WEATHER CONDITIONS.

The pressure has fallen slightly over the Pacific Coast States, and the barometer is now lowest over Southern Idaho and highest over North Dakota. It is very cloudy and threatening in this district, but no rain has yet occurred. It is warmer in Idaho and the nearby portions of the adjoining states, and cooler in the interior of California and the southwestern portion of Oregon. The indications are for cloudy and threatening weather in this district Tuesday, with scattered showers.

WEATHER FORECASTS.

Forecasts made at Portland for the 28 hours ending at midnight Tuesday, August 28:

Western Oregon and Western Washington—Cloudy and threatening, with probably showers; variable winds.

Eastern Oregon, Eastern Washington and Idaho—Cloudy and threatening, with probably showers and thunder storms; cooler; variable winds.

Portland and vicinity—Cloudy and threatening, with probably showers; variable winds.

EDWARD A. BEALS, Forecast Official.

Communism.—Communism raised its hideous head. "Gold for the million," it shouted. Society in the Better Sense shuddered and grew sick at heart. "Government links! Public coddies! State—" But here Society swooned and heard no more.—Detroit Journal.

Proposals Invited.

NOTICE TO CONTRACTORS—SEALED BIDS will be received for the reconstruction of the overhead roadway, and deck of west approach of the steel railroad bridge over the Willamette River in Portland, Or., according to specifications on file in the office of the County Commissioners, up to 2 o'clock P. M. Friday, August 31, 1900.

Certified check for $500, made payable to the order of the County Commissioners, will be required of each bidder.

A bond equal to the amount of the bid, conditioned on completing the work according to specification and contract, must be given by the bidder to whom the contract is awarded.

Two separate bids will be required:

One bid for doing the work with the highway closed to all travel.

One bid for doing the work with street-car travel maintained at all times. Bids must be made on blanks furnished by the County Commissioners.

Bids to be marked "Proposals for reconstructing roadway and deck of steel railroad bridge."

The time for the commencement of the work will be Sept. 15, 1900, and for the completion of the same Oct. 15, 1900.

The Commissioners reserve the right to reject any or all bids.

W. B. STEELE,
J. G. MACK,
WM. SHOWERS,
County Commissioners.

SAN FRANCISCO, CAL., AUGUST 25, 1900—Sealed proposals, in triplicate, will be received here until 12 M., Monday, September 10, 1900, and then opened, for furnishing 70 black artillery horses at the Presidio of San Francisco. Government reserves right to reject or accept any and all bids, or any part thereof. Bids will be considered for a less number of horses than that stated. Preference given to articles of domestic production, conditions of price and quality (including in the price of foreign productions the duty thereon) being equal, and such preference given to articles of American production produced on the Pacific Coast, to the extent of consumption required by the public service there. Information furnished on application to J. M. Marshall, Deputy Quartermaster-General, U. S. Army, Chief Quartermaster.
