WHY GERMANY CHANGED.

Forced by the Powers to Adopt Her New Policy.

BERLIN. Oct. 4-Following the cue of the Foreign Office, the semiofficial papers are endeavoring to represent the policy of Germany as triumphant and consistent, and to conceal the fact that Germany has been forced by the reservations in the answers of the powers to her proposal to abandon her demand for the giving up of the guilty. These journals are now adopting the usual plan. The Berliner Post and the others represent that Emperor Kwang Hsu's telegram was the re-sult of the German note of September 18. The independent papers, however, freely admit that there has been a transformation in Germany's policy. They point out that today's note entirely abandons the proposal as to the surrender of the guilty as a condition precedent to the diplomatic intercourse with China. The Freissinnige press, official circles are unable to conceal the logical hintus between the two notes. A high official of the Foreign Office re-marked today that Great Britain's answer was no longer essential, inasmuch as Germany's later note superseded the former one. Foreign Office officials accept Emperor Kwang Hau's edict of September 25 as authentic. THE BRITISH ELECTIONS WERE UNIONIST OUTBURST.

The Country Indersed the Boer War and Annexation of the Two Republics.

LONDON, Oct. 5, 4 A. M.—The "kheki" boom has swept the country. Yester-day's pollings are a tale of increased Ministerialist and diminished Liberal majorities. The returns from the rural dis-tricts today (Friday) and tomorrow may do something to rehabilitate the Liberals, but the results thus far have fully justified Mr. Chamberlain and the party or-ganization, who are backing the government, in their choice of the moment to dissolve Parliament. Few doubt that an appeal to the country a month or two earlier would have produced an even greater Unionist outburst. Nevertheless, the Ministerialists may already con-gratulate themselves on being returned passed over the country, is presented in

The workingmen of the country have reported in very decided voice in favor of the war, and of the annexation of the ast feeling the full force of the shock, the Glasgow Tories being as much as-tonished as the Liberals at their unexpected success in winning two seats. Andrew Dryburgh Provand, who was de-feated in the Biackfriars division, has sat for Glasgow in the Liberal interest since 1886, and the Bridgeton division was Sir George Otto Trevelan's old seat. Both had long been Liberal strongholds. The results in Liverpool and other industrial districts tell a similar story of increased Unionist majorities, Mr. Chamberlain, who was listening to the results over the telephone, sent the following message to the people of Birmingham: "This has been a good day's work of the empire." London itself felt the full tide of the Unionist victory. The Liberal represen-tation from the metropolis will not amount to more than seven or eight out of @ members. Indeed, the isolated Liberal successes only serve to enhance the sweeping nature of the Unionist triumph In all directions the anti-war candidates have been defeated. Even Mr. Cremer's success at Hagderston is doubtful, as a recount has been demanded.

Londoners were not slow last evening to testify to their delight. Wherever the results were displayed crowds colle to cheer and to demonstrate in favor of their favorites. In various polling dis-tricts the candidates appeared at win lows or drove about, receiving tremen Duniway, writing to the mem bers of the Multnomah Club from San test in the San Francisco billiard tournament, furnishes much information or the game being played, and the difficulties the Portland man has to overcome in changing to big tables and new ions. For the first few days while Mr. Duniway was practicing he did not im-press the San Francisco players much, but by the time he began to master the new conditions, he could not get way at even one to three in his favor. Of the first night's game he writes:

"I went against Nolan, and beat him, 150 to 78. My average was 4 11-16, and highest run 23. Nolan plays hard, ham-niers them around, and so it is difficult to make much of an average with him. as they are generally left all over the table. He is reckoned the poorest player of the bunch. Dr. Burns beat Mr. Mud-gett, 150 to 126-poor game; average, 254. Taylor the man I consider the strongest player, beat Roggen, a hard, safety player, 150 to 129; average, 3.75. Franklin beat Dr. Davis, 160 to 135; average, 2.88. Frank-lin is the man I played with in Portland. Dr. Davis is the youngest player, except Nolan, and will show up well in a couple of years or so from now. "I was somewhat nervous at the begin-ning of the game, but soon steadled down. All the rest were nervous. An average of five will surely win. The big tables and nervousness cause the low averages." Possibly They Will Go Below the Cheap Fares Quoted by Their Competitor.

ST. PAUL, Oct. 4-It is stated today that the Northern Pacific and "Soo" lines will meet and possibly go below the reduced rates announced yesterday by the Great Northern. The cut in rates thus far is in homesculers' rates, but railroad officials in this city think it likely general passenger husiness throughout the West may be affected.

MEET THE LOW RATES.

Other Roads Not to Be Outdone by the Great Northern. Northern Pacific and Carndian Pacific yesterday promptly met the new set-tlers' rate of the Great Northern, which lets the cheap faces from Chicago into all the territory of the northern trans-continentals. Little doubt is expressed that the central lines will follow, though no decision to that effect was given out yesterday. The O. R. & N. is expected to let the cheap rates into Portland, the pre-sumption being that its connections at Huntington will follow its connection at Spokune. There was some question as to whether the low rate of the Great Northern was made in entire good faith. On the face of it it appeared all right, but the fact that it must operate to disturb regular rates in some measure could not have been overlooked, and some railroad men profess to believe that the primary ou-ject was to stir up the rate question, and perhaps to extend the cheap fares for beyond the time named in the Great Northern's instructions.

ABOLISHING COMMSISIONS. Canadian Pacific Brought in Line With Other Roads.

Northern's instructions.

CHICAGO, Oct 4-It was reported in chloado, Oct 4.—It was reported in railroad circles here today that the Can-adian Pacific had been brought to a point of view which will soon result in a gen-eral abolishment of communistons on sales of passenger tickets. The advisory committee of the Western Passenger Association, having charge of trans-Atlantic immigrant business, met here today to consider requests of the Santa Fe for a greater proportion of the immigrant traffic and to consider a plan for arbitrating the differences which have long stood between the Canadian Pacific and the lines belonging to the Western Passenger Association. It is un-derstood that he Canadian Pacific has alrendy agreed with C. H. Felton, of the executive commutates of the Western Pas-senger Association, to the selection of E. St. John, of the Seaboard Air Line, as arbiter. The settlement of these differences, it is said on good authority, will dispose of all the objections to the Carnadian Pacific to joining the executive officers' agreement, which provides against the payment of commissions.

Southern Pacific Meeting Postponed. NEW YORK, Oct. 4.- The meeting of the Southern Pacific Railway directors. that was to have been held today, was put over until tomorrow, because of lack of a quorum.

COWARDLY CHANGE OF BASE Expansionist Stanchfield Now Talks "Imperialism" to Be Elected.

Chiesan Tribuna torial leader to showing that John B. Stanchfield the Democratic nomines for Governor of New York, was an expansionist of the most unlimited and uncompromising character a year ago. It quotes from his speeches to prove that this was of the shifty excuses by wh he now attempts to deny the facts. The Sun proves its indictment, but in so do-ing its wastes good ammunition on pai-

At that Helena and Great Falls are tied, and the deciding game will be played in Butte toperiod the New York Journal was likewise strenuously advising exp fact which, perhaps, explains why it has so little to say now about Mr. Bryan's "paramount issue." Mr. Bryan himself, in January and February of 1899, was asaiduously button-holing his friends at Washington to get them to ratify the treaty which he now wishes to nullify. It is not to the point to dwell on these instances of change of sentiment and attitude. It does not tell half the story to show that the men who are against expansion now were for it a year or two ago. The point is that it was largely through the instrumentality of these men that the Administration is now coping with present problems while they keep up a cowardly fire in the rear. It was to a large degree the acts and words of men like Bryan and Richard Oiney that put the Government into its present position. These men favored the ratification of the Spanish peace treaty and secured it in so far as they represented public opinion. Among them they managed to shape events at home and in the Philippines sufficiently to place the Administration where it now stands, Having done so it is neither patriotic nor honorable to hinder the Government from carrying out the policy which they helped to force upon it. If Bryan and the leading men in his party had done nothing to bring on the Spaulah war, to ratify the peace treaty with its Philippine clauses, and to foment insurrections after the treaty was signed, it would make little difference whether they changed their attitude on expansion or not. It would be no reflection on their patriotism to change their opinions on a matter of National policy. But, after hav-ing been instrumental in creating new problems, they have no moral right to at-tack the Administration which is honest-ly trying to solve these problems on the lines shaped partly by themselves. For them to do so under these circumstances s cowardly, treacherous and eminently unpatriotic.

Oddittes of the Census

A Georgian who ekes out an existence by doing chores about the neighborhood in which he resides will appear in the consult as "odd jobs." His occupation will be found very properly under the head of "other things." One of the Southern enumeration invalid who has merators came across an invalid who has spent several years in the South for his health and promptly entered the siex man's occupation as "traveling for his health." This, of course, was punched under the head of "not gainful."

After a long, hard fight women have succeeded in gaining admission to the universities of Europe. Austria held out long after the other countrels of Western Europe, but since 1897 women have been allowed to take degrees at the University of Vienna. In Belgium and Italy women are allowed degrees in medicine and pharmacy, but not in law. Dutch, German, Swiss, English, Scotch and Irish universities are open to them, and even in France their educational advantages are almost he same as those afforded
