NEW YORK, Nov. 6, midnight.—It became evident at a very early hour this evening that the election of McKinley and Roosevelt was assured. At 12:30 o'clock returns from nearly two-thirds of the election districts of Greater New York had been received, indicating beyond question that Bryan and Stevenson could not expect more than 25,000 or 30,000 plurality in this Democratic stronghold, and unless there was a landslide in the outside counties beyond all reasonable expectation, the pivotal state of New York had declared in unmistakable language by a greatly reduced majority, for the Republican candidates.
 As the night progressed, it only served to confirm this judgment, but the returns from Illinois revealed a like condition. The Republican plurality of 1896 was greatly reduced, but it was still far too large to be overcome.
 On the other hand, the returns from Indiana, Michigan, the two Dakotas, Utah and Wyoming, as well as Nebraska, seem to indicate steady Republican gains over 1896. Delaware, Maryland and West Virginia have given decided Republican pluralities.
 The count in several of the far Western states was naturally so delayed as to give little indication of the opinion there, but they had ceased to have a determining effect, and before 10 o'clock the Democratic leaders had given up the contest and it was announced that Mr. Bryan had gone to bed and was sound asleep.
 The whole story was easily and briefly told. The Republican ticket would have a larger electoral vote than four years ago, but in the larger states of the East and Middle West the pluralities of 1896 had fallen from 174,000 to 50,000. New York 285,000 to 159,000, and Illinois from 142,000 to 100,000 or less.
 The 51st Congress seems to be Republican by a substantial working majority. The gubernatorial tickets have apparently followed the National, and Odell is elected in New York and Yates in Illinois. Senator Thomas C. Platt gave out the following statement at 1:30 tonight: "At one hour it is apparent that the plurality for McKinley and Roosevelt above the Bronx River is not less than 18,000, and may easily exceed that figure by 10,000. Greater New York is against us in the neighborhood of 30,000, and therefore we are confident of the state by nearly 100,000 for the ticket. It may slightly exceed that amount. Mr. Odell has apparently not received in Greater New York as many Democratic votes as the National candidates, but in the other counties there is little variation between his vote and McKinley's. His plurality will not be more than 25,000 less than the President's. Both branches of the Legislature are Republican by increased majorities. There have been elected four additional Republican Congressmen.

 Belmont's election is conceded by a majority of 30,000 or more.
 Returns from all but 52 districts out of 212 in New York State outside of Greater New York give McKinley a majority of 145,377. Returns from all but 122 of the districts in Greater New York give Bryan a majority of 27,381.

NEW YORK.
 McKinley Carried the State by 150,000 Majority.
 NEW YORK, Nov. 6.—At 11 o'clock the indications are that President McKinley has carried New York State by a majority over Bryan of 150,000, compared with a Republican majority in the last Presidential election of 285,000. The total vote in the City of New York is approximately 65,000 larger than it was in 1896, and up the state the increase is about 30,000. In the city Bryan wiped out the plurality of 80,000 which McKinley had four years ago, and took on a plurality for himself of about 25,000. Up the state McKinley barely held the vote which he had in 1896, the added vote going to Bryan.
 The vote for Odell, Republican nominee for Governor, is considerably larger than that for McKinley. In Brooklyn particularly the Democratic nominee for Governor, Mr. Stanchfield, appears to have been scratched.

The election passed off quietly, both in the city and state. There were no more than the usual number of arrests of men accused of attempting illegal voting at city precincts, and where the accused made it clear that they were innocent they were permitted to return to the polling places and vote without further molestation.
 Returns from Congressional districts are scattered and incomplete.
 On Long Island McKinley and Bryan are running so close together that all estimates are valueless.
 In the Wall-street district, which includes the Borough of Richmond, Staten Island, Nicholas Muller, dem, is probably elected. Republicans concede the election of William Salter, dem, in the Seventh District, and that John S. Hill, dem, has been beaten by William H. Douglas, rep, in the district now represented by William Aster Chanler, Amos J. Cummings and George R. McClellan, both Democrats, have undoubtedly been re-elected. Interest centers in the canvass of C. H. Belmont in the Thirteenth District, and at 11 o'clock he was several hundred votes ahead of his rival, W. R. Wilcox.

The Interior Cities.
 BUFFALO, Nov. 6.—Buffalo City complete gives McKinley 24,773, Bryan 8,158. City of Rome, complete; McKinley 2098, Bryan 1882. Republican loss 199. Odell, for Governor, has 1999, Stanchfield 1212.
 Auburn gives McKinley 6143, Bryan 3008. Republican loss 340.
 Elmira City complete gives McKinley 1212.

A QUIET, BUT EARNEST ELECTION
 Though Weather Was Everywhere Favorable, Total Vote Fell Much Below Number Registered.

Notwithstanding Oregon's vote yesterday was considerably below registration figures in May, the Republican plurality approaches and may surpass the greatest plurality ever given in the state. In 1894 Governor Lord's plurality was 15,000. Returns from about half of Oregon received last night indicate that President McKinley's plurality over Bryan is fully 14,000. These returns are more or less incomplete and further reports will change the figures given this morning, but the chances seem in favor of running the Republican plurality above 14,000 rather than reducing it below. Multnomah County contributes very largely to this result showing, with four precincts missing, 8938 for McKinley and 4484 for Bryan, and the full return for the county will give the Republican plurality at scarcely less than 5500.
 The weather was favorable and assisted materially in getting out the vote. Many unregistered voters qualified themselves and voted on certificates of freeholders. Still the number polled will fall short

Big Change in Union County.
 LA GRANDE, Or., Nov. 6.—The weather was fine today, and a heavy vote was polled. Returns at 10:30 from 19 precincts out of 23 make the following showing: Union, complete—McKinley 259; Bryan 146. Ferry, complete—McKinley 7; Bryan 25. Alford, complete—McKinley 29; Bryan 6. Cove—McKinley 11; Bryan 108. Hillgard—McKinley 6; Bryan 67.

July 25 per cent, possibly 30 per cent, of the number registered. With this short vote the large Republican plurality is especially significant. The disposition to ignore the minor parties in reporting election figures leaves the Prohibitionist, Middle-of-the-Road Populist, and Social Democrat without much of a showing. The Prohibitionists perhaps polled 1 per cent of the total vote and the other two much less, five to eight times as many voting for Eugene Debs as voted for Barker. A summary of the imperfect reports received last night is shown in the following table; all counties being heard from except Harner, Malheur and Wallowa:

FROM THE VARIOUS COUNTIES.
Baker Goes Slightly Democratic—A Light Vote Cast.
 BAKER CITY, Or., Nov. 6.—Baker County will doubtless give Bryan a plurality of 40 to 100. A light vote was polled throughout the county. The disposition to ignore the minor parties in reporting election figures leaves the Prohibitionist, Middle-of-the-Road Populist, and Social Democrat without much of a showing. The Prohibitionists perhaps polled 1 per cent of the total vote and the other two much less, five to eight times as many voting for Eugene Debs as voted for Barker. A summary of the imperfect reports received last night is shown in the following table; all counties being heard from except Harner, Malheur and Wallowa:
 The vote today in all the precincts of the county is much along the lines indicated in the June elections, with a lighter vote for the Republican Electors than was given the Republican state ticket. The Prohibition vote in the 14 precincts is 2. Middle-of-the-Road Populists 1, and Social Democratic Electors, resides here. In Baker County the vote today will probably fall 500 or more short of the registered vote.

Douglas County Largely Republican.
 ROSEBURG, Or., Nov. 6.—The election passed off without incident in this county today, the vote being as large, if not larger, than that polled at the June election, when 3000 votes were cast. Returns from 11 of the 23 precincts show the following results:
 Roseburg (4 precincts)—McKinley 479; Bryan 381. Drain—McKinley 162; Bryan 74. Millwood—McKinley 24; Bryan 23. Glendale—McKinley 47; Bryan 110. Myrtle Creek—McKinley 83; Bryan 147. Canyonville—McKinley 8; Bryan 56. Biddle—McKinley 3; Bryan 16. Oakland—McKinley 19; Bryan 32. Calapooia—McKinley 24; Bryan 34. Comstock—McKinley 21; Bryan 31. Wilbur—McKinley 51; Bryan 57. Yoncalla—McKinley 11; Bryan 17. Ocala—McKinley 2; Bryan 24. Camas Valley—McKinley 23; Bryan 40. Civil Bend—McKinley 40; Bryan 65. Elkton—McKinley 7; Bryan 23. Cleveland—McKinley 43; Bryan 21. Lookingglass—McKinley 30; Bryan 62. Plurality for McKinley 231.
 The returns from the eight outlying precincts will not materially change the foregoing result, which places Douglas in the Republican district by a greater majority than was generally estimated. The Prohibition, Mid-Road, Populist and Socialist parties polled a very light vote in this county.

LA GRANDE, Or., Nov. 6.—The weather was fine today, and a heavy vote was polled. Returns at 10:30 from 19 precincts out of 23 make the following showing: Union, complete—McKinley 259; Bryan 146. Ferry, complete—McKinley 7; Bryan 25. Alford, complete—McKinley 29; Bryan 6. Cove—McKinley 11; Bryan 108. Hillgard—McKinley 6; Bryan 67.

THE COUNT IS UNUSUALLY SLOW
 Jones, rep, and Cushman, rep, say Congress Appear to Be State-Legislature Republicans.
 SEATTLE, Wash., Nov. 6.—At 11:30 P. M. tonight Chairman Schively claimed the state for McKinley by from 8000 to 8000, and says he believes that while Frink, rep, for Governor, will run behind he will be elected. Chairman Drum, of the Democratic committee, has privately conceded Washington to McKinley, but says Rogers and the other state officers will be elected.
 SEATTLE, Wash., Nov. 7.—Returns received up to 2 o'clock this morning are so incomplete as to make close figuring impossible. That McKinley has carried the state by a good majority there is no doubt. Both parties claim the state, and it will take today's count to settle the thing.
 Drum Claims the State for Rogers.
 Chairman Drum, of the Democratic State Central Committee, at 2 o'clock this morning, wired The Oregonian that Rogers had carried King County by 500, Pierce by 700, and the state by 700, at least. He made no statement as to the National ticket.
 The correspondent of The Oregonian at Seattle wired at midnight: "Vandavert, rep, for Sheriff, is defeated, and the outlook is that Rogers has carried both the city and county. I think there is no question of Rogers' election."
 It is apparent that while McKinley has carried Spokane by 1000 or more, King by 1500 and Pierce by 1500, Frink has lost the first by 300 or more, and it is doubtful if he has carried either Pierce or King. If he has, it is by a very small margin.
 The correspondent of The Oregonian at Tacoma wired at 1 A. M.: "It looks very much as if Frink is beaten. If he wins, it will be by a close shave."
 Returns to The Oregonian from the smaller counties, however, indicate that Frink has run, as a rule, much better than in the large counties. In Cowitt and Jefferson, for example, he runs well along with McKinley. Rogers' majority in Whitman appears to be less than expected. Elsewhere Frink was badly scratched. The rest of the state ticket is much in doubt.
 Jones and Cushman, rep, are running along with McKinley, and are probably elected.
 The Legislature is doubtless largely Republican.

EASTERN WASHINGTON.
 Republican State Ticket Ahead.
 With Exception of Frink.
 SPOKANE, Wash., Nov. 6.—Never since telegraph wires were strung in Eastern Washington have election returns been so slow and so meager, but those at hand tonight indicate that in Eastern Washington counties the Republican state ticket, with the exception of Frink, for Governor, will hold its own. Rogers runs far ahead of his ticket, when all the counties are taken into consideration, and probably will have 500 majority on this side of the mountains.
 Returns must take a sudden turn to change this. Only 16 precincts have reported in Spokane County. These show the McKinley ticket in the lead, Rogers ahead of Frink, and the county ticket running about even. Only two of the precincts are city, hence the Spokane County vote will probably be Republican, as the city ordinarily is heavily so, but Rogers will run far ahead of his ticket in the city.
 In Stevens County there appears to be a majority from returns of five full precincts, 500 for the Democratic ticket and for Rogers 300 more than that.
 Lincoln County is giving Democratic majorities, Rogers getting double the majorities of any other man on his ticket. Possibly the regular will get three hundred for the regular Democratic ticket.
 Two precincts of Okanogan County show small majorities for the Democratic ticket, probably 300 from all sources.
 Columbia County will give the entire Republican ticket; majorities ranging from 200 to 300.
 In Chelan County the Republicans lead in one small precinct, and probably will defeat most of the county ticket, but
