WON KATHLEEN REMEMBER THIS.

In addressing Mrs. Pinkham you are communicating with a woman—a woman whose experience in treating woman's ills is greater than that of any living person.

A woman can talk freely to a woman when it is revolting to relate her private troubles to a man.

Many women suffer in silence and drift along from bad to worse, knowing full well that they should have immediate assistance, but a natural modesty prevents them from exposing themselves to the questions and probable examination of even their family physician.

It is unnecessary. Without money or price you can consult a woman, whose knowledge from 20 years' actual experience is unequalled.

Women suffering from any form of female weakness are invited to freely communicate with Mrs. Pinkham at Lynn, Mass.

All letters are received, opened, read, and answered by women only.

This is a positive fact—not a mere statement—easily verified—thus has been established the eternal confidence between Mrs. Pinkham and the women of America, which has never been broken, and has induced more than 100,000 sufferers to write her for advice during the last few months.

Out of the vast volume of experience which she has drawn from, it is more than possible that she has gained the very knowledge that will help your case. She asks nothing in return except your good-will, and her advice has relieved thousands. Here are some of the cases we refer to:

Another Woman Who Acknowledges the Help She Has Received from Mrs. Pinkham.

"DEAR MRS. PINKHAM—The doctor says I have congestion of the womb, and cannot help me. There is aching in the right side of abdomen, hip, leg, and back. If you can do me any good, please write." Mrs. Nina Chase, Fulton, N. Y., December 30, 1897.

"DEAR MRS. PINKHAM—I followed your instructions, and how I want every woman suffering from female trouble to know how good your advice and medicine is. The doctor advised an operation. I could not bear to think of that, so followed your advice. I got better right off. I took six bottles of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and used three packages of Sanative Wash; also took your advice, and less and less now at this time I am cured." Ella Quinn, No. 22 Stage Street, Haverhill, Mass.

Mrs. Voss cured of Periodical Pains and Perpetual Headaches by Following Mrs. Pinkham's Counsel.

"DEAR MRS. PINKHAM—I have been suffering for over a year and had three doctors. At time of menstruation I suffer terrible pains in back and cramps. I have headache nearly every day, and feel tired all the time. The doctor said my womb was out of place, and would be glad if you could help me." Mrs. Carl Voss, Sac City, Iowa, August 1, 1898.

"Please accept my sincere thanks for the good your advice and Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has done me. I did everything you told me to do, and used only three bottles, and feel better in every respect." Mrs. Carl Voss, Sac City, Iowa, March 23, 1899.

CHARGES AGAINST POLICE

NEW YORK OFFICERS ACCUSED OF BRUTALITY.

Investigation of the Treatment of Negroes During the Recent Race Riots There.

NEW YORK, Sept. 7.—Ex-Police Commissioner Frank Moss, on behalf of the recently organized Citizens' Protective League, today preferred charges against Chief of Police Devery, Inspector Thompson and Acting Captain Conroy, of the West Thirty-seventh Street station. He accuses them of brutality, neglect of duty, and incompetency in their method of treating the recent race riots on the West Side. It is said that the league has evidence against the Chief and his men that the Police Commissioners cannot ignore. Frank Moss will act as counsel for the complainant. He has a staff of men at work on the testimony.

The investigation of the charge of clubbing and other forms of brutality made by colored people, which the Police Commissioners were asked by the Mayor to bring today in the trial room at police headquarters. President York presiding. The complainant, W. J. Elliott, appeared and the Society for the Prevention of Crime was also present by counsel.

Mr. Elliott, who had been arrested in a previous case, claimed that he had been placed in custody he was taken to the police station where, as he was being led to the station, he was beaten almost into insensibility by a crowd of policemen. He was corroborated by two other colored men. Most of the policemen who were investigated were arrested. The charges preferred against them, Elliott was represented by Attorney Ludlow, who investigated and secured the charges preferred against them. The investigation was simply a white-wash. President York threatened to have the charges dropped from the room. Attorney Frank Moss, prominent in the recent investigation of vice in this city, also appeared at the public investigation. He represented the Society for the Prevention of Crime, the City Violence League and the Citizens' Protective League. Mr. Moss, not satisfied with the way in which the charges were proceeding, asked if it would be allowed to examine the witnesses and cross-examine the police. President York declined to do this. Mr. Moss then filed with the president the formal charges against Devery, Thompson and Conroy. The investigation will be resumed Friday next.

Himes, secretary and E. M. Deery, treasurer, individually, all of Washington, D. C. The order states that the concerns named "were using the mail for obtaining money from teachers throughout the country, and from those desiring to make preparation for civil service examination, by means of false and fraudulent pretenses, representations and promises."

FRANK MCBRIDE PARDONED.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 7.—The President has pardoned Frank M. McBride, who was convicted at Salt Lake City in May, 1898, of embezzlement of $672 postoffice funds while Assistant Postmaster at Salt Lake and sentenced to four years in the Utah Penitentiary. The Attorney-General, in recommending the pardon, said that recently obtained evidence raises serious doubt as to whether there ever was such embezzlement as claimed, and in view of the further fact that McBride has already served one year, he thinks Executive clemency should be extended.
