Thirty-two Contests Took Place Yesterday. LONDON, Oct. 6, 1:39 A. M .- Thirty-two contests took place yesterday in the Par-liamentary general election. Most of them were in rural districts. The cities have not yet been announced. So far as known however, 441 members have been officially declared elected, and the relative strength is as follows:

In the Stratsford and Widnes divisions of Lancashire, Sir John William McClure and John Saunders Gillint, who respecttively represented those constituencies in the late Parliament, have been returned by the Conservatives with enormously increased majorities.

Sir Robert Bannatine Finlay, Attorney-General, was re-elected as the Liberal Unionist candidate in Invernessburg. At Maidstone, the Liberals recovered a seat, their candidate, J. Parker, receiving 2200 votes as against 2162 cast for his Conservative opponent, who represented the district in the late Parliament.

Thus far, the Ministerialists have gained 22 sents and the opposition 15, which would give the Government an additional 15 votes on a division in the House of

Last evening, Mr. Chamberlain, Secretary of State for the Colonies, sent the following telegram to a candidate: "Let all patriotic Englishmen remember the words of the Mayor of Mafeking: 'A seat lost to the Unionist Government is a seat gained by the Boers."

Timothy M. Healy retains his scat for North Leuth after a bitter fight. The Liberals suffered an unexpected loss in the defeat of Sir Wilfrid Lawson, in the Cockermouth division of Cumberland. I have the honor to remain, sir, your faith ful servant, ____ B. DISRAELI.

5 Cheyne Row, Chelses, Dec. 29, 1874.-To the Right Hon. B. Disraell-Sir: Yester day, to my great surprise. I had the honor to receive your letter containing a magnificent proposal for my benefit, which will be memorable to me for the rest of my life. Allow m to may that the letter, both in purport and ex-pression, is worthy to be called magnanimous and noble, that it is without example in my own poor history, and I think it is unex ampled, too, in the history of governing per sons toward men of letters at the present, a at any time, and that I will carefully present It as one of the things precious to memory and heart. A real treasure or benefit IT, independ-ent of all results from it.

This said to yourself and reposited with in all degrees of them, out of keeping with the tenor of my poor existence bitherto in this epoch of the world, and would be an incumbrance, not a furtherance, to me; that as to money, it has, after long years of rigorous and frugal, but also (thank God and those that are gone before me) not degrading, poverty, become in this latter time amply abundant, even superabundant; more of it, too, now a hind-rance, not a help to me; so that royal or other bounty would be more than thrown away in my case; and in brief, that except the feel ing of your fine and noble conduct on this oc casion, which is a real and permanent posses sion, there cannot anything be done that would not now be a sorrow rather than a pleasure. With thanks more than usually sincere have the honor to be, sir, your obliged an T. CARLYLE.

Carlyle himself appreciated Disraeli's character. After receiving the offer of a title and a pension, Carlyle wrote to his friend, the Countess of Derby:

Mr. Disraell's letter is really what I called it, magnanimous and noble on his part. It reveals to me, after all the hard things I have said of him, a new and unexpected stratum of It genial dignity and manliness of characte which I had by no means given him credit for It is, as my penitent heart admonishes mo, kind of "heaping coals of fire on my head, and I do truly repent and promise to amend. There are Jews who lack Disraeli's noble character. We hope that they will be inspired by this letter to help the cause of Judaism by emulating Disraell's exam

We hope the Christians will emulate his example also and endeavor to prove their possession of the fine qualities which they claim.

VARDEN IS GOLF CHAMPION.

Defeated Taylor by a Narrow Margin

DOLLY REYNOLDS MURDER.

Dentist Kennedy Trying to Get New Trial.

ALBANY, N. Y., Oct. 5 .- The appeal of Dr. Samuel F. Kennedy, the New York City dentist convicted of the murder of Dolly Reynolds, is being argued before the Court of Appeals. W. W. Cantwell the Court of Appeals. W. W. Cantwell and R. M. Moore asked the court to grant a new trial on the grounds of error in the first trial and the newly discovered evidence.

The people's case, counsel argued, was devold of motive, and the contentions of the District Attorney that Kennedy killed the woman in order to obtain a $13,000 check which was found on her person aft-er the murder, and that the bludgeon that was used for the crime was pre-pared at Newdorp, S. I., and carried to New York City, were inconsistent. There was nothing to show that Kennedy had any acquaintance with Dolly Reynolds other than a casual business acquain tance. District Attorney C. E. L. Barbler who argued for the people, maintained that the killing of the Reyndlas woman by Kennedy was premeditated and deliberately carried out. Dolly Reynolds was found with her skull crushed in a room at the Grand in New York City on the morning Hotel of August 15, 1899. Suspicion fastened upon Dr. Kennedy, who was last seen in her company at the hotel, and his arrest and conviction followed. He was sentenced by Justice Williams to be electro cuted at Sing Sing prison the week beginning May 22.

could be so charming. Women fell on each other's necks and wept for joy. Yet our friends had to wait for daylight to force the gates. This they did early in the forenoon, almost without oppo-sition. The Chinese had been cowed by frequent defeats, and now thought of nothing but flight. The Empress Dowager and court fled the same day, intending to set up a new capital at some inaccessible spot in the far west.

PEAT IS A POPULAR FUEL.

The English People Find It Cheaper, Healthier and Cleaner.

London Daily Mail.

Peat beats coal. In open fireplaces, where a steady heat and not a crackling blaze is wanted, the old-fashioned bos blocks have merits not to be found in the Wallsends. They are cheaper, lest. healthier and give less trouble This does not mean that you can shut up your coal cellar, throw away your fouttle and boycott the coal merchant. fourthe and boycott the coal merchant. The Durham and South Wales coal kings are still going to have dominion over u but a timely use of peat may materially lessen the coming Winter's coal bills, Unfortunately, the bogowners and peat merchants have missed a great oppor tunity. There are enormous deposits available, especially in the north and in Ireland, deposits that only want digging and drying to make the finest fuel. But they must be dug and dried in the early Summer. Autumn will soon be here, and no extra supplies have been prepared. The few peat merchants are already find-ing themselves flooded with orders which they will soon not know how to execute A considerable amount of peat is already burned in London, especially in the West End People after tours in Ireland or Scotland get to love the fresh, earth; smell of the burning moss, and take care to secure supplies. Some doctors are fond of ordering it in place of coal, especially in the case of patients where quietness is an essential. You can make up your peat fire early in the morning or a dozen blocks, and then go away, know ing that it will keep burning for eight or ten hours to come
