Whereas, on the 1st day of November, 1900, by the consideration of the Circuit Court of the United States for the District of Oregon, a decree was duly entered in the above-entitled causes directing a sale of all the following-mentioned and described property, to-wit:

All and singular the property, real, personal and mixed, belonging to or owned by the defendant East Side Railway Company, wheresoever situate, and also all and singular the railway, railroad, telegraph and telephone lines of the said East Side Railway Company constructed and to be constructed upon and over the lines or routes herein and in its articles of incorporation mentioned and described, and also all of the lands, tenements and hereditaments acquired or appropriated, on March 1, 1893, or thereafter acquired or appropriated for the purpose of right of way of such railway or railroads, and all the easements and appurtenances thereto belonging or in any wise appertaining, and all the railways, ways and rights of way, depot grounds, lands, and town lots, tracks, bridges, viaducts, culverts, fences and other structures, depots, station-houses, engine-houses, car-houses, freight-houses, warehouses, machine-shops, workshops, superstructures, erections, buildings and fixtures, at any time acquired for the use of said railroad or railway or in connection therewith, or in the business thereof, and also all locomotives, tenders, cars, and other rolling-stock, equipments, and all rails, ties, furniture, tools, implements, fuel and materials whatsoever for or in respect of the construction, operating, repairing or replacing of said railroads, railways, or any part thereof, or convenient or necessary for the use of said properties, whether held and owned on March 1, 1893, or thereafter acquired by said East Side Railway Company, together with all the equipments or appurtenances whatsoever thereto belonging, whether held on March 1, 1893, or thereafter acquired, and all franchises and charters connected with or relating to said railroads or railways or any of said lines of telegraph or telephone, or the construction, maintenance or use thereof, held on March 1, 1893, or thereafter acquired by said East Side Railway Company, and all the corporate franchises of any nature relating thereto, including all rights, grants and charters from the City of Portland, the City of Sellwood, the City of Oregon City, and the County of Multnomah, and the County of Clackamas, and the franchise to be a Corporation, and to operate said railroads, together with all and singular the income, advantages, tenements, hereditaments and appurtenances to the above-mentioned railroad or railways, premises or property belonging to or in anywise appertaining, and the reversion and reversions, remainder or remainders, tolls, incomes, rents, issues and profits thereof, and also all the estate, right, title, interest, property, possession, claim and demand whatsoever, as well in law as in equity, present or prospective, of the said East Side Railway Company of, in, and to the same and every part and parcel thereof, with the appurtenances thereto belonging, and also all goods and chattels now owned by said East Side Railway Company, and in any way relating or appertaining or belonging to, or connected with its business or used for conducting or operating the same, together with all rents, issues and profits, moneys, rights, benefits, and advantages derived or to be derived, had or received therefrom by the said East Side Railway Company, in any way whatever; also personal property more particularly described as follows: Motor cars named "Alva," "Iona," "Cora," "Helen," "Janet," "Kate," "Laura," "Olive," "Rose," "Una," "Portland"; trailing cars named "Eva," "Flora," "Grace," "Mabel," "Nora," "Persis," "Queen," "Stella," "Tot," "Dora"; eight flat cars; two freight cars numbered 2 and 4; one box trailer car numbered 11; two steam motor cars numbered 1 and 2; merchandise, machinery, tools, fixtures, and sundry other personal property on hand; also including certain merchandise, goods, material and supplies on hand, being all the merchandise, goods, material and supplies belonging to the defendant East Side Railway Company or acquired by the receiver of the said East Side Railway Company, and being all of the merchandise, goods, materials and supplies in the possession of the said receiver; also including certain tools, fixtures and apparatus, all in the possession of the said receiver; and all moneys due and owing to the said defendant East Side Railway Company from divers persons, and all moneys due and owing to the receiver of the East Side Railway Company from any person; and all property owned by the defendant East Side Railway Company or acquired by the receiver of the defendant East Side Railway Company, wherever situated, and being in the possession and under the control of the receiver of the said East Side Railway Company; and all moneys due and owing to the receiver of the said defendant East Side Railway Company, and including all the property of the above-named defendant, East Side Railway Company, of every name and nature, wheresoever situated, whether or not the same be specifically described herein; and all the property acquired by the receiver in the above-entitled causes, or in either thereof, and all the property in the possession or charge of said receiver; and all right, title, interest and claim, both at law and in equity, in and to any and all of said property.

And, whereas, the undersigned are in and by said decree appointed Special Master Commissioners to make sale of the herein-described property and directed to sell the same in the manner and upon the terms and conditions herein stated, on a day and at an hour to be fixed by them, and to execute and deliver a deed or deeds of conveyance and transfer the said property to the purchaser or purchasers thereof upon an order confirming said sale and upon payment or settlement of the purchase price bid as in said decree provided.

Now, therefore, notice is hereby given that we, the undersigned, C. H. Prescott and Wallace McCamant, Special Master Commissioners of the above-entitled court, appointed in and directed by said court to make sale as aforesaid, pursuant to the directions, provisions and requirements of the said decree, on Saturday, the 8th day of December, 1900, at the hour of 2 o'clock P. M. on said day, said day and hour being fixed by us for said sale, in accordance with the terms and provisions of said decree and as required by said decree, at Umatilla avenue, in Sellwood, in the City of Portland, in Multnomah County, Oregon, and on the line of said railway between Portland and Oregon City will sell the above-described property as an entirety and in one lot or parcel, absolutely and without redemption, and subject only to confirmation by said court, at public auction to the highest bidder or bidders, and upon the following terms, to-wit: No bid will be received or entertained from any one offering to bid upon said property who shall not have deposited with the undersigned Special Master Commissioners, at least two hours prior to the said hour fixed for said sale, the sum of twenty-five thousand dollars ($25,000) in money or by duly certified check payable to the order of the undersigned as Special Master Commissioners, upon some responsible bank satisfactory to the undersigned, as a pledge that such bidder will make good his bid; the deposit so received from any unsuccessful bidder will be returned to him when the property shall be struck down, and the deposit received from the successful bidder will be applied on account of the purchase price of the property as may be directed by the said Circuit Court of the United States for the District of Oregon. No bid will be received, entertained or accepted for said property less than the sum of $250,000, and unless that sum shall be bid for said property the undersigned will adjourn the sale and apply to the said Circuit Court for further instructions. In case any bidder or purchaser shall fail to make good his bid upon the acceptance thereof by the undersigned, the said Special Master Commissioners, or shall fail after such acceptance to comply with any order or orders of the court relating to the payment thereof or to the consummation of the purchase, then all sums of money deposited by such purchaser or purchasers shall be forfeited as a penalty for such failure, and shall be applied towards the repayment of the expenses of re-sale and towards making good any deficiency or loss in case the property should be sold for a less price upon such re-sale. If any sale for which a deposit shall have been made shall not be confirmed by the court, such deposit shall be returned to the bidder making the same. The purchaser, upon confirmation of the sale by the said Circuit Court, must make full payment in cash of the purchase price of said property not exceeding the total sum bid for said property, except that upon the balance of the purchase price not required by the decree of said court to be paid in cash, the purchaser may pay the same either in cash, or may satisfy and make good such balance of his bid in whole or in part by turning in to be canceled or credited any debentures, notes or certificates issued by the receiver in the said causes or in either thereof; and all or any of three hundred bonds each for the sum of one thousand dollars, and each dated March 1, 1893, made by the defendant East Side Railway Company, and all or any of the coupons attached to the said bonds, or any of them; such purchaser shall be credited therefor on account of the purchase price such sum in cash as would be payable upon such receiver's debentures, notes or certificates, or such bonds or coupons out of the proceeds of sale if the whole amount of the purchase price were paid in cash, and no more.

The right is reserved to re-sell said property upon such notice as the said Circuit Court may direct in case the purchaser shall fail or refuse to pay any balance on account of the purchase price bid by him within five days after the entry of an order requiring such payment.

All sums of money received by the undersigned Special Master Commissioners or after the sale paid or deposited by the bidder or purchaser, are to be deposited with the Clerk of the said Circuit Court in the registry of said court, subject to the order of the said court.

The complainant, Morris & Whitehead, bankers, and the cross-complainant, A. L. Maxwell, as trustee, and either of them, and any creditor of the defendant East Side Railway Company, and any person who is a holder of any debentures, notes or certificates issued by the said receiver, and any holder of any claim or demand against the defendant East Side Railway Company, and any party to these causes, or either of them, may bid upon or purchase said property at said sale; and all the proceeds arising from the sale of said property shall be retained in the custody of said Circuit Court subject to the order of said court, and will be distributed and applied and paid out as the said court shall order and direct, and in such manner and upon such notice as the said court shall direct, and in pursuance of the said decree.

The Circuit Court of the United States for the District of Oregon in this notice referred to as "the said Circuit Court," or as "the said court," retains jurisdiction of the above-entitled causes for the purpose of enforcing the provisions of said decree concerning said sale and the payment of the purchase price, and all other provisions of said decree.

Reference is hereby made to said decree for a description of the property to be sold and the terms and conditions of such sale, and by such reference the said decree is made a part of this notice.

Dated November 5, 1900.
