WEATHER CONDITIONS. The barometer is again rapidly failing over Northwest Washington, and the indications are that another storm is approaching that coast. The barometer is highest over Southern Oregon and Northern California. Light rains have fallen generally throughout the North Pacific States, and it is much cooler in this district. High southerly winds prevail tonight along the coast from the mouth of the Columbia River north to the Straits of Juan de Fuca, and vessel men should be extremely cautious in venturing to see, as the extent of the disturb-ance near Vancouver Island cannot yet be de-termined. It appears to be moving very rap-idly, and the morning reports will probably de-
