

NEW YORK, Sept. 28 .- A special to the Benevolent Union, the Irish-German Socleties of America, the Catholic Total Ab-stinence Union of America and the Cath-World from Washington says: Orders have been issued at the War Department to the chiefs of the different olic Knights of America. Besides these bureaus to prepare statements showing organizations, there are scores of others the cost of recruiting and maintaining a of less prominence. volunteer force as against the cost of maintenance of the same number of regulars, and based in the item of extra ex-pense attached to the recruiting and maintaining of the volunteer forces. The Department will make a strong fight to have its project for an increase in the regular Army put through Congress. The time is fast approaching when the present volunteer force in the Philippines ust be withdrawn. General MacArthur has frankly stated that he cannot spare any troops, and is in need of reinforceats to maintain the necessary force in the Philippines, and that the volunteer army must be authorized unless there is an increase in the regular Army, and it is the intention of the War Department to point out that the inter plan is the feasible one.

The mian now in contemplation is for the authorization of Congress for enough soditional men to raise the strength of the regular Army to 100,000, with permanent recruiting stations through out the country; that the regiments may be kept up to full strength by constant recruit-ing. This plan, it will be claimed, will reduce the expenses of the Army, as well as raise its efficiency.

NEW YORK, Sept. 26.-A dispatch to the Herald from Lourenco Marques says: The Boer defeat is complete. By dint of hard riding from Barberton your correspondent overtook first General Ham-ilton's division, then that of General Pole-Carew, and finally entered Komatipoort. Not a shot was fired nor was a Boer seen during the march. Evidence of the enemy's destructiveness was everywhere to be seen. The bridges had been dynamited, the stores, buildings and homesteads looted and burned, as had been also the railway property, all the chief stations being smoking ruins, ng them being Kaap Mulden, Hector spruit and Komatipoort. At the last pla there is an enormous area over which the Boers have wrought destruction. The devastation includes hundreds of wagons, trucks and carriages, which have been burned, together with all kinds of stores of clothing, ammunition, forage and provisions, such as sugar, coffee, rice, flour and stationery. Thousands of tons are still burning. General Pole-Carew has secured hundreds of locomotives. The whole of the Selati railway line is simply

Where He Stands

Hartford Post.

Any doubt which anybody may have entertained as to Mr. Bryan's purpose to-ward silver is now dispelled. For a clipped dollar he now yearns as he yearned four years ago. His purpose to use every in-fluence at his command and every device in his power to undo what has already been done for the improvement of our currency system and to knock every prop from under the gold-standard law of last March is as positive as it is obvious. His hope that the political complexion of the Senate and of the whole Congress, in fact, may be shifted from yellow to white, so that our currency system may be shoved off the gold basis and placed upon a sliver pedestal, with all the finan-cial and industrial demoralization that would tag at the heels of such a reversal of policy, is unconserved policy, is unconcealed and undenied. He proposes to go backward. He stands with his face to yesterday and with his back to the resurrection. The old threat of 1896 is put forth again. The former challenge to business and to in-dustrial industry is renewed. The letter clears the air and indicates in lurid lines just where Mr. Bryan stands and just what he wants to do with our currency.

If General Buller and the others move on to seize the passes, neither Viljoen, the new Commandant-General with Steyn and Schalkberger, nor Koetze, with the rest of the derelicts from Komatipoort, can escape through the mountains toward Lydenburg and Pietersburg, while to re-

The Irish-American mercenaries are clamoring for pay, and threatening the lals. Boer of The final collapse of the Boer Army may be summarized as follows: When the Boers, numbering 2000, evacuated Komatipoort, they took up positions between the Lobombo Range and the riv-er. They had good positions, and could have made a capital stand, but owing to the disorganization and lack of discip that were prevalent, they were only halfhearted.

Wishing to avoid a conflict and un-necessary bloodshed, the British Consul-General consulted the Portuguese Gov ernor-General, Senor Machado, as to the best course to be pursued to attain this end. He asked that emissaries should be sent up with an address to the Boers pointing out the uselessness of continuing their resistance and the absolute needlessness of going on further. Besides, if they continued to fight there was a fear of the natives rising.

Owing to the fact that the Portuguese had been most kind to the Boers, and as they had guaranteed their maintenance and repatriation and promised to send them back to their country free of charge, the scheme succeeded beyond the wildest the scheme succeeded beyond the winest hopes of its originators. Instead of dozens coming down to Lou-renco Marques, 3500 arrived in this wise. Diplomacy therefore triumphed by bring-ing the war to a speedy and bloodjess
