

REVOLUTION IN SPAIN

Government Claims to Have Checked the Uprising.

THE MOVEMENT WAS PREMATURE

Clery Implicated in the Affairs, Which Was Strengthened by the Crisis in Catalonia.

MADRID, Nov. 1.—The latest news of the Catalan movement is that the chief of the Bergh band has offered to surrender, if he is pardoned, but it is added that the Government has refused to act vigorously against the Berghs. The Berghs remain quiet. The following statement has been issued by the Spanish Minister of the Interior: "The revolution in Catalonia is on the decline. It is now limited to the band in the mountains near Berga, which is fleeing before several columns of Government troops. The rest of the province is calm. The troops have returned to barracks. They encountered no revolutions."

The Movement Was Premature.

PARIS, Nov. 1.—The Temps this evening publishes a dispatch from Madrid, which says the military authorities of Catalonia are securing all the local papers, that all information respecting the Carlists is prohibited, and that nothing is allowed to be telegraphed or telephoned except official bulletins. The correspondent of the Temps adds: "It is now certain the bands of Carlists are more numerous than at first stated. The two bands number 80 men each, and the movement is now being organized by the Liberal and Republican press. The Liberal and Republican press declare the vitality of Carlistism is due to the freedom allowed the religious orders. The Carlists are now active in the uprising, which is strengthened by the industrial crisis in Catalonia."

Carlists and Catalonians.

NEW YORK, Nov. 1.—It is learned from Biarritz, says a Paris dispatch to the Times, that the Spanish Carlists are trying to approach the Catalonian revolutionists with a view to common action against the Spanish Government. It is not thought, however, that the Catalonians will identify their cause with the Carlists, and it is said to be unlikely they will do so. The Carlists are now active in the uprising, which is strengthened by the industrial crisis in Catalonia.

JAPAN'S FOREIGN POLICY.

Native Press Clamors for a Bolster Attitude.

VICTORIA, B. C., Nov. 1.—Yokohama advices dated Nov. 1 are as follows: The illness of Marquis Ito is causing some anxiety, will prevent the announcement of the new Cabinet for some days at least. In the meantime, the clamor of the native press for a bolter foreign policy in connection with the Chinese situation continues. Much concern is felt in regard to Germany's attitude, it being argued that the Kaiser's position of North China and Germany of Shan Tung, Japan's commercial interests, which now lie largely in these regions, will be seriously damaged, and all the reasons of the war of 1894-5 will be revived and destroyed. The situation may be summed up in the statement that this nation is in a mood to rest satisfied with the terms of the present peace, but is prepared to have recourse to the Legation.

The details of the escape of the Empress Dowager and the Emperor from Peking are interesting, not only as showing that they were in the city after the allies gained possession, but also that their flight was of the most hurried and strenuous character. It was in the early morning of August 16 with a messenger escort, the two occupying the same conveyance. At Kwan they procured a camel, on which back a sedan chair was fixed, and the Empress Dowager and the Emperor were secured. They had neither luggage nor nightclothes, and for three nights were obliged to sleep on burlap mats (brick beds) covered by a few blankets, with no covering. They were unable to get proper meals, and had to satisfy their hunger on rice gruel. On arrival at Hwai Lei, local officials, their servants, and from that on they occupied a carriage, and it is said that they had a very comfortable trip.

It seems that August 16 the order to move the court from Peking was issued, but there was no movement until the morning of the 13th, the artillery of the allies was heard, its roar increasing until the morning of the 14th, when shells and bullets fell thick and fast. The court fled, and the order to move was issued. Trouble Brewing in France.

NEW YORK, Nov. 1.—The outlook for social and political disturbances in France is becoming graver every day, says a Paris dispatch to the Times. In the north, 30,000 miners are on strike, and the Socialists talk from members of the government seem to have encouraged a violent and revolutionary spirit. Moreover, the Catholics are very bitter, and the clergy is making common cause with the other enemies of the government. Only the fact that the government controls the church's funds prevents the clergy from expressing its opinion vigorously on the matter.

BRYAN REACHES CHICAGO.

HE MADE EIGHT SPEECHES IN THE WINDY CITY.

Toured Indiana Yesterday and Reached Here This Morning. He Will Capture the State—Some of His Talk.

CHICAGO, Nov. 1.—Mr. Bryan this afternoon began his three days' itinerary of this city, addressing a vast concourse at Randolph street and Michigan avenue. The speaker's stand was at the side of the Public Library, and he was surrounded by thousands of people. Bryan was escorted from the Dearborn-station street by the "Daily Democrat" and "Chicago Tribune" through Dearborn street, Broadway, Clark, Madison, La Salle and Randolph streets, which were lined with thousands of people. The hour was especially auspicious, as thousands of workmen and office employees had just completed their day's task and awaited the coming of the Democratic champion. Mr. Bryan was in excellent voice and his speech had a most effect in reducing the storm of cheering that greeted him when he was introduced. His speech was a complete success, and he was driven to the hotel where he was to stay for the night. Bryan was accompanied by his wife and children, and they were all well.

At the Stand near the Public Library.

When we speak of the business man today, we refer to those business men who are included in that narrow application of the term—those who are engaged in merchandising and in trading. The Democratic party today appeals to the business man as well as to the laborer and farmer. The Democratic party has taught the business man that the Democratic party is the conservative party of this Nation, and that the Republican party is the revolutionary party.

MEANS BY WHICH THEY CAN SERVE HIS COUNTRY, AND WE ARE WILLING TO SUBMIT OUR PRINCIPLES AND OUR DEFENSE TO THE CONSCIENCE OF THE PEOPLE.

In his speech Mr. Bryan referred briefly to the financial question by way of allusion upon the Republican position. The following are some of the points: "I want the Republicans to explain why they ask for the substitution of a bank note for a greenback. In their financial bill they demand that every citizen have a right to international bimetalism. Why revive the hope of international bimetalism if the gold standard is a good thing? Why not set up a permanent gold, silver and copper coinage, a permanent system without having permanent bonds?"
