But it is not cer-tain that Lord Salisbury has yet aban-doned hope that Great Britain, the United States and Japan can work closely togeth er for the solution of the Chinese prob-lem, and his attitude may be largely detor's Department has sent to Taku enough supplies for that department to furnish the 5000 troops in China with all One element must not be overlooked. Even if the Boxers are suppressed, other Chinese secret societies are strong. The whole Empire is honeycombed with the associations, and in some provinces they form a real government. necessaries from September 1 to May 1. All of these supplies will be in China within the next 50 or 40 days.

It is somewhat doubtful whether Taku will be made the site of a large camp, as the reports received by the Quarter-master's Department indicate that the facilities at this place are not very good, there being an especial lack of buildings for storing and warehousing the supplies. While it is possible that a small detach-ment will remain at Taku, the belief at War Department is that the main the war becariment is that the main body of troops will be Wintered at Tien Tsin. Nothing has been announced from the War Department as to General Chaf-fee's recommendation, but it is known that he favors the withdrawal of troops to Tien Tsin, or some place near the coast. His recommendations as to the point of Wintering the troops will no doubt be intredy followed.

The belief is entertained at the War Department that the reports concerning the Wintering of the troops was sent before it was known that negotiations were in progress for the withdrawal from Pokin.

NO GOVERNMENT IN PEKIN.

Situation in the Capital City Described by a Herald Correspondent. NEW YORK, Sept. 3.-The Herald this morning publishes the following dis-

Pekin, Aug. 39, via Shanghai, Sunday Three more members of the Tsung II Yamun have been executed by the Empress They are Hen Tun, a member of the Im-perial Secretary; Li Shan, a friend of the foreigners, and Li Yien Yuan. They were put to death just before the arrival of the ed forces.

There is no government in Pekin. The Japanese and Russians for some unknown reason still remain outside the innermost palaces of the Forbidden City. The Ger-mans, on the other hand, desire to burn everything and avenge the death of Baron von Ketteler.

Yesterday was quiet in the section allotted to Americans in the southern part of the city. Its condition is in great con-trast to the other foreign sections, where thieving still continues. The credit is due to General Chaffee's excellent proclama-tion, forbidding looting and offering fair pay for provisions.

en ascertained that the posttions held by the Legationers during their slege were undermined by the Boxers, and in a few days more the mine would have been sprung.

Pekin, Aug. 22, via Shanghai, Sunday, The Princess Ching states that Prince Ching, the pro-foreign Chinese leader, wanted to communicate with General Chaffee, but was informed by the General that he would have to first confer with the other allied Generals and would give the Prince a reply tomorrow, whether the interview would be desirable. The anti-foreign element all followed the flight of the court. Looting contin-ues and the Boxers concented in several different sections of the city still keep up a desultory, fire. The streets are picketed y the allied troops. The first German contingent of troops, 3000 in number, will arrive tomorrow. According to numerous reports, the many thousands of Boxers who were acattered on the arrival of the allies are again massing to attack Pekin. These rumore create great uneasiness.

The Japanese have captured 5000 bushels of rice and silver bullion to the amount of $2,000,000. In Tien Tein the Americans have captured silver bullion to the value of bail a million dollars a million dollars.

A Letter From Coolidge.

DENVER, Col., Sept. 3 .- Major S. K Hooper, of this city, has received a letfrom Lieutenant-Colonel Coolidge, ter dated Tien Tsin, China, August 8. Lieu-tenant-Colonel Coolidge led the Ninth In-fantry in its attack on the inner walls of Tien Tsin. The letter gives an account of the fighting at Tien Tsin and continues

"The Japanese looted the Chinese houses, but the French were entirely in the robbery business, and robbed and murdered right and left, and do still. I believe the British were granted one day to loot, but this was soon stopped, ex-cept by the French, who still continued the work in their own quarter. The American quarter has been very quiet and we guard it as best we can with our small garrison. The Chinese dead are all buried and the town is cleared up and peaceable. "There were 20,000 dead Chinese, and probably one-third of the city is burned by shot and shell or incendiaries. On account of the crowded condition of the it would be a good thing if onehalf of it were destroyed.

After the Manchus had ended their secret coun-cil and had come back to the walting-room they were again called back, this time with those of Chinese descent, into Empress Dowager's council-room When all had prostrated themselves before the Empress Dowager and the Emperor waited for her to speak first. She

"The foreign powers have browbenten and persecuted us in such a manner that we cannot endure this any longer. We must, therefore, combine to fight all foreigners to the last to save our 'face' in the eyes of the world. All our Manchu Princes, Dukes, nobles and Ministers, high and low, are unanimous in this determi-nation for war to the knife and I approve of their patriotic choice. I, therefore, give you all this announcement and ex-pect all to do their duty to their country.

"Upon this Hau Ching Cheng (Chinese), ex-Minister to Russia, president of the Manchurian Raliway, etc., knelt forward before the Empress Dowager and begged her to reconsider her decision, as there were many things to be considered before such a feat as fighting all the foreign powers could possibly be thought of. Hereupon, Kang Yi kharply interrupted: You are mistaken. This will not be like our former wars with foreign countries. We have now the Boxers with us. They ing to M. Loubet the Order of St. An drew, the Russian Ambassador said: are invulnerable to bullet or sword, and we will simply walk over the enemy this time.

"Finding it impossible to move Her Majesty, the Marquis Tseng, son of the late Minister to Great Britain, and other Chinese nobles, pleaded that if China must fight she should chose her enemies and fight she should chose her enemies and not war against friendly nations. The Manchu party leader supported the posi-tion of the Empress Dowager and at their suggestion two high commissioners were sent to try and turn back the relief ex-"I should here mention," continues the writer. "that during the whole of the time whilst the Chinese party were arguing with the Manchus in this to be ever not-able grand council, His Majesty 'the Emperor maintained a moody and even tear-ful silence. But when at last it appeared to His Majesty that the warlike policy of his countrymen was about to prevail, His Majesty could no longer contain himself, and turned impulsively to the Empress Dowager, who sat a foot or so in front of his left, and begged her to re-consider her decision to fight all foreign nations, saying that the movement once inaugurated by the Government would make peace an impossibility in the future, and destruction of the country imminent. He was going on to say something more, but seemed to pull himself suddenly up, for instead of listening to His Majesty as court etiqueite required, the Empress Dowager openly affronted the Emperor by ignoring his words and turning her back him. This was the last stroke on the Chinese party, whose words were sim-ply drowned in the uproar of the Manchus, who unanimously shouted for war to the knife and who looked with deep hate on their Chinese colleagues, whom they now considered as enemies and traitors to their cause
