Black Dress Silks

Are good as gold. After many years selling them, we've yet to hear the first complaint. These silks are strictly all silk and of the best quality. They are made of any kind to make them cut or break. The manufacturers of these silks make more than black, and in these they cannot be excelled. We have a fine variety of them, both dull and satin finish. THERE'S NO EXCESSIVE, $1.50 TO $2.50 YARD. NEWS FROM ORIENT

Late Papers Brought By the Monmouthshire.

RUSSIANS IN MANCHURIA

Murder of Catholic Missionaries—Occupation of New Chwang—The Oregon.

A package of copies of the Kobe Herald brought yesterday by the Monmouthshire contained the following late news from China.

Russia is pouring tens of thousands of Cossacks from the North into Manchuria, and report says no human soul is being spared and a wide open tract is being made as the troops press forward. They are, nevertheless, meeting some opposition en route, as the whole of the Chinese come out against them. I fear we know really but little of what is going on in the far north and interior of the country. Refugees continue to flock to Vladivostok from the interior and steamers are leaving fully laden with them. On the 9th more than 12 Russian priests took passage in the Yamashiro Maru, also a considerable number of Japanese and Chinese; and it is expected that for some time to come ships will be full up. Matters in this country are quiet, and as long as the Boxers can be kept out of it, little or no trouble with such an element as that will disturb Korea. If the Boxers get a footing in Korea the natives from sheer fright will be obliged to join them.

The very handsome gift to the allied troops by the Korean Emperor is very significant and many venture to think he would do well to send a few hundred soldiers to join the allied forces. Confidence seems to have been restored amongst the foreigners living in the northern parts. By the by, the 12 Chinese transports, with 20,000 Boxers, of which we heard the other day, have not yet arrived in the port of Pusan. When in that port some few weeks ago, I found many believed in the report. Of all the places in Korea Pusan is most safe. It is the most southern and best guarded place in the whole country. Besides being so near to Japan there is generally a Japanese man-of-war there, and always 200 or 300 well-trained soldiers besides a Japanese population of 6000. Seoul and Chemulpo just now are very hot, but our friends from China will no doubt find it better than the filthy dirty cities of China. Many missionaries are the guests of the residents of both Seoul and Chemulpo. The railway between the two places is in good working order and it is a great boon to the public, as is also the electric railway in Seoul.

Chemulpo, August 9, 1900.

Murders of Missionaries.
The Catholic Mission in Kobe is being kept advised of the fate of Catholic missionaries in China from Shanghai. By the latest mail comes the news that Fathers F. Gougon and M. Leroy have been murdered in Manchuria, and that Fathers J. C. Monnier, A. H. Roubin and F. Despi have escaped. Details of the fate of those who suffered several previous victims have already been reported: are not to Kobe, although it is supposed that the Catholic representatives in Shanghai have been advised as fully as possible. It is known that a number of Catholic missionaries from the interior of Manchuria have been able to reach Vladivostok, and these, or others, are expected to come to Japan. So far, only one Catholic refugee missionary from China has come to Japan, and he, having just arrived, had not been able to go forward to his post. A number of missionaries of this denomination in Manchuria and elsewhere have not been heard of, and there are fears that in at least some of the cases the worst has actually happened.

We understand that since the outbreak in China a large proportion of the qualified medical men hitherto identified with mission work who are now necessarily unable to continue that work, have offered their services in connection with the war operations now in progress towards Peking. Most of them are not only duly qualified from British and American colleges, but have, in the course of their work in China, obtained a special knowledge of the treatment of wounded men, so that their services might have been regarded as likely to be of peculiar value. We are given to believe, however, that the applications they have sent in—chiefly, of course, to the British authorities—have not met with much encouragement, while in some cases the reception accorded their offers has been lacking even in the elements of courtesy. In one case where one gentleman was actually received on board a British warship and the staff man who had gone to the front, the general demeanor held towards him was far from being such as could be deemed even fair and gentlemanly. The more important contempt held in some quarters is not difficult to understand in most cases, but if preconceived prejudice is to operate in official and formal matters and relations, a pretty pass has been reached.

APPEAL TO EMPLOYERS

All mill proprietors or manufacturers, merchants and employers generally, are urged to close their places of business, Tuesday afternoon, and give their employees an opportunity to participate in the great Carnival parade. The success of the Carnival means a great deal to Portland, and you can help to make it a success if you will allow those in your employ to take part in the parade. They are all eager to do so, and will reflect credit upon you and your concern. When your employees come to work Tuesday morning, tell them they may have the afternoon off. They will do the rest.

Respectfully,
PARADE COMMITTEE.

In imports. How the foreign trade of this country will result during the remaining five months of this year, it is not at all certain. There are no signs of a remarkable revival in the export trade. Moreover, the disturbances in China will probably last for some time to come. If things go on as at present, the excess in imports will probably exceed 100,000,000 yen this year.

Effect of War on Trade.
August 8.—Disturbing elements in Canton are having a bad effect on trade. The banks for the most part refuse to advance money, and the scarcity of silver has added considerably to the interest. A large number of refugees (Cantonese) have arrived from New Chwang, bringing with them a considerable quantity of trading materials. It is said that the business of Canton with North China has fallen off to the extent of $5,000,000 for the last few months.

Japan Steamer Line.
August 11.—The Nippon Yusen Kaisha will shortly resume the running of its steamers on the North China line, as the chartered steamers will gradually be discharged by the government, and the company is also requested by the Mitsui Bussan Kaisha and others to transport their cargo to North China. It is reported that the freight on coal at Moji is falling at

THIS HEN HAS RECORD.

She Defended Her Nest and Killed a Pooleat.

W. W. Bailey, of Brownsville, takes objection to the Ales hen which continued
her work of incubating while the threshing machine in which she had hidden her nest was in operation, being stowed the gritliest hen in America.

It may be said that a little Brown Leghorn hen which this summer stole a nest
out by an old bed of the Calapalapa River, near his house, in a patch of thick underbrush. Knowing a Leghorn's preference to a nest of her own choice, he "supplied her with fresh eggs during her temporary absence," and allowed her the underbrush.

As the time for the contest between Charles Jost and Tommy Tracey draws nearer, the interest steadily increases. It will be a 20-round game, a decision to be rendered by the referee if both men are on their feet at the end of the contest.
The match will be brought off under auspices that will insure a clean contest, and the best man will win. Nothing that it may say favors of a fake will be tolerated. Jost is in excellent condition, and it will take a great deal of power to defeat him. Tracey is an experienced fighter with an excellent record, and his friends have confidence in his ability to defeat the Portland boy.
