COMING ATTRACTIONS.

"A Trip to Chinatown." Next Thursday, Friday, Saturday matinee and Sunday evening at the Marquam Grand the much talked-of and extensively advertised success, Hoyt's new "A Trip to Chinatown," the most pretentious work of America's popular playwright, Mr. Charles Hoyt, will be presented.

"A Trip to Chinatown," like all of Mr. Hoyt's comedies, is a satire, and was constructed for laughing purposes only—to furnish an enjoyable evening's entertainment and to draw money to the box office. That Mr. Hoyt thoroughly succeeded in doing all these things well known to the American theater-going public...

Harry Gilfill heads the cast, and he is seconded by such people as Mabel Montgomery, Fleurette, Clayton Kennedy, Will Paulbrick, George D. Linden, Alex Holmes, A. J. Payne and N. D. Marks, are registered at the St. Charles.

"A Day and a Night" at the Metropolitan. The latest of the Hoyt farces, "A Day and a Night," is one of the merriest of comedies, sparkling with wit and satire. The story of the play concerns Marie Hart, the son of Lyon Hart, who has been quite frisky in his younger days...
