Says Bryan Cannot Possibly Carry New York.

SIRTEEN-TO-ONE IS RESPONSIBLE

Grake's Prediction at Fault-Demo Cratit Chairman Campbell Burprince His Party.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 19.-A close friend of David B. Hill, and a man in a position to know, has written a letter, in which he states that Hill has said there is no nonsibility of Bryan carrying. New York. The 16-to-1 declaration in the Democratic Platform, he says, is reponsible for the failure of Eastern Democrats to support the ticket. The whole dependence of the Democrats on carrying New York Is based on Croker's prediction, and consequently is very much at fault, as Croker cannot control anything outside of the Tammany element in that state. The failure to nominate Coler is also a reason for absolute defeat in New York.

Frank Campbell, who is prominent in Democratic politics in New York, raised great howl because in commenting upon the crowds that have come out to hear Bryan in New York State he called attention to the fact lifet just such crowds greeted David B. Hill in his convass for Governor some years ago, and yet Hill was defeated by over 160,000 majority. Some Democratic leaders talk of deposing Caracially as challeng of the Linne. ing Campbell as challman of the Demo-cratic committee because of this indiscreet

AS VIEWED BY M'KINLEY. Is Certain That He Will Carry Maryland and Indiana. WASHINGTON, Oct. 18 .- President Mc Kinley is as almolutely sure of paraging Indiana and Maryland as hads of carry-ing Ohlo. In fact, those who are close to him say that he sometimes talks of the doubtful chances in Ohio, but that he is positive as to Indiana and Maryland. not going to vote the Republican ticket. His confidence in Maryland is almost as

The President is one of the best politicians in his party. He knows political conditions fully as well as almost ony other man that ever held a political posi-tion. Whether he has been misinformed, of whether he simply believes that it is the fate of these 180 states to go for Mo-Kinley and Roosevelt is a question that cannot be answered. It is true that some men try to give the President the opinion that everything is more rosy than it really is, yet there are others that go to him and tell him that there are doubtful conditions in several states. His confience in Maryland and Indiana is one of curious features of the campaign, it was not until within a week past that the Republicans believed there sbility of Maryland and only a few days ago did anyone assert that Indiana was anything but doubtful. The Bepublicans will place Indiana in the doubtful column until the end of the campaign. no matter what managers may say for publication, because they know that it is a doubtful state, and there is just hope that it will be carried. The later reports from Indiana received various sources Indicate that the doubt exists because it is evident that McKinley is going to lose in the cities. It is reported in nearly every city, from Indianapolis down, that there will be a failing on. It is estimated that in In-dianapolis alone be will lose from 60) to 5000 votes, and in the smaller cities of the state a like proportion. The Repub-Beans hope to overcome this in the rural districts. They believe that there is going to be a general return of farmers who left the Republican party and voted for Bryan in 1886, and they figure that the guin for McKinley in the rural districts is one-half as large as the ratio of gain for Bryan in the cities, it will be a standoff, and McKinley will have something like the majority be had four years ago. This, of course, takes very close figuring and rather optimistic reasoning on the part of the Republicans. If there is any great falling off in the cities as predicted, which the Republicans do not now ac-knowledge, it is doubtful if the Republicans can carry indiana.

There is always a possibility of securing a large purchasuble vote in Indiana, but this vote is growing smaller year by year, because of the "dishonesty of the purchasable vote," made, presumably, by the Australian ballot. It appears that under the new system the floaters and men who are purchased are so "dishon-est" that they will not "stay bought." If both parties undertake to use money salile rote is still a doubtful quantity. However, there is a great deal more talk about using money for buying votes than actually occurs, and money is usually spent in getting voters to regis-ter and get them out to the polls on election day, rather than in outright buying of votes.

From every point of view Indiana is a very doubtful quantity.
On the other hand, Maryland seems to be swinging into the Republican line be-cause the people of that state are sat-lafied with present conditions and do not want to turn themselves over to the lems that Bryan stands for. It is probable that the President is right in predicting that the vote of this state will be cast for

A Republican Dollar Dinner. CHICAGO, Oct. 19 .- Arrangements have nearly been perfected by the Marquette Club for its harvest home prosperity feast, which is to be held next Wednesday evening at the Collicum. MENACE OF CROKERISM.

Here Is a Subject Worthy Bryan's

Invective Powers. Harper's Weekly. In his brilliant oratorical flights from one end of the country to the other, Mr. Bryan discourses eloquently of many issues now before the people, the paramountcy of each of which in his treatment of them depends rather upon geographical conditions than upon considerations of the black works. tions of the highest welfare of the Nation as a unit. In the West and South there is a distinct sound as of silver in the clarion tones of this new Moses who shall lead the debtors of the Nation out of the intolerable bondage into which by some inscrutable provision of Mammon they are plunged. In the Middle States, where, under the beneficent influences of Altgeldism anarchy has dared most conspicuously to rear its head, and where, therefore, Mr. Bryan is moderately safe in assuming that appeals to envy, hatred and malice, to the passions which prompt pillage, riot and murder, will not be re-sented, the trust issue is discussed with a fervor which would lead the octopus to hug himself with joy at the paramountcy of his position. And in the East, in New England, where dwells the idealist, the high-minded lover of republican institu-tions, there does Mr. Bryan bring forth his wondrous bogy of imperialism with which to frighten the timid into an alliance with himself, hiding behind its ample skirts his vicious advocacy of a scut-fied Supreme Court, of a scuttled dollar, This is especially the case as regards fied Supreme Court, of a scuttled dollar, Indiana, and he would even talk about it of a scuttled anything which may sufor let the matter be discussed, saying sciently appeal to the discontented to enthal it is absurd to think that Indiana is able the Populist, candidate to gratify an able the Populist candidate to gratify an ambition which is, the most creditable feature of his career up to the present time. From the various degrees of fer-vor, then, with which under different skies Mr. Bryan discusses different ques-tions, we may fairly conclude that he does not consider any one of the problems involved big enough to reach from Maine to Texas, or from New York to California. They appear to him doubtless to be, just as the tariff question appeared to General Hancock, local issues. We therefore take pleasure in inviting Mr. Bryan to consider an issue now before the American people which vitally affects the welfare of every state, of every city, of every village, of every hamlet, of every man, of every woman and of every child in this country. That issue is Crokerism.

It is a mistake to suppose, as many worthy souls do, including Mr. Croker himself, we believe, that Crokerism is a local issue, and onco fairly embarked upon a consideration of its intricacies Mr. Bryan will find himself following a lead which will bring him into every home in this land. He will find at last a ques-tion large enough to cover every inch of territory in the United States, with a sufficient sfurplus to reach to the Philippine Islands on the one side, to Cuba and to Porto Rico on the other. As the issue un-folds itself to him, as it surely must if he will study it intellgently, and with a mind unbiased by personal considera-tions, he will see how in its essence it is a sort of omnium gatherium, in which im-perialism, free riot, discredited courts, "any kind of money," "all kinds of money," morality, public and private, Government monopoly, private ownership of public franchises, public proprietorship of private business—all conceivable ques-tions that can possibly come up for dis-Bryan in 1886, and they figure that the cussion in a political campaign—are di-rural vote is twice as large as the city recily involved. He will be unable when considers its far-reaching effects to say that because New York City suffers most from Crokerism it is of merely local importance. There is nothing sporadic about the principles underlying Crokerism, however emphatically they may be manifesting themselves at one special point. They are everywhere, and an ocwith more deadly tentecles has yet to appear on land or sek. Once having mastered the subject in its every phase, the distinguished candidate for the Presidency will not have to fit like a butterfly from one paramount question to an-other, will not be compelled to transform himself into an oratorical chameleo merely to live up to certain exigencies of a situation which he must by this time have found excessively embarrassing. will discover in Crokerism an issue big enough to cover every corner of the country he professes to love, and significant enough to consume every moment of his speaking time from now until the 8th of November. Properly to set it forth will tax his vocabulary. Properly to take stand for or against it will test his sincerity. In any event, we advise him to study it closely, for, successful or not in his quest for the Presidential office, it is bound sooner or later to ob-trude itself upon him, and he should be prepared either to give it to the out-stretched hand of fellowship, or to admin-

BRYAN TAKES SILVER REPUBLI-CAN NOMINATION.

In Doing So He Incloses Some of His Old Speeches and Quotes Lincoln.

BUFFALO, N. Y., Oct. 19.—The follow-ng letter accepting the nomination of he Silver Lincoln Republicans, was mailed today by Mr. Bryan: Buffalo, N. Y., Oct. 19, 1900.—Hen, Sam-uel Hopkins, Chairman, and Other Members of the Notification Committee of the Silver Lincoln Republican Party—Gentle-men: I am in receipt of your letter for-mally notifying me of my nomination for mally notifying me of my nomination for the Presidency by the Silver Lincoin Republican National Convention, held in Kanasa City., July 4 last. In accepting the nomination, I beg to express my hearty appreciation of the support given our ticket by the members of your party in the campaign of 18%, and of the fidelity shown by them during the four years which have since clapsed. The evidence political obligations are due entirely to the plain people, who ask no special privileges at the fanada of the Geovernment, but demand only equality of Hights and opportunity to enjoy life, liberty and the parault of happinass under the flag of a Republic. These people, the Nation's wealth-productive in time of peace, and the Nation's warriors in time of war, have already done more for me than I can ever repay. Whether I am elected or not, it shall be my ambition to protect their rights and advance their interests by every means within my power. Very every means within my power. Ve truly yours. W. J. SAMOANS WANT TO BE TAXED

In Order to Supply Remuneration for Native Officials,

PANGO PANGO, Samos, Oct. 5.—As a result of an order issued by the commandant under the "arms ofdinance,"

VERMONT'S NEW SENATOR

WILLIAM P. DILLINGHAM.

William Paul Dillingham, Vermont's newly elected United States Schator, was born at Waterbury, Vt., December 12, 1842. His greatgrandfather was killed at Quebec while under Wolfe, and his grandfather served three years in the Revolution. Senator Dillingham, who is a lawyer by profession, served a number of terms in the Vermont Legislature, and was elected Governor of that state in 1888 by the largest majority ever given there.

of confidence and good-will manifested anew at the last National convention places me under renewed collections. There is a consistency about the human mind which leads an individual to appry old principles to new conditions, and I am therefore not surprised to find that those who left the Republican party in 1896 on the money question are now opese who left the Republican party in posed to it on the trust question, which has increased in importance since 1896, and upon militarism and imperialism, the new questions which the Republican party has forced upon the public within the last two years. Your platform, of which you inclose a copy, is in its decplatform adopted at Kansas City that it is not necessary for me to take up the planks in detail. I inclose the fullowing documents and make them a part of this letter:

My speech at Indianapolis, in reply o the Democratic notification committee lealing with imperialism, militarism and resolution expressing sympathy for the Boers. letter formally accepting the My Democratic nomination, covering other planks of the platform. 3. My speech accepting the Populist comination, dealing with those issues nomination, dealing with those issues upon which the Democrats and Populists py common ground. My speech delivered at St. Louis September 15, on the trust question.

These documents have already been midely published in the press of the country, and the members of your party are fully informed in regard to my views on the questions covered. In 1896 the money question was the question of paraimportance, but the Republicar by its disregard of the principles party, by of our Republic and by its advocacy of policies repugnant to the doctrines of self-government, has left us no choice but to summon all lovers of the Declaration of Independence to the defense of that sacred document and the Constituframed in accordance with it. your letter you quote several appropriate extracts from Lincoln's speeches. I find in a speech by Lincoln in 1858 a defense of the Declaration of Independence, acpeal to his countrymen not to abandon the principles therein enunciated. It is so applicable to the present time, and so in harmony with the references you have made to Lincoln's words, that I quote the following extract: "Now, my countrymen, if you have been taught doctrines conflicting with the great landmarks of the Declaration of Independence: if you have listened to suggestions which would take away from its grandeur and mutilate the fair symmetry of his proportions; if you have been inclined to believe that all men are not created equal in those inalienable rights enumerated by our chart of liberty, let me entreat yo to come back. Return to the fountain whose waters spring close by the blood of the Revolution. Think nothing of me; take no thought for the political fate of any man whomsoever, but come back to the truths that are in the Declaration of Independence. of Independence. You may do anything with me you choose, if you will but heed these sacred principles. You may not only defeat me for the Senate, but you may take me and put me to death. While pretending no indifference to earthly honors, I claim to be actuated in for office, I charge you to drop every pairry and insignificant thought for any party and insignificant thought for any man's success. It is nothing: I am noth-ing; Judge Douglas is nothing. But do not destroy that immortal emblem of hu-manity, the Declaration of Independence." How harsh the contrast between the lofty sentiments expressed by Lincoln and the sordid, mercenary appeal now made to the people by the Republican party. How great the chasm between the statesmanship which would sacrifice life itself in defense of that immortal document, which has been the model of republics ever since it was promulgated, and the commercialism which would sacrifice every noble and holy purpose in pursu't of new markets, and would indorse the

THE RIGHT THING.

A New Catarrh Cure, Which is Rap-

Idly Coming to the Front. For several years, Eucalyptol, Guaicot and Hydrastin have been recognized as standard remedies for catarrhal troubles, but they have niways been given separately, and only very recently an ingetious chemist succeeded in combining them, together with other antiseptics, into a pleasant, effective tablet. Drugglats sell the remedy under the name of Stunrt's Cutarrh Tablets, and t has met with remarkable success in the cure of masal catarrh, bromshial and throat catarrh and in catarrh of the

Mr. F. N. Benton, whose address is care of Clark House, Tray, N. T. says: When I run up against anything that is good I like to tell people of it. I have been troubled with entarth more or less for some time, last Winter more than ever. Tried several so-called curys, but all not get any benefit from them. About did not get any benefit from them. About six weeks ago I bought a lo-cent bex of Stuart's Catarrh Tablets and I am glad to say that they have done wonders for me, and I do not hesitate to let all my friends know that Stuart's Catarra Tablets are the right thing.
Mr. George J. Casannya, of Hotel Griffon, West Ninth street, New York City, writes; I have commenced using Smart's Catarrn Tablets and already they have given me better results than any gatarra curs I have ever tried.

A leading physician of Pitteburg advises the use of Stuart's Catarrh T. preference to any other treatment for cutarrh of the head, throat or stomach. He claims they are far superior to inhalers, salves, lotions or powder, and are much more convenient and pleasant to take and are so harmless that little children take them with benefit, as they con-

All druggists sell Stungt's Cataggh Tab. lets at 50 cents for full-sized package, and they are probably the safest and most reliable cure for any form of catarrh.
