LONDON, Oct. 28.—Frederick Max Mui-ler, corpus professor of comparative phil-clogy at Oxford University, died today at 12:35 P. M. His disease was an affection of the liver.

Until 10 days ago he was able to con tinue writing his autobiography, dictating to his son. He was perfectly conscious until this morning. He was 77 years old.
Frequently during his illness dispatches of insulp; were received from Emperor

(Professor Muller, the son of the poet, Wilhelm Muller, was born at Dessau, Germany, December 6, 1822. He was educated at Leipeic and Berlin, and took his degree in 1842, after which he proceeded to Paris, where he studied Sanscrit and the sacred books of the East under Eugene Burrouf. In Germany he had previously studied Arabic and Pereian, as well as philosophy and comparative philology. In 1846 he visited England for the purpose of examining manuscripts in ology. In 1846 he visited England for the purpose of examining manuscripts in the East India House and at the Bodleian Library, Oxford, and in the following year was commissioned by the East India Company to edit the Rig-Veda, which was subsequently issued by the Unit-ensity Press, Oxford. In 1850 he was appointed deputy Taylorian professor of modera-dinguages at Oxford, and four years later succeeded to the professorship. He became curator and subsequently Oriental librarian of the Bodleian Library in 1855, and was elected a fellow of All Souls' College in 1258. In 1858 he was appointed College in 1538. In 1888 he was appointed professor of comparative philology at Oxford, and held the chair until 1876, when he accepted the editorship of the series of important translations of the sacred books of the East. Of the series, 49 vol-umes have been issued, which embrace translations of the Upanishads, the Dhammapada, the Zend-Avesta, the Vedic Hymns, the Qur'an (Koran), the Gaina and Vedanta-Sutras, the Buddhist Mahay-ana Texts, the Sacred Books of China, and the Institutes of Vienna.

and the Institutes of Vishnu. Professor Muller had the faculty of in-vesting his subjects with life and in-terest for even the unlearned reader, and has specially enriched them by his suc-cessful method of approaching the history of man's religious and intellictual devel-opment by the study of human speech. He is one of the eight foreign members of the Institution of France, and was elected first president of the Aryan secelected first president of the Aryan sec-tion at Stockholm in 1889. Besides his monumental work, Professor Muller translated in 1890-3, and published upder the anispices of the Maharajah of Visian, "Sacred Hymns of the Brahmins," with other critical texts and commentaries on Brahmanic, Buddhist, Pahlavi and Con-fucian literature, and the early cere-monial laws of the Orient. He has also published a history of Sanscrit literature (1859) a Sanscrit grammar for heginness (1839), a Sanscrit grammar for beginners (1886), and a volume of "Hibbert Lectures on the Origin and Growth of Religion." as illustrated by the religions of India labors in the new science of comparative philology. FLOOD IN WISCONSIN.

Much Damage Done at and Near City of La Crosse.

LA CROSSE, Wis., Oct. 23.—In the 24 hours preceding 8 o'clock this morning 74 inches of rain fell in this city. The storm was the severest in this city, al-though it was generally felt within a radius of 50 miles from here. The Milwau kee road suffered much damage to its tracks, and no trains have arrived from the East for 24 hours. The La Crosse River marshes are flooded, and most of the hay that escaped the late flood has been destroyed. On H. Geodard's farm house was undermined and the fam ily sought refuge in a barn until rescued today. The Green Bay road has a wash-out on the marshes which will require some days to repair. At Hokaha the dam which held in Lake Como broke today, and the lake has almost disappeared. There is a good deal of damage throughout the country. Fire caused by electricity damaged the La Crosse Knitting Works to the extent of several thou

HAVE NOT YET COMPLIED.

Few Coal Companies Will Not Advance-Railrond Men Ask More.

HAZLETON, Pa., Oct. 28.—The Lehigh & Wilkesbarre Coal Company, operating the Audenreid, Honeybrooke and Green Mountain collieries, in this district, has not yet compiled with the demands of the anthra-cite miners. It is expected that the company will grant the concession by November 1, when work will be resumed. There will be no resumption of work at the Minerville colliery, which is operated by the A. S. Vanwickle estate. Owing to an agreement with the Pennsylvania, the officials say they cannot afford to grant an increase of 10 per cent, and if the men return to work they will have to be contented with the old rate of wages. The Vanwickle Company has granted the in-drease at its other collieries at Coleraine and Silver Meadow. It is said the Calvin Pardee Company, owner of the Lattimer mines, will not take back those men who struck before the mines were closed down by 800 marchers some weeks ago.

The firemen and brakemen on the Delaware, Susquehanna & Schuylkill Rall-road have submitted a number of demands to the rallroad officials. The former demand that 30 hours shall constitute three shifts, and that they be paid $7 for the same instead of $5 10, which they receive at present. The brakemen demand an increase of 10 per cent in their wages. The engineers have no grievances. This ruli-road is owned by Coxe Bros. & Co., who operate six collieries in this region, and was built for the purpose of hauling coal from its mines to the tracks of the Le-high Velley Railroad.

RUSSIANS ON AMERICAN ELECTION. Our "Imperialism" Not Like That of Great Britain.

ST. PETERSBURG, Oct. 18.-The Rus sian press is displaying considerable in-terest in the coming election in the United States. Several organs have reached the conclusion that both parties occupy virtually the same position. Regarding imperialism, Prince Utomski's paper, the Viedomosti, says:
"It is not important which candidate is elected, and it will be useful to observe the advance and reflux of the imperialistic wave. "American imperialism regards colonies as a means, not an end. America wishes economic dominion over the universe, which explains her effort to girdle the Mr. Bryan's room where the candidate received Congressman Richardson and several local politicians.

Mr. and Mrs. Bryan then left the hotel and walked through Madison Square to the Madison-Square Presbyterian Charch. When Mr. Bryan first appeared on the street there were very few people about, but those who were there instantly rec-ognized him and with many a shout followed him to the door of the church. Yale and Harvard boys, who came to New York with Mr. Bryan on Saturday were also at the church and occupied seats a short distance in front of Mr. Bryan. Dr. Parkhurst, the pastor, was not informed of Mr. Bryan's presence, and his sermon was an exposition of a portion of the scriptures. Word was evidently passed through the congregation during the service that Mr. Bryan was in the church for when the benediction was pronounced almost the entire congrega-tion rushed for the doors and filled the sidewalk and street in front of the building. This crowd was also augmented by those who were on the street and in the Square and by the time the party reached the hotel 2000 people were crowded about them. So dense was the crowd in fact that it became necessary for sev eral park policemen to go in auvance.

Mr. Bryan stopped in his room from 1 clock to 5, when he dined. Until 9 o'clock tonight, when he left the Hoffman House there was a steady stream of callers. Mr. and Mrs. Bryan were both kept busy shaking hands. Among the callers wer Congressman Sulzer, Frank Campbell and James K. McGuire, ex-Governor Stone and Congressman Richardson

Promptly at 9 o'clock Mr. Bryan and party left the hotel for the Grand Central Station, where they took the train for Albany. A squad of 22 policemen, two roundsmen and a sergeant kept the crowd back and a platoon of 20 mounted police-men escorted Mr. Bryan to the station. Notwithstanding the fact that his departure was not announced in any of the morning papers, the people appeared to find it out in some way and fully 3000 were gathered about the hotel eagerly emerged, with Mrs. Bryan, a great shout went up.

On the way up Broadway to the station crowds of people lined the streets on either side and shout after shout rent the air. At the Grand Central Station, Mr. Bryan was at once recognized by the crowds awaiting their trains and with great difficulty that the police held the people back and kept a passage way for the party. Mr. Bryan's special car, the Rambier, was attached to the New York Central train which was scheduled with Mr. and Mrs. Bryan on the rear platform there were more cheers.

Mr. Bryan will stop first at Albany and will come back tomorrow arriving at Weehawken at 6:25 P. M., where he will be met by Congressman Sulzer and driven to Hamilton Fish Park for a 10 minutes' speech and thence to the Academy of Music, in Brooklyn, arriving there at 7:30, where he is to address a meeting. Were Finally Driven Off-1400 Natives Brive Gur Troops Back-American Deserter Captured.

MANILA, Oct. 28.-While scouting may Looc, a detachment of the Twenlieth and Twenty-eighth Regiments, under Captain Belgier, were attacked by 60 insurgents armed with rifles, under the command of a white man, whose nationality is not known to the Americans. The insurgents for the most part were intrenched. After a heroic fight, Captain Beigier drove off the enemy, killing more than 75. nght insted for two hours. Captain Setg-ler and three privates were signify wounded, and two of the Americans were killed. An engagement took place October 16 between detachments of the Third Cavalry and the Thirty-third infants, numbering 60, and a force of insurgents, including 600 riflemen and 1000 belomen. The fighting was desperate. Finally, under pressure of overwhalming sumbers, the Americans were compelled to retire on Navvican. Lieutenant George L. Febigs-and four privates were killed, nine wanted ed, and four missing. Twenty-nine horse are missing. A number of teamsters were captured by the insurgents, but were sub-sequently released. The enemy's loss is estimated at 150.

A civilian launch towing a barge loaded with merchandise near Arayat was at-tacked by a force of 158 insurgents under David Fagin, a deserter from the Twenty-fourth Infantry. The American troops, hearing the firing turned out in force be-fore the boat could be looted and cap-tured Fagin, who holds the rank of General among the insurgents, and who has aworn special enmity towards his former company. Of the 20 men he captured a month ago, seven have returned. One was killed in a fight, his body being horribly mutilated. Fagin sent measures to his former comrades threatening them with violence if they became his prisoners. It was Fagin's men who captured Lieutenant Frederick W. Aistnetter, who is a
