FROM THE PULPITS TODAY

SERVICES THAT WILL BE HELD IN PORTLAND'S CHURCHES.

Dr. Kellogg Will Begin Bestatement of Christian Belief in the Light of Scientific Truth.

Dr. H. W. Kellogg, of the Taylor-Street M. E. Church, will begin tonight a series of sermons which will be of special interest to the thinking religious people of this city. He will enter upon a "Restatement of Christian Belief in the Light of Scientific Truth." Dr. Kellogg believes that there is a need of such a restatement to clear the minds of many, especially the minds of the young, of confusion and toubt, arising from an old terminology forced upon new conditions. Science has opened new fields of knowledge, and new meanings have been given to the great subjects with which religion has to do. To deny this is to create greater doubt and to deal dishonestly with sacred things. The only way to meet doubt is to satisfy it with evidence and not attempt to coerce the mind. Under a wrong treatment many honest people have been driven into darkness of doubt. The task that is undertaken in these discourses is by no means trifling, and only with a idence in the leadership of many great thinkers of today whose works have been studied carefully, would Dr. Keilogg un-dertake the work. And even then only with a deep sense of its necessity. He will deliver these discourses in the evening, instead of in the morning, as has been his custom. He hopes by this to reach many young people who are inclined to come to church at this hour. The subjects dis-cussed will be as follows; the list is subject to some change: The need of a restatement of Christian

AT STATE UNIVERSITY.

Society Elections and Other Things of Current Interest.

EUGENE, Or., Oct. 12 .- Football is becoming a steady social as well as athletic function at the State University. Everybody, even some faculty members, gets out in the pleasant October sunshine to watch the plays and comment on futures. The literary society field its first meeting last Friday night. As many of the Laureans were unavoidably absent, they did little more than make plans for next time. The Philologians had an overflowing house, and voted in 19 new members. C. E. Wagner, '01, presided. After his opening remarks, there were recitations by W. S. Beattle, '01, and Allan Eaton, '02; an extempore address by C. C. Fisher, '03, on "The Go'd Fields of Eastern Oregon"; on "Current Events," by J. H. Raulstone, '03, and a prepared address on "The United States Presiden-tial Election," by W. L. Whittlesey, '01. E. N. Blythe, '02, and W. L. Whittlesey, '01, affirmed the question, "Resolved, that the policy of the United States in China is not vigorous enough for the Nation that we are"; G. O. Goodall, '92, and J. A. Gamber, '02, were successful speakers in the negative.

Friday afternoon the Eutaxians held their first meeting. After the usual programme and spirited debate on the Chinese question, officers were elected as follows: President, Bessie Hammond, '01; vice-president, Lella Staub, '01; secretary, Winifred Miller, '01; assistant, Ella Travis, '03; treasurer, Sibyl Kuykendall, '03; censor, Susie Bannard, '01; editor, Grace Wold, '01; sergeant-at-arms, Kate Wilson, '02.

The October number of the University Monthly has appeared. The leading article, "On the Oregon Trail," is by Procount of Summer experiences on the old emigrant road from Omaha west to the Rockles. Kis I. Hamaoka, a student from Japan, has a short account of some, 5:36; possible sunshine Oct. 12, 11:06. of the causes of the present trouble in China. Besides these, a short story, some exchange verse, the usual editorials, notes, etc., complete the number.

As all political meetings are outlawed on the campus, the 'Varsity Republican Club held its initial meeting and reorganization at the county headquarters last Saturday. Officers were elected as fol-lows: President, B. C. Jakway, '01; vicepresident, C. N. McArthur, '01; secretary, C. E. Stanton, '01; treasurer, W. T. Whit-tlesey, '01. Many new members have joined, and the club expects to exert a perceptible, if not decisive, influence in the coming campaign. The Treble Clef met Tuesday and made preparations for active work, which will culminate in the annual contest, some time before the Christmas holidays. The new officers are: President, Susie Bannard, '01; vice-president, Lulu Craig, '03; secretary-treasurer, Esther Johnson, '01; accompan'st, Zida Goldsmith, ex-'01. Many new and competent members have joined, W. Gifford Nash, director of the department of music, announces his annual con-cert for Monday, October 15. He will be assisted by Miss Rita Hansen, con-tralto, and Mrs. Warren Delano, accompanist. The concert is under the auspices of the Ladies' Musical Club.

Flowers Necessary.

In an action brought by a florist against the administrators of the estate of a de- fair weather in the remaining portion of the ceased citizen who had refused to pay for the flowers furnished by the plaintiff, the Supreme Court of Rhode Island justified the expenditure, the Judge who gave the decision remarking that the custom of having flowers at funerals was almost universal in this country, and that when not abused by extravagance or unseemly ostentation, it was certainly to be commended as giving appropriate expressior to one's feelings of respect and love for the departed.

"I'M IN A HURRY!"

BY MARCARET L. BRIGGS.

"I HAVEN'T TIME!"

(ALL RIGHTS RESERVED.)

Did you ever think how often you hear the expressions "I'm in a hurry" and "I haven't time?" Could anything be more absurd than the way some people, especially some women, rush through life? The more trivial the incidents the greater the haste. It is perhaps natural that women who live out their lives at home attending to their household should regard the small matters of every day as fit occasions for huste, but it certainly has its humorous side when one has been buffeted by real

The woman who takes things at home with such seriousness is always a nervous woman, and no amount of coaxing will get her to let up in her feverish haste to get things done on time. It's hurry to get up in the morning, hurry to get breakfast, hurry to wash dishes, to sweep, to dust, to sew, to bake. "If you want anything of me you'll have to be quick, for I'm in a hurry." This is the refrain she sings all day long.

It's an awful trial to such a woman to have for a husband a deliberate fellow who usually arrives on time, but never appears to hustle. But I wonder what happens in homes where both husband and wife have the same affliction. I doubt if there are many such homes, for this haste habit is distinctly a feminine specialty and has a logical cause in a nervous condition, which in turn results usually from uterine derangement.

How often have you heard it said of one of these thin, nervous women, who has finally succumbed to the grim destroyer, "Poor soul, she's over her hurry now!" And you actually begin to wonder how she found time to die, for she was always saying she "hadn't time to be sick."

Such women would either laugh or get angry if you told them that their excessive hurry was a symptom of disease. They would suggest that they left a good deal of work behind them any way, and it might be a good plan if more people had the same kind of disease.

These women do their work "by the hardest" and do unnecessary things all the time. Their judgment is faulty at all points. To accomplish trivial tasks they boldly jeopardize health, and harmony, and happiness. Their efforts at comfort and pleasure are mixed up with worry for fear something "isn't going just right." They completely fail to understand how to get the good out of life, and when the real cause of their unhealthy activity declares itself they are sick women. They have really worried their lives away and have accomplished nothing for themselves or others. You could not make a woman of this stamp take medicine for her nervousness, yet if ever a woman needed Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound it is this misguided soul who "has no time."

Her stock argument is, "Who'll do these things if I don't? Look nice, wouldn't it, if dust was an inch deep all over the furniture and all the clothes in the middle of the floor?"

You'll find such a woman "hasn't time" to keep her person scrupulously clean, that her teeth frequently go unbrushed for the same reason. Her personal appearance, too, is secondary to her duties. In fact, she "hasn't time" to wear her clothes if she buys them, or to make them if she does it herself.

It looks impossible to convince this woman of the error of her ways; but it's a pity, for there are many such women.

If some one who had influence with her would induce her to take Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound on one pretext or another, and see to it that she found "time" to take it regularly for a while, this woman's nervous strain of haste would relax and presently she would begin to take an interest in something beside getting useless things done. This medicine of Mrs. Pinkham's is the true help for every woman whose nerves are in any way abnormal.

Why need women wait until they are physical wrecks with long neglected female troubles? Why not get some good out of life by finding "time" to pay attention to health?
