All the Men that we have ever known desire to be well dressed.

Some have the means, and can afford to go to the highest-priced custom tailors, but their clothes never look well, because either they or their tailors have no taste.

Others know just how to dress well, but can't afford to go to the highest-priced tailor. They go to the cheap tailor with their ideas, and get thoroughly unsatisfactory clothes.

The men in this city who wish to dress well, and don't mind saving money doing it, don't have thugs to either the high-priced or the cheaper tailor.

The afternoons were sunny, American tailors that an old age has been comforted by the

We carry a complete stock of their very fashionable Frock Coating.
