Cotton Manufacturers of South Petition For It.

NECESSARY TO IMPORTANT TRADE

Secretary Hay Asked to Use His Good Offices to Prevent Closing of Markets to Americans.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 15.-Secretary Hay has received a petition from nearly all of the leading cotton manufacturers of the South to take such action as may lie within his power to prevent the inter-ference by any European power which might close the foreign markets to the cotton manufacturers of the United States and injure other American interests. The petitioners declare that the "open door" policy is necessary to secure the retention of the important trade in cotton drills and shirtings with China, most of which are manufactured in Southern States. It is declared the withdrawal of this trade in Manchuria would seriously affect not only the manufac-turers of cotton goods but Southern cot-ton-growers and employes and laborers in the cotton mills. The petitioners rep-resent fully $15,000,000 in capital, and declare they have lost half their trade since the Boxer uprising and are running ou

CHINESE TRADE CONCESSIONS.

Treaties of Commerce Can Be Revised When Peace Is Made.

NEW YORK, Nov. 15.-The conseems to have been reached in Pekin to conclude peace with China without undertaking at present the complete revision of the treatles of commerce, says a dispatch from Washington to the Journal of Com-A general article will be inserted in the treaty of peace subscribed by the powers providing that China shall con-sent to the revision of the treatles of com-merce, but shall deal with each power

Whether the result of these negotiations will be as satisfactory as a general treaty guaranteeing to the citizens and subjects of all the powers complete freedom of traffic in the interior of China-remains to be seen. It appears to be thought at the State Department and among some of the Ministers at Pe-kin that difficulties and delay would arise in secking to deal with desired changes in detail at present. It may be possible for the leading powers to secure concessions regarding interior trade which will drive the entering wedge for like concessions to all. Most of the powers are entitled to the privileges of "the most favored nation," and will be able to ask for themselves whatever is granted to any of the other powers.

The fact that the Chinese Imperial Goverament consents to the revision of the treaties as a general proposition is con-sidered at Washington an important point for securing what the civilized powers desire. The process of obtaining further concessions may be slow, but it is hoped that pressure upon the Chinese Government will secure them as fast as they can be availed of. Many of the conces-sions heretofore granted by China to capitalists and syndicates have been little more than waste paper because the syndicates have not proceeded to carry

Governor Tunn. LONDON, Nov. 15.—The Rev. Evan Mor-gan, the last foreigner to leave Shan Fu, has arrived here. His life and the lives of the other missionaries in Shen Si province were saved by Governor Tuan, a kinsman of the notorious Prince Tuan. Governor Tuan, when he received a deoree from Pekin to kill all foreigners, warned Mr. Morgan and his colleagues and gave them an escort. Mr. Morgan describes the Governor as a 'brave, friendly and noble man, who, at the risk of his life, saved us. The only foreigners left in Shan Si are 20 priests, mostly Italians, and 12 nuns, who are occupying a sort of fort near Sinan Pu, defended by machine guns. It is thought probable that Pather Hugh, of London, is in the fort, and, pos-sibly, it is to relieve this party that Count von Waldersee's expedition, under Colonel von Wartenburg, has gone from Pekin. It is admitted that the conduct of the Germans caused the affray, but it is also asserted that the British exceeded their powers. The Fascination of Crime. It is said that burgiary exercises such a fascination that, once the delirium of its danger is tasted, a man can never put that fatal wine away, writes Senator Beveridge, in the Saturday Evening Post. An old and distinguished lawyer nce told me that one of the most liant young lawyers he ever knew said to him, at the conclusion of a legal duel in which he had resorted to the sharpest of sharp practice and won: "That was the most delicious experience of my life." Yes, and it was the most fatal. He be-came, and is, an attorney of uncommon resource, ability and success, with many cases and heavy fees; nevertheless his lin is a failure, for his profession and even his clients know him for a dealer in tricks.
