SHERIFF SEARCHED HIS VESSEL

Went to Sea on Tug That Towed While Master of the Orealia Commanded His Ship.

ASTORIA, Oct. 4.-The British ship Senista crossed out for Queenstown this orning, and her master, Captain S. R. Hearn, thus scored a victory in a three days' hide-and-seek game by successfully eluding the officers, who were endeavor-ing to arrest him on a warrant issued from the Circuit Court in Portland. Tho Gepista is one of the vessels that has been delayed in port for several weeks on munt of difficulties with the sailor boarding-house masters, and Captain Hearn is the man against whom a suit was brought by John Grant last Monday to recover $10,000 damages for alleged defamation of character.

When the papers in the suit were placed the hands of the Sheriff of Multnomah County to serve, it was found that the captain had disappeared, and a warrant was issued for his arrest. Telegrams were sent that evening to Sheriff Linville and Chief of Police Hallock, of this city, to "arrest and hold the man," but they could not find him for the simple reason that he did not come here. Where Hearn was secreted Monday night and Tuesday is not known, but it was learned today that on Tuesday evening he started down the river on the steamer Hoo Hoo. Arrangements had been made to reach the ship at an early hour yesterday morning, and a rug was engaged to tow the vessel to sea at once. The Hop Hop was, however, deinyed up the river, and did not get down on time, so the vessel was taken only to the lower hurbor.

The little steamer arrived here shortly bebore noon yesterday, and Captain Hearn went on board his ship at that Late in the afternoon Sheriff Linville received a telegraphic copy of the warrant from Portland and, although he went to the Genista last evening with eight deputies and searched the craft from truck to keelson, he was unable to find his man. It appears that Captain Hearn, anticipating that the officers would be after him, left the ship in a small boat as soon as it was dark last evening and landed in the west end of the city, where he remained until this morning, when he was taken on board the tart that towed his vessel to see tug that towed his vessel to sea.

Captain Tyers, of the ship Orealia, also went out on the Genista, and acted as master of the vessel until she was dropped by the tug, when he returned to entered the river, and good fishing is ex-pected for a couple of weeks. The gillnetters did very well last night, and the seines and traps above Tongue Point caught more fish than they have during any one day since the Fall season opened This shows that the fish are working their way up the river. Suit for Possession of Children.

Mrs. Rosa Waters, of Portland, com menced an action in the County Court to-day against J. A. Bush to gain possession of two minor children, Leo and Violet Bush. The plaintiff and defendant were formerly husband and wife, but were divorced at Eugene last March, and both have since remarried. When the di-vorce was granted the children were given to the defendant. The complaint alleges that he has mistreated them, and asks that they be placed in the care of the plaintiff. Judge Gray has set the hearing of the case for next Saturday, and the Sheriff will have the custody of the children until that time. Funds for Fish Legislation.

The committee of the Fishermen's Union having in charge the collection of funds for carrying on the work of get-ting some needed changes in the fishing laws of the state is meeting with good success. The various fishing interests are united on this matter, and there is now encouraging prospects that something may be accomplished.

The great difficulty will be to find a suitable hall. The armory is now the largest public hall in the city, but it would not be nearly large enough to hold the audience that would try to crowd in to witness a battle of argument between the Republicans and the Bryanites. Anthe other difficulty is that some of the leading Republican speakers have already arranged dates for addresses in distant parts of the state. Dr. Mott said this evening that his idea is that the debate should be confined to local speakers.

Within the past 10 days there has been a great rush for land in Franklin County, and several Walla Walla people have purchased from the Northern Pacific between 7000 and 8000 acres at a nominal figure. This land lies south of Connell and Lake, two stations on the Northern Pacific road, and is considered excellent for wheat-raising.

The work which has been conducted under the Geological Survey during the past few months in the vicinity of North Yakima by George Otts Smith has resuited in the discovery of a westerly ex-tension to the artesian area, and it is probable that during the next session of Congress an appropriation may be se-cured for sinking wells in several local-ities in that district.

The Republicans of Franklin County have made the following nominations: Representative, J. D. McCarthy; Auditor and Clerk, L. H. Koontz; Treasurer, Fred Bernd; Sheriff, Gibson Savage; Assessor, J. R. McClurkin; Surveyor, W. E. Brad-shaw; Coroner, U. Beck; Commissioner, Second District, W. W. Spates; Third District, Max Perden; Justice of the Peace, Jim Creighton; Constable, Jack

Campbell. The talk of a local telephone connection for Elma is being resumed. The proposi-tion now is to extend the Strubel and Giancey line to Rayville via White's mill, and then have local connections in Elms. making an entirely independent line. The Sunset Telephone Company is preparing to put a local telephone exchange into Elma, and starts off with over a dozen

El Edwards was fined $25, and Charles Chapman $10 in the Superior Court at Colfax Monday for conducting a gambling game. The men were arrested by Sheriff Canutt on complaint of B. E. Chapman, son of Rev. Mr. Chapman, a minister of the sect known as "Saints of the Living God." The young man had lost $46 in the game, which is known as "Klondike billiards." All gambling has ceased at Colfax.

Metaker & Klimgard, proprietors of the Hillsdale stock farm, shipped from Pull-man Tuesday 14 thoroughbred Poland China hogs. One went to Portland and the others to various points in Whitman County, Washington, and Latah County, Idaho. Mr. Klimgard said these saies were a result of the Whitman County fair. He predicts that the breeding of pure blooded stock is destined to become a leading industry of the Palouse country in the near future.

Benjamin King, of Wilbur, captured a strange bird while hunting horses along Wilson Creek. Although the bird could not fly, it was full-feathered and appeared to be full-grown, Mr. King brought the bird to town and exhibited it, but no one would supply the name. Its feathers are colored, like those of a bald eagle, but with a tinge of black gloss, and its head is bare to the point of its jaws, excepting a gray downy cov-ering. In size and shape it resembles an eagle, and its wings when spread measure five or six feet, but it has feet like

Dr. David Lindsay, who was arrested at North Yakima for practicing medicine without a license, has been discharged.
He showed that he is a graduate of one of the best medical colleges in the country, and that he has been a practicing physician in the State of Washington for about 14 years. It is reported he will suc Drs. Frank, Gordon and Fletcher, regular practitioners, who, he claims, are responsible for his arrest, for $5,000. Ho alleges that he was taken and thrown in jail, and wrongfully detained there for several hours, to his great loss and damage. Charles Worthington, convicted of robbery in Spokane, September 2, 1896, and snetenced to five years in the State Penitentiary, has been ordered released after four years' incarceration on habens cor-pus proceedings. The court ordered the state to be taxed with the costs of the action, which amounted to $18. The complaint upon which the habeas corpus proceedings were based stated that the pris-oner had served his full sentence as laid down by law, the only matter devolving upon the applicant to prove was whether account of good conduct he was entitled to reduction of sentence.

The Light & Power Company has won its suit against the Thomas Robinson Lumber Company, an action begun several months ago to restrain the lumber company from damming the Des Chutes River at a point several miles above Rainier. The Light & Power Company contended that the damming of the river CHAMPONG, Oct. 4.—Benjamin F. Eb-erhard, son of J. G. Eberhard, of Ma-rion County, died at the residence of his Austin on the Republican ticket as Justice flow of the river, and was granted a temporary restraining order to prohibit the lumber company from withholding the water. The object of the lumber company in damming the river was to accu-mulate water with which to float down cedar bolts and logs.

An interesting case has arisen before the United States Immigration Inspector of Tacoma, involving the rights of Japanese who claim to have been naturalthed to travel freely between this country and British Columbia. The case in ques-tion was that of H. C. Kumamoto, of Tacoms, and T. Mitouo, of Seattle, both of whom are citizens of the United States. engaged in business in the two cities. They went from Seattle to Victoria about three weeks ago on the steamer Victorian. After a week's stay there they desired to return, and applied to the purser of the Victorian for passage. The purser refused to book the two men as passengers or allow them passage in any way unless their names were entered on the boat's manifest. This they refused to do, declaring that as citizens of this country they were not included in the law which requires the names of all immigrants to appear on the manifest. The half-breed packers arrested by Sumas officials for smuggling miners' sup-piles into the Mount Baker mining dis-trict, have been released, several wellknown mining men agreeing to become personally responsible for their appearance. The packtrain of five animals was held. There is no customs officer sta-tioned in the district, and facilities are not yet adequate for packing into the dis-trict from this side of the line. Hahn & Co., of Portland, owners of the Post Lambert mines, and to whom the supplies were consigned, say through their su-perintendent, H. Stanislawski, that they do not object to paying the duty if the Government will point out a method for collecting the same other than by selmice, It is said the seizure will necessitate closing down the work at the mine for the Winter, as the Chilliwack packers are now afraid to cross the line, and there is no other way of getting supplies in
