son, Adams, Crawford and Clay, in which there was no choice in the electoral college.

TAXES AND LICENSES. Beginning about 1890, the town of Portland took on metropolitan airs and expenses.

Proceedings have been instituted in the real estate market to reduce the value of real estate.

Washington's gain over Oregon in population, shown in the eleventh census, continues to be apparent in the twelfth.

The East Oregonian is authority for the statement that the stockmen of Umatilla County will have a very large number of beef cattle to market next Spring.

The San Francisco Examiner says: "The life of the 10,000,000 propertyless voters is hard enough at best."

The law against storing or keeping explosives in any quantity within certain carefully prescribed limits was clearly violated by Tarrant & Co., druggists of New York.

At Present Business Can Be Done Only on the Basis of Long Credits. A correspondent of the New York Evening Post writes very intelligently from Warsaw concerning the general business conditions in that city.

In the great sound-music parade in New York on November 3, it is expected that 37,000 men from the wholesale and goods stores will march, a striking evidence of the strength of that city of New York business.

Secretary Root, in a brief speech recently delivered in Ohio, made an admirable statement. He said that the government of the Philippines will not affect the character of our institutions.

No Good Reason for a Change. Chicago Tribune. There have been times in the history of this country when for its sake a change in Administration was most desirable.

Down in "Nort' Calany." They are singing lots of mud in the North Carolina campaign. Strange to say, this mud-slinging is by Democrats and Democrats only.

English Postal Savings Increasing. London Express. As long as England herself remains solvent it is impossible for the Postoffice Savings Bank to be solvent.
