ENCOURAGING SITUATION

DONDITION OF TRADE ON THE WHOLE QUITE SATISFACTORY.

Emproved Inquiry and Higher Prices for Iron and Steel Products-Weekly Bank Clearings.

NEW YORK, Oct. 26.-Bradstreet's tomorrow will say: Despite some irregularity growing out of the unseasonable weather conditions, heavy price changes in leading staples or increased conservatism in some traders as the election approaches, the general busi-mess situation as a whole is encouraging, and new elements or manifestations of strength appear from time to time. Peris found in the industial situation, which has been distinctly improved by the ap-parently official and final action taken soward ending the anthracite coal strike. In view of the fact that most miners size obtained increased wages, the effect on business in the producing regions can hardly be otherwise than beneficial, while the trade at large must reap benefits rom the return to normal conditions.

Other lines of trade which showed imevament are those of shoes, leather and kindred products at the East, which are reaping the benefit of better distribution meaning the benefit of better distribution in the country at large, and rather more than an average business has been handled in wool at the East, with holders more inclined to demand full prices. For their products. The continued weakness of, couton is an element of uncertainty in the more than the form. tarnty in the goods trade, but the firm-1% cent decline in price, is a tribute to strength of the market.

The situation in cereals shows little change. A feature of the movement of product to market at the present time not heretofore noted this year, is the growing scarcity of cars reported west of the Mississippi. Sugar is lower than anthe Mississippi. Sugar is lower than an-ticipated, and coffee is off on continued

The strength of demand for finished products of iron and steel, noted for som time past finds reflection in an improved inquiry for the cruder forms at leading fron centers this week. Steel billets are reported E higher at Chicago, while a similar advance is noted at Pittsburg, and efforts to raise the level of bessemer steel billets are being debated. The claim that stocks are being readily reduced is borne out by reports of several 1000-ton lots be-ing moved at Pittsburg and further West, and intimations that a still larger busi-ness has been arranged for on a conditional basis, dependent upon election re-gults. While Southern pig is unchanged at the South, a sharp out in the same noted at Western markets. The lowering of coal prices, expected as a result of the ending of the strike, is expected to help the export trade in coal, which is, however, confronted with high freight rates. In spite of this it is claimed that 1,200,000 tons of bituminous coal have been sold for export to Mediterranean ports. Wheat (including flour) shipments for the week aggregate 4,923,978 bushels, against 2,796,643 last week, 4,416,496 in the

From July I to date this season's wheat erts are 60,244,142 bushels, against 65,-881.642 last year, and 62,789,107 in 1898-1899. Business failures for the week in the United States number 181, as against 223 last week, 211 in this week a year ago, 219 in 1896, and 218 in 1897, and 246 in 1896. ELECTION A FACTOR.

NEW YORK, Oct. 25.—R. G. Dun & ba's weekly review of trade stomorrow

The elections mean a great deal to all business interests and although confidence in the future is seen on every band, it is but natural that men do not cure to take unnecessary chances and therefore delay new engagements as far as possible until after the ballots are sted. But contracts for steel rails for the season thus far are within 50,000 tons of last year's heavy bookings, and the tive activity to stimulate them.

The agitation for an advance in billets, though a small one, is an indication of what the iron and steel markets expect in the next six months, and in the great industries sellers of material could east ly make heavy contracts if they cared to attach political provisions to their agreements. However unreasonable these feaures may be, it is likely to be better for ess in the long run that conservative ideas for the present are entertained. The weather over a great part of the country has been favorable for agricultural operations, which are progressing well, and in the East the unseasonable tem-peratures have retarded general trade comparatively little, as there has been no great stimulus yet this season. iditions in the iron and steel market have steadily improved; orders grad-ually swell in volume and buyers make less effort to secure concessions. In most cases quotations the not altered, but there is an advance to $20 in Philadelphia for billets owing to the better business in rails. Pig iron moves freely, especially at Chicago, where manufacturers have contracted heavily for finished stuff in excess of raw material on hand. Cast iron pipe is in urgent demand, and new plans for shipbuilding will take plates. Bridge are buying structural forms Makers of rails and other products of iron have been accused of quoting better, terms to foreign than to domestic buyers. If this is done, it would seem to be the manufacturers' affair rather than the newspapers'. Miner metals are quiet, except for further weakness in tin. Bilver has reached the highest price in Wheat also continued its downward course owing to the good news here and abroad, but an encouraging feature was the accelerated foreign buying as quotations declined. Atlantic exports for the week were 2,935,025 bushels, against 2,253,-625 a year ago, and Pacific shipments $79,043 bushels, against $58,583 last year. Sales of wool at the three chief Eastern markets continue to increase, exceeding 5,000,000 pounds last week. Prices are not altered, and bids slightly below the market are refused. Cotton goods move rather freely as the price comes nearer parity with raw materials but wide sheetings are dull at the advance to 22c.

Failures for the week were 26 in the United States, against 190 last year, and

WALL STREET REVIEW. A Rising Market Due to the Aggression of the Bulls.

68 in Canada, against 72 last year,

NEW YORK, Oct. 26.-Bradstreet's financial review tomorrow will say:
At the end of last week it was apparent some large financial and speculative interests were taking an aggressive posi-tion on the bull side of the account. This week has witnessed the development under such auspices of a rising market. Transactions exceeded any attained in many weeks and although manipulation and speculative activity contributed largely to the interest in the proceedings. there have been more eviden side interest than for a long time. Buying of stocks by commission houses has in fact recommenced on a scale that con-trasts sharply with the lack of any such support to prices for several months past.
London also has taken a part in the demonstration, and though the foreign participation was mixed in character Europe was a considerable buyer of stocks on balance. This, however, does not mean that builtsh speculation in Americans has broken out in London.

On the contrary, it seems to result from the fact that heavy operators there concluded that, as a consequence of election uncertainties in this country, our market would break, and sold many calls on "Yankee ralls," beside selling them short to a large sum total. This foreign bear interest was subsequently alarmed and started to cover extensively, thereby helping the advance along. Local bear trad-ers have likewise been obliged to cover in the stocks of which they were largely short, but it was also noticeable that the smaller professional was not only prompt to take on the successive advances in different stocks, but also seemed inclined to put out fresh short salea. In fact the street as a whole seemed to be impressed with an idea that before election day there might be a reaction in prices.

BREACH OF PROMISE CASE AGAINST THE MISSISSIPPIAN.

A Young Woman of His State Alleges That He Deceived Her-She Wants $50,000.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 28.—A suit for $50,000 damages for breach of promise against United States Senator William V. Suillvan, of Mississippi, was filed in the District of Columbia Supreme Court this afternoon by Mai Lucy Leeton, of Oxford, Miss. The plaintin in her affidavit alleges that she, "an unmarried woman, at the request of the defendant, under-took and promised to marry him, and the defendant undertook and promised to marry the plaintiff, which he, without cause or right, has refused to do."

The plaintiff claims that she met Sena-tor Sullivan about October 7, 1895, in his law office at Oxford, he being employed to defend her brother-in-law. She claims that he made protestations of affection for her, "and began by wiles and artifices to induce the plaintiff to accompany him on a journey to Chattanooga, Tenn." Plaintiff claims she refused to go with him, but allowed him to correspond with She was at that time married, but with her husband. Plaintiff claims that Senator Sullivan promised to procure a divorce for her, "and that he would keep her forever with him and that she should occupy as high a posi-tion as any lady in the land." About December 1, 1895, the plaintiff, at the request of defendant, went with him to New Orleans. In January, 1896, according to affidavit filed today, the defendant placed plaintiff in Nelson's Busi-ness College at Memphis, Tenn., paying her tuition and board. In May, 1897, he secured a divorce for her. The affidavit then alleges that May 10 of that year plaintiff and defendant lived together in Alexandria, Va., as Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Sutton, he introducing plaintiff as his wife. Later he placed her in the Fauouter Female Institute, in Warrenton, Va., as his niece, where she remained from January to June, 1898, the defendant writing her every day, and prom-ising her he would marry her in the Sum-

During this time plaintiff claims she had an offer of marriage from a young man who lived near her home, and asked the defendant to consent to break off their relations. The latter, she claims, urged that she should not marry the young man, but wait and marry him the following Summer. The affidavit recites that the couple lived together in Washington and that the defendant finally notified plaintiff that he was not finan-cially able to marry her. Also that plaintiff, hearing defendant was ill, in June, 1900, came to Washington to see him, and found him rooming with a woman whom he had brought from Holly Springs, Miss. She claims the defendant 2.6 offered her $10,000 to go home, and not expose him before said woman. The plaintiff refused to do this, and claims the defendant abused her and left her without money, friends or means to

The court this afternoon issued the usual writ for service on the defendant to show, cause within 20 days of service why judgment should not be had.

Sullivan Calls it Blackmail. MEMPHIS, Tenn., Oct. 28.—A special to the Commercial-Appeal from Oxford, Miss., says: Senator Sullivan today gave out the following statement: "This woman has no claim on me of any kind. While in Washington recently an attempt was made by her and her abettors to extort money from me under threat of a suit such as she has now brought. I declined to entertain such a proposition. The proof will show that it is an attempt to besmirch my character.

The records of Nelson's Business College show that Miss Lucy Leeton, of Lyons, Miss., was a pupil in 1896 and that she was placed there by W. V. Sullivan, of Oxford, Miss.

Dying Man Insisted to the Last He

The stand of timber in the East may be in the neighborhood of 750,000,000,000 feet board measure. With that estimate in the West, 630,000,000,000, the total stand in the country would appear to be, approxi-mately, 1,380,000,000,000 feet board measure. In 1890 the cut was about 25,000,000,000 feet and since then the annual cut has some-what increased. The present stand would, therefore, supply the present rate of con-sumption for about 50 years. As a ran-dom statement, then, it may be said that we have timber in stock sufficient to last the present demands of our industries for nearly two generations. pa and lega, and as the palit grow worse it exleased to my feet. They swelled all outs of shape, and the pain was dreadful. Finally my feet began to grow numb, and I could barely hobble about.
One day when I had come down to the store I got to the steps and could go no farther. Finally a passer-by helped me into the store and I at once put myself in a doctor's care. Rectricity was tried, but without railef; in fact the feeling in my feet wha so far gone that I scarcely feit the full force of the battery.
One day Mias Rernans, a member of the family of the late Senator Kernans, of this city, told me about by. Williams Pink Pills for Pale People and asked me to try them. I said I would and I made up my mind I would give them a fair trial, so I bought is no boxes. In my opinion the majority of people are not willing to give a remery a fair trial. I knew that two or three boxes would not cure an basi a case as mine, but I found that I had bought mose than was necessary. I began to find great relief by the time I had this box we seem than I have to-day, and that was five years ago.

CHICAGO, Oct. 26.-His skull crushed, his tongue paralyzed and his life ebbing away as the result of a blow on the head. Frank Marshall insisted to the last that he had fallen on the sidewalk and that his brother John was not responsible for his death. He died at St. Elizabeth Hospital, conscious to the last. For hours, Detective Schulz labored to get an ac-count of the fight. He placed paper and pencil in the dying man's hands and asked him to describe the cause of his wounds. But the injured man pushed them away and would only say that he had fallen. He did not know that his brother had made a confession.

John Marshall, now accused of murder, is a saloon-keeper. His brother Frank came into the saloon and complained that the bartender was wiping the counter prietor, interfered and told Frank to ing murdered Express Messenger Lane, mind his own business. Then the brothers fought. George Joyce and two othseparated them. Joyce and his friends then left, but returning soon afterward they found Frank Marshall lying upon the floor with a bad wound in his head. They took him to the hospital. The police have a statement from the bar-tender, which charges John Marshall with having struck Frank over the head with a mopstick. The Coroner's jury said that it was from this wound he died. Later John Marshall made a full confes-
