Life Extinct in Fifteen Minutes After Fatal Drop-Made Statement Implicating Another.

GOLD BEACH, Oct. 5.-Coleman Gillesple met death on the gallows here this afternon at I o'clock, and thus is avenged one of the most brutal and thendish mutders to be found in the annals of Curry County.

The murderer dropped about six feet. and died in 15 minutes. Death was due to strangulation. He met his fate with apparent unconcern.

His last statement from the scaffold was to the effect that it was Charles Strahan's hand which took aged Mrs. Enson's life, although he did not deny being at the house at the time the deed was committed.

The body was taken charge of by rela-

History of the Crime.

About the middle of September, 1839, Mrs. Christine Edson, a woman over 70 years of age, who lived alone at Gold Beach, was murdered, her house robbed and her body cremated. On September 19, 1539, the mulicarrier who passed the place, discovered that the house had been burned, and an investigation resulted in sinding the charred remains of Mrs. Edson lying across a bed. Circumstances pointed to murder for robbery, and suspicion at once rested upon Coleman Gitlespie, a wild and reckless young fellow about 21 years old, who lived in the neighborhood. Soon after the murder, Gillespie went to Myrtle Creek. While there, Gillespie sold Mrs. Edson's pension check for $75 to C. O. White, and this check when presented at a bank in Rose. burg gave the officers, who were trailing Gillespie, their first positve evidence of his guilt. He was arrested at Cottage Grove, September 20, less than two weeks after the murder, and confessed to rebbing the old lady of the pension check, but denied that he murdered her. His trial occupied two days and the jury returned a verdict of guilty after 30 minutes deliberation. Gillespie's people are well known and highly respected in the community where they live, John Gelsel, the first husband of Mrs. Edson, the murdered woman, and their three sons were murdered by the Rogue River Indians in February, 1856.

Arrested for Larceny.

ALBANY, Or., Oct. 5.—Upon informa-tion from the Sheriff of Umatina County, Sheriff McHargue arrested Con Hard-wick, on the charge of larceny of a horse and buggy from Mrs. Rheinhold, living near this city. Hardwick was intrusted with the taking of the horse to Mr. Rheinhold, at Pendleton, and, it is charged, sold the outfit and appropriated the money. He will be taken to Pendleton

The Purcells resided here until out a year ago, he holding a position in a general merchandise store at Park Place. They went to Galveston, where brother's commission-house. Everything as lost in the late storm, and the mem bers of a fratenal organization sent Mrs. Purcell and the children here. Mr. Purall is expected to arrive here and join his family soon.

UMATILLA COUNTY WHEAT. Growers Inclined to Hold Crop-New Variety of Grain.

PENDLETON, Oct. 5 .- Umatilla County wheatgrowers are inclined to hold for 60 cents per bushel for this year's crop, although many would sell for an approx-imation of that figure. Less than 45 cents falls to tempt them to part with their grain. Sales are not heavy. There is no precedent for the fine quality of this

By the introduction of the Sonora variety of wheat into Umatilia County farmers have been enabled to raise grain which commands about as high a pre-mium over the standard club as the blue-stem has. The Sonora wheat has proved to be an excellent producer, and is likely to cut more figure in the county's prod-uct hereafter.

The O. R. & N. Co.'s industrial department, under the charge of R. C. Judson, has been the means of an introduction of several new varieties of grein, and Mr. Judson states that he has a number of others with which he is experimenting for the benefit of the farmers of this re-

BINGER HERMANN AT BOISE. Spoke on Campaign Issues to a Very Large Audience.

BOISE, Idaho, Oct. 5.—Hon. Binger Her-mann, Commissioner of the General Land Office, addressed a large meeting here this evening. The meeting was one of the best held during the campaign and the address was very well received. On the sliver issue, Mr. Hermann said the public would hear less and less of it as the campaign progressed. Croker, he said, had told Bryan he could not carry New York unless he should drop 16 to 1, and Croker's advice is being followed. For that reason the speaker said: "Mr. Bryan came up to the captain's office and set-

EIGHT DAYS WITHOUT WATER, Experience of Two Miners Who

Tried to Round Cape Nome. SEATTLE, Wash., Oct. 5.-Eight days at sea in an open boat with plenty of food but not a drop of fresh water is the painful experience of Samuel Dutton and John Bauer, two Alaska miners, who started out from Nome, September 15, to round the Cape on a prospecting trip. They were caught in the great storm, were blown out to sea, and left in a helpless condition until they were rescued by the steamer Centennial, which arrived re today with the unfortunate miners

Notwithstanding that they were carefully nursed after their rescue by the offi-cers of the Centennial, they show unmistakable signs of the mental and physical anguish suffered during the eight days in the open boat. At the time they were picked up both were exhausted from thirst and exposure, and almost in a de-lirious condition and had no hope of seeing another day rise. The boat in which they were blown out to sea was a small 20-foot dory heavily laden with provisions, bedding and mining tools. By an strange oversight there was not one drop of fresh water taken on board. A strong wind was blowing off the shore when into a gale. It was impossible to face It and make the shore and it was found necessary to run before the storm with the result already mentioned.

NARROW ESCAPE FROM INJURY. Stage Team Ran Away, Landing Passengers in Deep Gulch.

BAKER CITY, Or., Oct. 5.—The passengers on the Sumpter stage from Bonanza today had a most remarkable escape from death. On coming down the new grade on Huckleberry Mountain, the brake on the stage would not hold, and the four horses ran away, down the steep incline. There were nine passengers in the stage. including a weman and three small children, one being a baby. The incline is 700 feet to every two and a half miles. and all efforts of the driver to stop the vehicle were unavailing. The horses kept up their mad run for several minutes, their speed accelerated by the snow and slush on the road. One of the wheel horses finally fell and was dragged a considerable distance. The leaders soon became unmanageable and made a wild leap into the gulch below. The stage turned

A lady and gentleman who were riding on the outside jumped and escaped, and assisted in extricating the other passengers from the debris.

Aside from a few bruises no one was urt. Even the little children miraculously escaped unharmed. Among the pas-sengers were County Judge W. W. Travil-llon, J. N. Dupuis and Ed Leclair, president and manager respectively of the El-mira Mining Company: John Hagney, Deputy Clerk of Grant County, and Mrs. Williams and her three children, the latter escaping without a scratch. The stage coach was completely demolished and the horses escaped with a few brulses.

chase price of the land sold, and was not secured by mortgage. The Leighows served notice on the Sheriff that they claimed exemption from the execution sale on the grounds that the land was a homestead. The Sheriff proceeded with the sale, and now the defendant in the original suit asks that the court give her title to the property on the grounds of home-stead exemption. Were the personal prop-
