IN FIELD OF SPORTS

Lively Game Expected Today
With Chemawas.

will be known to the anxious participants Tuesday, when the official list will be hung up by the billiard committee who have the tournament in charge.

MULTNOMAH'S BILLIARD TOURNAMENT

Some of the Probable Handicaps
Leak Out-New Bowling Club
Will Revive Sport.

Any prediction as to a winner would be wild, as the difference in players will be adjusted by handicaps, giving every one an equal chance. E. L. Powell is showing up well in practice and will be heard from in the games. H. P. Goering has not been well for several days, and hence does not show up in his usual form. J. E. Cullison is a faithful player, and always a dangerous adversary. Allan Fess will probably make some of them feel as if they were the victims of a surprise party.

RECEPTION TO ENDEAVORERS

Delegates to District Convention Will Be Entertained.

This evening, in the parlors of the First Congregational Church, the Portland Christian Endeavorers will give a reception in honor of the first district convention. Officers of the first district, consisting of Rev. Huber Ferguson, president; Miss Louise Aimey, secretary, and W. D. Scott, treasurer.

MULTNOMAH'S BILLIARD TOURNAMENT.

A Guess at the Handicaps Which Will Be Fixed.
The billiard tournament of the Multnomah Amateur Athletic Club will begin next week, probably Wednesday evening.

As the membership list of the new United Bowling Club has very nearly reached the 100 mark, every one interested in it can look for an early opening of this club in its new quarters.

NEW BOWLING CLUB.

The plan of the new club is to issue two membership cards for women to each member of the club, and to set aside three evenings of when the women will reign supreme on the alleys.

In addition to this, the club proposes to have one evening each month for the women, when everything on this night will be furnished to them entirely free, and for all beginners an instructor in the art of bowling will be on hand.

SALEM'S "CHALLENGE"
Multnomah Football Men Make it a Subject of Merriment.
The challenge of the Salem football team, the substance of which was reported by the Salem correspondent of The Oregonian yesterday, created a great deal of amusement in the Multnomah Club last evening. The second eleven had congregated together to practice when the challenge became the subject of conversation, and the remarks that flew about the clubhouse for a few moments when the subject came up were sufficient to cause a great deal of merriment.

Another said: "The prominent members of the club said: 'It is hoped that the effectiveness of these young gentlemen from the capital city will blow off all right, and that they will finally come to a normal consideration of their own merits and attend strictly to business. They have bright prospects before them in financial, social and domestic circles, but to explode in the manner in which they have will certainly become a barrier to future success if it is kept up with such a degree of persistence.'"

WHY HE ASKED SO MUCH.
Owner of a Hair Ball Explains the High Price Asked.
A. M. Mundell, of Walla Walla, the man who entered into negotiations with President George Taylor, for the sale of a hair ball taken from the paunch of a buffalo shot in the panhandle of Texas in 1867, and who desired to part with this inestimable treasure for the sum of $90,000, called at The Oregonian office yesterday, being in the city on his way to the Chamber of Commerce, and that he had been ill treated, and the value of his curiosity depreciated by an unwarranted statement given out by some irresponsible person to the effect that his hair ball was the end of a cow. He had the hair ball with him, and exhibited it to prove the falsity of this malicious statement. The ball is about the size of a Mandarin orange, and is unmistakably of hair, covered with a coating of some substance of a black color about the thickness of the skin of a Mandarin orange. The hair is plainly visible through a small opening in the center of the ball, and as the contents by pushing a pin into it. So much for the ball.

MATINEE AT METROPOLITAN
Ben Hendricks and "Ole Olson" the Attraction.
Ben Hendricks, in "Ole Olson," has been playing to large houses only all week at the Metropolitan. He brings a strong, capable company, composed of none but the best. "Ole Olson" has never been staged as well as by the Hendricks company, and they deserve the splendid business which they have been playing to. The national Swedish ladies' quartet is one of the special features. A number of clever specialties are introduced. An enjoyable afternoon can be spent at the Metropolitan.

Special School Meeting.
A call for a special meeting of the voters of Woodstock district No. 2 has been issued, to take place Saturday evening, November 24, to elect a Director to take the place of E. P. Gerould, who has resigned to move out of the district. Mr. Gerould has been a resident there for a number of years. The school also is making arrangements for the proper observance of Thanksgiving.

LETTER FROM A PUG.
Alleged Reason for Raising Plate Glass Windows.
The following anonymous letter was received by mail at The Oregonian office last night, in relation to the plate glass vandalism recently occurring on Morrison street, whereby the show windows of several large stores were ruined by a dis-
