

ROOSEVELT IN UTAH

Two Speeches Delivered in Salt Lake Yesterday.

GREETED BY GREAT AUDIENCES

The Issues of the Day Were Forcefully Presented—Democratic Promises Not Fulfilled.

SALT LAKE, Sept. 21.—The special Roosevelt train, which left at Ogden last night, pulled out for Salt Lake at 5:30 o'clock, this morning.

At Salt Lake the train was met by a great number of people and a brigade of Rough Riders, who escorted the Governor through the principal streets where flattering demonstrations took place.

Governor Roosevelt was driven to the Alta Club this morning, and was there met by Hon. C. K. Ekers, committee chairman from Missouri, and Perry S. Heath, secretary of the National committee.

As they prepared for the start, Governor Roosevelt remarked to the captain of the Rough Riders, "Now, boys, when we start, lead off on a gallop."

From a standpoint of business interests, Governor Roosevelt's visit to Salt Lake City was the most interesting, both from a political and social point of view.

On his return to Ogden, the Governor visited the famous Mormon Tabernacle to listen to an organ recital by Professor Dayner.

During the morning Governor Roosevelt sent the first long-distance telephone message over the line just constructed between Salt Lake and Cheyenne.

"It must be to every man who is interested in this country a matter of the keenest delight to come here and see the marvels that have been worked by man's industry and ingenuity."

"Now, gentlemen, I have but a word to say to you—my fellow citizens, and you men and women of this great state, and I will touch upon just one of the issues of this campaign this afternoon."

"I have to say in suggested by what has been in the papers and in the past two days, and by what I have seen here myself."

"The other day Mr. Bryan, in his speech at Chicago, is reported as having said that he would like to see the United States soldiers walking about in idleness."

"You read in the papers this morning about how a band of our men were attacked by a band of desperadoes."

"I feel that in this crisis, at this period of our history, we have the right to appeal to every man in whose veins the red blood flows, to stand with us."
