IDAHO IS FOR EXPANSION

STATE AUDITOR THINKS IT IS CERTAIN FOR REPUBLICANS.

Suppression of the Riots in the Coeur d'Alenes Has Given That Section a New Birth.

Bartlett Sinclair, State Auditor of Idaho, who is at the Portland, says that commercially Idaho is now more prosperous than it has ever been before. All the crops are good, and the mineral output exceeds the record of any past year.

"In regard to the Coeur d'Alene district," said Mr. Sinclair, "the progress has surpassed the most hopeful anticipations. Since the riots of April, 1899, and their suppression, that district has received a new birth. There is absolutely no parallelism between the Coeur d'Alenes before the reign of the dynamite element in that section and the reign of the law-and-order element. Socially, commercially, politically and, indeed, in all other respects the district has forged ahead most wonderfully. The expenditure to which the state was forced to restore order has been returned a thousand-fold. The assessed values have nearly doubled, and the county has begun to pay off its indebtedness. The inhabitants feel safe in their personal and property rights, and there is abundance of work for those who want work."

Mr. Sinclair thinks the state will go Republican this year. "All the indications point to a reversal in our state of the Fusionist majority of two years ago. There are several reasons for this. The Silver Republicans have practically all gone back to the Republican party, and the Democrats are disgusted with their state convention for the signal defeat of all the Democratic members of the present state administration who came before the convention for nomination. Our people, Republicans and the majority of the Democrats, are for expansion. On that issue alone our state could be carried for Republicanism.

"The great mass of the people recognize in Judge Standrod, Republican candidate for Governor, a firm advocate and believer in the enforcement of all laws. The class of independent citizens opposed to anarchy will vote for him, irrespective of politics. He is a magnificent specimen of American citizenship, and will carry the ticket to victory. John Morrison is the Republican candidate for Congress, and ranks as one of the very ablest men we have in public life.

"Senator George L. Shoup will succeed himself just as sure as anything can be which has not already happened. The people of the state recognize his sterling worth and devotion to his state, and are strongly in favor of his return. He has accomplished more for our state than all the other Senators combined, and makes less noise about it."

Mr. Sinclair leaves for Seaside today.
