Mount Tabor.

The contractor for the completion of the two upper rooms in the Giene inouse, in Mount Tabor District No. 5, has the first cost on, and will soon finish up the work. This will provide four good rooms in that building, of which three will be used in the coming with it it was considered best to com-plete the entire structure and have done with it at once. The other room will be required within another year, anyway. No general repairs will be required in the n schoolhouse on West avenue .spd the Base Line road, as it was thoroughly overhauled hast year. The district is hav-ing 50 cords of wood delivered, which will be stored away in the basement. The schools will open in this district at the same time that the city schools begin. A fine large dwelling is under construc-tion at Mooni Tabor for Lawyer Platt. It is mearing completion. It will cost about $560, and will be one of the finest erected at Mount Tabor. The residence epected at atount inder, the residence stands on Prettyman atvenue. Henry Prettyman has add off some ground to parties who will build this year. J. C. Moreiand and family have moved from their former home at Mount Tabor to the effect of the second to the table of the second to be seen to be set to city, and the new owner, E. E. Lyttle, is having it thoroughly overhauled.
