NEW GAME OF PUNNING.

A Game of "Guess," That May Be Played Without Limit.

Woman's Home Companion In the new game of "Guess" the con-testants are told that each question must be answered with the name of a man who has attained some sort of fame during the last 100 years. Each guest is given a little tablet with his name written on every one of the pages, which are numbered from I to 28. Two minutes are allowed to each question. The questioner sits with a big bowl before her, into which, when she calls time, each player drops a sup upon which he has written his answer. This is the kind of list that the questioner reads, omitting, of course, the answers:

A little laurel-wreath pin is an apropos first prize, with a copy of "Representa-tive Men" as a consolation. A booby is best dispensed with; it is apt to embarrass the recipient.

Almost any person can prepare an orig-inal list of questions and answers. Per-haps the easiest method to follow in doing this is to seek out a number of names of celebrities, or the names of which might serve as answers to possible queries, and then prepare ques-tions to which these names will be re-
