DISMISSED THE CASE
Suit Against Hon. H. W. Corbett Out of Court.
PLAINTIFF DID NOT CARE TO APPEAR
He is at Cape Nome, Where He Expects to Stay All Winter.—Mr. Dolph's Statement.

The suit of E. E. Peterson against Hon. H. W. Corbett for $20,000 damages for having alienated the affections of his wife, was dismissed in Judge Frazer's court yesterday by George W. Joseph, attorney for the plaintiff.

Mr. Joseph first made an ineffectual attempt to have the time of trial of the case continued from September 11 to October 11, on account of the absence of the plaintiff at Cape Nome.

In support of his motion for a postponement, the attorney filed an affidavit reciting that prior to the date of signing the complaint the plaintiff had made preparations for going to Alaska, and could not refuse to go without disappointing many persons interested with him in an enterprise to be carried on there, and that sufficient time would be required to get up for trial some time in September, and plaintiff expected to return here on September 1, but, owing to circumstances over which he had no control, would be unable to be here prior to October 11.

It was further stated that the trial could not safely proceed without Peterson's presence, who would testify that he was the husband of Inez Peterson, and always contributed to her support and treated her as his wife, and made a visit to her shortly prior to ascertaining the facts concerning her and the defendant; also that he was working at Butte, Mont., because he could do better there than elsewhere, but could not have his wife with him because of his small means, but always corresponded with her, and she was a true and faithful wife until estranged from him.

Cyrus A. Dolph and John M. Gearty, who appeared for the defendant, strenuously objected to any continuance, Mr. Dolph stating that he was possessed of information that the plaintiff had no intention whatever of coming here to attend the trial. In this connection, Mr. Dolph read an affidavit signed by Albert Egan, as follows:

"On August 11, 1900, I had a conversation with Mr. J. E. Peterson, of Spokane, who is a brother of E. E. Peterson, the plaintiff herein. In that conversation, J. E. Peterson informed me that E. E. Peterson was then residing at Cape Nome, he having left Seattle on May 10, on the steamer Lakma, for that place; that he had received a number of letters from him, in which he, E. E. Peterson, declared his intention to remain in Cape Nome through the winter, and did not expect to return before next year; also that J. E. Peterson stated that E. E. Peterson had not referred to this case in any manner whatever."

DONE BY THE CITY COUNCIL

MAYOR ROWE FILES HIS FIRST VETO MESSAGE.

Second-Street Railway Franchise to Be Passed On—Thurman-Street Bridge Almost Impassable.

At the meeting of the Common Council yesterday the ordinances passed a short time ago with the object of preventing Ringling Bros' circus from parading or showing here in competition with the street fair were repealed.

Mayor Rowe's First Veto.
The Mayor returned ordinance 11,788 authorizing the license committee to purchase license tags for vehicles, without his approval.

Resolutions directing the publication of notice for the improvement of the following-named streets were adopted: East Seventh, East Eighth, East Ninth, East Tenth, south half of East Eleventh, East Twelfth, East Fourteenth, East Twentieth and Irving streets.

The health and police committee reported having received an offer of $62 for the site of the old crematory at Rocky Point, and what is left of the structure, and recommended that the offer be accepted.

A proposition to wire the artlers of the bronze deer on the Thompson fountain and ornament them with electric lamps for $20 was referred to the committee on parks.

A petition for a sewer in Tillamook street, between East Fourteenth and East Twenty-fourth, and remonstrances against proposed sewers in East Tenth and Schuyler streets, were referred to the committee on sewers.

Several petitions for the return of pound fees were referred to the committee on health and police.

extremely funny play. The same bill will run the balance of the week, with a special matinee Saturday.

HOLBROOK HOLDS HIS SEAT

Judge Frazer Holds the 14 Ballots Not Fraudulent.

F. B. Holbrook, Councilman of the Ninth Ward, has won out in the election contest brought against him by his Republican opponent, William Schmeer.

Judge Frazer yesterday refused to hold that 14 ballots in precinct No. 42 marked for Holbrook show evidence of having been so fraudulently marked, and Holbrook accordingly retains his seat by eight plurality, which was the result of the original recount of all the ballots in the ward.

At the hearing yesterday, J. A. Wesco, an expert for Mr. Schmeer, testified that in his judgment these 14 votes do not each correspond with other crosses on the ballot. His idea was that the cross opposite Holbrook's name in each of these cases varied from the other crosses of the ballot, and he told of other things which he observed.

J. A. Devlin, an expert for Holbrook, testified that he could not discover any great variance. The court inspected many other ballots to notice differences, if any, and altogether His Honor concluded that it was a knotty problem. There was a conflict of evidence, and he would not disturb Mr. Holbrook in the place, being unable to say that these disputed votes were not regularly cast for him.
