

CITY NEWS IN BRIEF

Amusements Today.
CORDRAY'S THEATER (Washington street)—
A Bunko Show.

UP YAMHILL RIVER.—The opening of the Yamhill lock last Friday has started up navigation on that river.

HAD STRANGER YAKED.—Doyle, a middle-aged man with insane tendencies, was sentenced in the Municipal Court yesterday to 30 days in the county jail for carrying a concealed weapon.

JAPANESE CHESTNUTS.—Colonel R. C.
Judson, of the O. R. & N. Co., has received a number of slips of Japanese chestnut trees, of a variety which it is believed will flourish in Oregon.

CHIMNEY FIRE.—The fire department was called out at 8 o'clock last evening to Captain W. S. Langitt's residence, at Twenty-second and Everett streets, where a small chimney fire had caused the alarm to be sent in from box 48.

EMERICK ACQUITTED.—Gus Emerick, arrested last week by Game warden Quimby on a charge of shooting pheasants out of season, was discharged by Justice of the Peace Kramer yesterday, on the ground of insufficient evidence to convict.

FOR GILVESTON SUPPLIERS.—I. N.
Buxton, secretary of Court Pioneer, No. 803, Ancient Order of Foresters, of Troutdale, has sent to The Oregonian $10, a contribution to the fund for the relief of the Gilveston sufferers.

WE HAVE SEVERAL BUYERS who want four-to six-room modern cottages on monthly payments. East Side preferred, within easy walking distance from bridges.
Rountree & Diamond, 241 Stark street.

BY-LINE DRESSMAKING by a New York modiste, at Mrs. M. A. Abrahams', 300 4th, corner Columbia. Satisfaction guaranteed.

SMALL RUN OF FALL FISH.—The Fall fishing for salmon along the coast and in the Columbia is very slack. There is a larger run of fish at Yaquina than at any other place on the coast, and many fine silversides are being received from that place.

COMMENCING Tuesday, September 25, and continuing until the completion of the Madison-street bridge, the cars for Oregon City, Morea, Tabar and Yamhill will leave Third and Yamhill streets on the City & Suburban track, crossing Morrison-street bridge, and connecting with regular cars at First street and Hawthorne avenue, without extra charge.

INCORPORATIONS.—Articles of incorporation of the Silver King Extension Company were filed in the County Clerk's office yesterday. The object is to engine in a general mining and milling business. The incorporators are: W. H.
Herman, Simon Spira, Frank A. Spencer and William McCamant; capital stock, $150,000; articles of incorporation were filed of Westcott & Knight. The objects are to manufacture and sell vinegar, pickles, condiments, etc. Capital stock, $20,000; incorporators: J. L. Knight, W. M. Knight and L. A. Westcott.

PASTOR FOR GRACE M. E. CHURCH.—J.
K. Gill, chairman of the ministerial committee of Grace M. E. Church, last night received a telegram from Bishop Cranston announcing that Rev. J. Z. Lathrop, of Indianapolis, had been transferred to the Oregon Conference, and would be appointed to the pulpit of Grace M. E.
Church of Portland. It was expected that Mr. Lathrop would come to Grace Church, but it was not known until the receipt of this telegram whether or not he could secure his release from the Indianapolis Conference.

BURIED ON THE POOR FARM.—Peter Clarke, the blacksmith who was found in a shack at Hilldale last Saturday in an unconscious condition from ursemic poisoning, and was taken to the County Hospital, died there Monday morning without having recovered consciousness. No friends having claimed the body, he was buried on the Poor Farm yesterday. He was about 60 years of age, and left a wife, who went East some time ago.

GRAND COMMANDERY OF OREGON.—The Grand Commandery, Knights Templar, of the State of Oregon, will meet at the Grande tomorrow, at 8 o'clock.

DENTAL WORK.—Palgrave, Fifteenth and Couch streets, except a small fee to cover cost of material for work in moderate circumstances.

OREGON MINING EXCHANGE.—19:30 A. M.

DR. GUE WILL REMAIN

HE WILL PREACH IN CENTENARY
NEXT SUNDAY.

Bishop Andrews Will Stand by the Conference Appointment.—Dr.
Gue's Statement.

Rev. George W. Gue, D. D., avows his intention of filling the pulpit of Centenary Methodist Church for the ensuing year. Dr. Gue is aware that the flock which the conference placed in his care would prefer another shepherd, but he is making the order of the bishop his rule of action rather than the consent of the congregation. When he arrived in Portland Tuesday morning and learned that the pastor of Centenary Church, Dr. Gue, was protesting against his appointment, he wired Bishop Andrews asking him for advice. The bishop wired back that Dr. Gue was the pastor of Centenary Church, and he believed Dr. Gue's way of looking at it, he will proceed to prepare a sermon to preach next Sunday.

Dr. Gue, while not an aggressive man, is not the kind of a person to be disturbed by the fact that his prospective congregation is not wholly pacific. None of the protesters care to put themselves on record as such, and beyond the resolutions of the official board, Dr. Gue has received no intimation that he is persona non grata to the congregation. He has replied to the resolutions but when he does the authors thereof will know that he received them.

Bishop Andrews' telegram to the effect that Dr. Gue is pastor of Centenary may be construed to mean that he proposes to stand by the action of the conference. He will be in Portland next week, as will also Dr. Rockwell, presiding elder-elect and the pastor of small churches, but matter will probably be canvassed at that time, and any one who objects to Dr. Gue will be accorded the privilege of "speaking out in meeting" and having it placed, it is hoped, however, that the trouble will be adjusted without friction.

In speaking of the situation yesterday, Dr. Gue said:

"I had the hearing of the action taken yesterday evening, when I wired the bishop for instructions, and the reply was that I am the pastor of Centenary Church. That I have received assurance of encouragement from many Methodists of the city, all of which is gratifying.
I have always tried to do my full duty in whatever position I have been placed, and my whole ambition and purpose is to serve the church with all the energy and ability I possess. I have tried to make a clean record as a minister of the gospel whoever I have been, to never in my ministerial life ever had the slightest trouble and reflection cast upon me. In regard to my appointment to Centenary, I will my best to do it, but I am not willingness to go anywhere else he might send me, but at the same time I do not feel bound to do so. I did so for a year and became responsible to the bank for $7000. I merely refer to this matter to correct the statement made. Centenary can be made a flourishing church, and I shall do my part to make it so."

WEBER PIANOS

The critical musical person who wishes only the finest possible piano, and who can afford to pay for the very highest quality, has practically no course left him but to buy a Weber. The Weber piano is the instrument which has been used by all later makers as a model, but the Weber still admittedly remains in an isolated position for its exquisite tone quality and marvelous durability have never been equaled by later makers.

The Weber cases are strikingly in keeping with the musical excellence of the piano. They are beautiful, and the very rarest woods are used in their construction. Another careful shipment of the famous baby Weber uprights has just been received at Eilers Piano House, in the new Music block, 351 Washington street.

COMING ATTRACTIONS.

"King of the Opium Ring" at the Metropolitan.

"King of the Opium Ring" which proved last season to be one of the most successful melodramas that has toured the country in years, will be brought to the Metropolitan Theater next Sunday for one week. The play well deserves the support it receives, for it is well presented by a competent company, and the scenic effects and costumes in the several acts are very beautiful, representing faithfully much of Oriental gorge-ousness. A phase of Chinese life that is so little known is the theme of the play. The horrors of an opium job and the ups and downs of the theater, with its clashing cymbals, so dear to the Chinese heart, are seen and heard. A Chinese wedding, a most peculiar and unique custom, is shown in costume surpassing in elegance and beauty anything in our way.

The company selected by Mr. Blaney to present the play is one of the many strong situations in the thrilling story told. Several up-to-date specialties are introduced throughout the action of the play. Last night, the famous clown, heads a company of comedy acrobats.

Boston Lyrics.
Colonel W. A. Thompson will present three great operas, "The Idol's Eye," "The Evening Star" and "The Girl in the Season at Cordray's, beginning Sunday night.

The Italian opera has served its purpose, and in its time has enjoyed a good, long, faithful field of success. The light, airy and charmingly melodious opera which the public craves for has come to take its place. There is no escaping the relentless logical situation; one side the hackneyed barrel organ tunes of the old Italian opera; on the other side, the fresh, young, vigorous snap of the ingraving, and it might be added, enriched with comic opera music, the sweet songs of love life revolved where all the bewildering charms of color, harmony, dramatic and comedy incident are told in the most magnetic tones by the present day up-to-date composer. In the coming engagement of the Boston Lyrics, the magnificence of the scenic and costume productions that will characterize the production will be long remembered in this city. One of the greatest features of each performance will be an elaborate display of varied and colored electric lights.

"A Black Sheep."
At the Marquam Friday and Saturday
"Big Bill" Devere and his merry associates will present that funniest and greatest of all farce-comedies, Hoyt's "A Black Sheep." It is said that a stronger and better company of players never left New York. Such artists as Ed Moncrief, a headliner of the Keith and Proctor circuit; George W. Allan, with his charming manner and fine voice; also that standard actor, Franklin Wallace, are among the male characters that will support the inevitable "Bill." Among the women are to be noticed Fanny DeCosta, who will play the part of the Queen of Burlesque; Lenore Lockwood, one of the modern stage beauties, is cast for Adah Steele, that charming young person who has such an osculatory set-to with Hot Stuff in the second act of the piece.

There are 30 people in the cast, and as all of them introduce some specialty of their own. It certainly appears as though there will be more fun, music, songs and crowds crowded into three hours than could be expected of three shows.
