FRENCHMEN PLAN A WELCOME

Counter Demonstration May Occur Movements of the Dutch Cruiser Gelderland.

MARSEILLES, Nov. 20.-Ex-President Kruger will probably land here Thursday, instead of tomorrow. Bid weather is re-ported in the Mediterranean, and the Dutch cruiser Gelderland, on which he is Dutch cruiser Gelderiand, on which he is a passenger, may hug the coast of the Guif of Genoa in preference to heading direct for Marsellies, so as to avoid the cross seas. She will thus reach this port tomorrow evening, instead of tonight. Every preparation, however, has been made for Mr. Kruger's possible landing tomorrow morning. The police and military are held in realiness, and the Boar reception committee has not made any change in the arrangements for the recepchange in the arrangements for the recep-tion at the dock. Workmen have been busy erecting flagstaffs along the waterside at La Joliette, and at the outer dock, where the steam launch with Mr. Kruger on board will land.

on board will land.
If is certain that Mr. Kruger's arrival if is certain that Mr. Kruser's arrival will be the occasion for a great popular demonstration along the route from the deek to the hotel, which is situated on the principal boulevard, known as the Canneblers. It is equally certain that the formal proceedings will not be invested with the importance which "- occasion warfants, owing to the abstention from them of the Prefect, Mayor and other functionaries in their official capacity.

A surveyes came today in the shape of them of the Prefect, Mayor and other functionaries in their official capacity.

A surprise came today in the shape of the arrival here of Eloff, Mr. Kruger's private secretary, who left the Gelderland at Port Said and came ahead on a French steamer. Eloff left Mr. Kruger in perfect health and spirits. The President occupies three cabina situated in the stern of the Gelderland. His disting-room is decorated with the portraits of the Dutch royal family, a picture of Queen Wilhelmina in the place of honor.

The Boer delegates, Messra Fischer, Wessels and Grobler, who have also arrived here, expressed to the representative of the Associated Press their earnest wish to have the American people with wish to have the American people with them in their efforts to secure a termina-tion of the war. They said they knew Mr. Kruger also appreciated American sympathy and hoped it would lead to prac-tical favors to the cause of his country. The delegates, however, were unable to say exactly what Mr. Kruger would decide to do after landing in France.

There is much talk in Marseilles to the effect that a counter demonstration will occur or that anti-English outcress may occur or that anti-English outcries may be ruised, which would result in street dis-orders. But neither the Prefect nor the American Consulate officials attach the alightest importance to these rumors. A pro-Boer committee has issued an appeal, copies of which were posted this after-action of the people to cheer for noon, calling on the people to cheer for Mr. Kruger and the Boera, but to re-train from any Anglophobe demonstra-

The crowd in the streets to witness the arrival of Mr. Kruger," says the Prefect of the Department today, "will probably exceed 100,000, which is a fifth of the population of Marsellies. Nevertheless, no disorder, in my opinion, will occur. The symmathies of the inhabitants are undoubtedly with the Boers, and Mr. Kruer will receive a rousing reception, ex-ept for a few isolated cries against Engcept for a few isolated cries against Eng-land, which it will be impossible to pre-vent, but which will be promptly re-pressed. We live here on the best of berns with the English colony, and wish to remain so. Mr. Kruger will meet with such an official reception as is given to a chief of a state when he travels in-

M. Finesters, the Mayor of Marsellies, expressed himself in similar terms, but this optimism is not shared entirely by some members of the English colony, who have discerned paid agents of the Anglo-phobe cause among some of the recent arrivals. The Prefect, however, is known held in readiness, but out of sight, at the infantry barracks, in close proxim-ity to the British Consulate, where no

Messra. Fischer and Wessels this aftermon expressed regret at the partisan character which the demonstration is assuming. They compared it with their re-ception in the United States by the Damocrats, which they declared had opposed the Republicans to them. Both insisted, however, that the result of the American elections has in no way modified their hops that the United States would yet hope that the United States would yet support the Boer cause, "The United States," said Mr. Fischer, "remains a force in the councils of civ-illand nations, and we grust this force will eventually be exercised in bringing the war to such an end as will protect our rights. So stroclous have been the cruelties practiced by British officers and a upon our women and children that would rather fight the cruel and odthirsty Basutos and Zulus than the British Army. Our men whose homes have been burned and whose women and children have been carried into captivity will fight to the death. No Boer General will surrender.

The delegates said it was significant that General Dewet, "whose heroic ex-piolts have awakened the admiration and sympathy of the British people," was not now mentioned in the British dis-patches. Mr. Fischer explained that this was due to the fact that the British Govrament "now realizes that Dewet is be-oming too popular in England."

BROWN'S DEFALCATION. Experts Find That His Shortage Is Growing.

CINCINNATI, Nov. 10 .- The expert working on the books of the German Na-tional Bank, at Newport, Ky., report to-day that they have so far found a short-age of $155,000 in the accounts of Frank M. Brown, the missing sathler. There have been all sorts of reports today about have been all sorts of reports today about Brown having been seen at Indianapolis, Fort Wayne and other points after he left St. Louis last Wednesday, but none of these reports is believed here and the whereabouts of Brown ramain a mystery. No reward has yet been offered for his apprehension.

whereabouts of Brown remain a mystery. No reward has yet been offered for his apprehension.

The clerks of the German National Bank who are working with Receiver Tucker's experis today discovered another plan operated by Brown. When a check was entered October 31 for 25 %, he entered it as $2003 45, and got the benefit of $2000. The same day he put 'I' in front of an entry of $150 and got $2000 more. The experts say that Brown repeatedly credited himself with $1000, $1000 and $3000 deposits when he fild not deposit anything, but took out that amount soon afterward. Brown's books show that he did not strike for sums less than $1000 in any of these transactions.

The first suit brought in the case of the bank was instituted today by Receiver Tucker. It was in the nature of a blanked attachment on all the property of Frank M. Brown, and is to cover $20,000 of the shortage. This amount is alleged to have been taken within the past 12 months, and includes the first items discovered in the shortage.

Tonight, Commissionar Leonard, on the affidavits of the examiners, issued a warrant for the arrest of Brown. The officers have telegraphed to Coast points for his apprehension, and will have the war-

BANK ROBBERS UNSUCCESSPUL. Desperate Attempt to Get Into s

Country Bank's Vault.

DELAWARE, O., Nov. 20.—A dozen professional bank robbers, all masked, made a desperate attempt to secure the con-tents of the money vault of Sperry & Warnsteff's Deposit Bank, at Ashley, 19 miles north of here, today before day-light. While nine stood on guard holding the citizens at bay with their guns, three placed dynamite under the deposit want of the brick building. The bank's prep-erty is worth $50,000, and there was $15,000 in cash in the hank.

Four attempts were made to get at the cash, but the side door held to its combination, while the guards outside were shooting at the citizens who pressed close-ily in upon them. Dr. Buckley and Guy Shoemaker, the first upon the scene, were met by the robbers at the point of the gun and bade to move. The robbers stole a horse and spring wagon and a team and new surrey from farmers near by. The rigs waited in front of the bank for light. The single horse ran away, de-molishing the vehicle, when the men in it took across the country on foot. The farmage to the bank building, vault and other property is about half its value The gang left Morengo on a Big Four freight at 1 o'clock, stole the horses and rigs, and reached Ashley shortly after 3 o'clock. They pried open the big doors without being discovered, but the first explosion of dynamits aroused the town. The gang fixed as they fied, but no one was hit.

Another Cashler's Accounts Short. RUILAND, VL., Nov. 20.—A special to the Heraid from Montpeller says: A report is current here that G. L. Closson, cashier of the First National Bank of Springfield, VL. is 200,000 short in his accounts. P. G. Field the president of the bank made the following statement last night:

"Cashier Closson some time are allowed."

"Cashier Closson some time ago allowed his son, G. L. Closson, Jr., a member of the defunct broker's firm of Knott & Closson, of Burlington, to draw $15,000 from the bank, giving as security a deed to real estate which has since proved to real estate which has since proved to be worthless. As the deed was made out to Closson personally his bondsmen have been called upon to make the amount good. They have asked that Closson be retained as cashier, while they are making an investigation."

The credit of the bank is in no way impaired.

Called to the President's Attention CHICAGO, Nov. 20.—The burning of the negro, Porter, at the stake by the citi-zens of Limon, Colo., will be brought to the attention of President McKinley the Methodist ministers of Chicago. At a meeting in the First Methodist Church they passed a resolution censuring the Governor of Colorado, the Sheriff and the citizens who composed the mob, and resolved to request the President to call attention in his next message to the 200 persons put to death by mobs in the ass' 10 years and urge him to recommend is Congress suitable legislation that shall congress suitable legislation that shall secure to every person accused of crime a fair trial and hold criminally liable all persons constituting mobs to torture, murder and burn.

CHARLES H. HOYT, THE PLAYWRIGHT, DEAD.

CHARLESTOWN, N. H., Nov. 20.—Charles H. Hoyt, the well-known playwright, died at his beens here tonight of paresis, from which he had been suffering for several months past. Ever since his return to Charlestown after his release from a private asylum at Hastford by order of the court, early in August, it has been known by his attendants and pracest friends that his condition was serious, and that there was little or no chance for his recovery, but Mr. Hoyt apparently had seemed hopeful of ultimate recovery. Provious to two weeks ago there appeared to be a slight improvement in his condition, although he had periods of dipression. About two weeks ago his appetite falled, and he had a bad turn, from which he only partially recovered. Since that time ne had been unable to take any except liquid nourishment, but continued to be up and around his rooms until yesterday. He steadily lost strength, and this morning he suffered a relapse and became unconscious, in which condition he remained until death came. Mr. Hoyt had no relatives here, and at the time of his death two physicians, two trained nurses, file valet and James O. Lyford, his legal guardian, were in attendance. The funeral writing he had Sunday. morrow, but it is probable that the funeral will be held Sunday.

CONSIDERED BY THE CABINET. United States Will Not Be Driven Out of the Concert.

WASHINGTON, Nov. M.—The Chinese situation was the main topic under con-sideration at today's Cabinet meeting. The Administration is not disposed to join with the other governments in making de-mands upon Chinese Imperial authorities which the Chinese Government cannot comply with. So far as our Government is some discouragement to the officials who expected that this phase of the difficulty would soon be closed. Having passed over the stage of proscription of the Chinese leaders who were responsible for the Boxer outrages, the foreign Ministers are believed now to be engaged with the diffi-cult subjects of indemnities and guaran-

The last United States proposition was in line with the Russian project to allow The Hague Commissioners to adjust the indemnities. It is believed that this propoutlin has never commended itself to the British or the German Governments, and failing such a reference to the question of indemnity, it is believed that it will be a most difficult task for the Ministers at a most difficult task for the Ministers at Pakin to reach an agreement on this subject, particularly in view of the existence of a very strong auspicion of the motives of some of those Ministers.

This apparent difference in original purpose between the United States Government and some of the other powers has operated to prevent a settlement of the Chinese question upon the broad lines laid down in the State Department's proposition. It is true that all of the powers subscribed more or less reluctant assent to such proposals as leok to the prevention of the partition of China and the guarantee of an "open door" to all corners, yet tee of an "open door" to all corners, yet it begins to appear from the course of the negotiations that either these promises were not sincers in all cases or that some were not sincers in all cases or that some of the makers honestly have changed their minds as to what shall be done for the present in China.

It may be stated, however, regardless of the embarrasaments and delays that follow from the existence of this state of affairs that the United States Government does not propose to be driven out of the concert relative to China at this juncture in the negotiations. Notwithstanding the wish cherished by the Administration to free the Government from these entanglements at the earliest possible moment and to withdraw entirely our military and to withdraw entirely our military forces from China, it has definitely been determined that this shall not be done until all proper interests of the United States in China have been conserved.

The English press frankly con-fesses, that it is hearing about punitive expeditions to one quarter or another, and that it considers it hardly worth while to keep all China in a state of turmoil, preventing thereby restoration of normal trade relations in order to punish a few crimicals who campt be caught while the court remains in exile. English opinion will not be fully ex-

THE SUBJECT OF CRITICISM IN THE GERMAN REIGHSTAG.

Count Von Bulow Accepts Full Respousibility for the Kaiser's Bask Talk.

BERLIN, Nov. 20 .- The debate on the government's policy in China was con-tinued in the Reichstag today, Herr Hassermann expressing gratification at the Angle-German agreement. Herr Richter declared the Radicals were of the opinion, after the assassination of Baron von Ketteler, that a military dem-onstration in China was absolutely necessary, but the dispatch of an irencial di-vision was superfluous. He alluded to the public declarations of Emperor William, saying they were obviously intended to influence public opinion. Herr Richter added that he thought the Emperor should first have reached an understanding with the competent Ministers regard-ing the tenor and wording of these decla-rations, asserting that much that was objectionable and displeasing would have been obviated. Politics and religion, he continued, ought not to have been mixed up as they had been in the Emperor's speeches, because the effect was to spoil

THE HORSE SHOW.

Tryout of Jumpers Was the Festure Testerday. NEW YORK, Nov. 30.-Increased crowds marked the second day of the horse show and incressed enthusiasm was every-where apparent. The day started quietly, but by the time the afternoon evenia were fairly on, the Gardon was filled with fashlonable society and well-known horsemen. Most of the morning was taken up in an exhibition of hackneys and trot-ting broad marss, and the animals came from some of the most famous breeding establishments in the country.

The afternoon began with a dash into the arena of 10 pairs of horses drawing the handsome street park carriages, but the feature of the day was the preliminary jumping event, trying out the horses for the big high-jumping event to take place Friday. Some splendid jumps were made over a hedge bar fence six feet high. There were one or two exciting moments, particularly when Buby Boy, exhibited by Hart Bros., had a nasty full in fulling the integrity and even the independence of China. Special claims must be shunned. It is necessary to inspire ideas for the general benefit."

Continuing M. Deleasse traced the submission of the French note as the basis of the negotiations, and said it was necessary to obtain a guarantee for the future against such deeds or attempts.

The Foreign Minister then said:

"Every one desires to end the situation.

Though a driveling rain set in the that is the worse of the mishap. All of the jumpers qualified but John 8. Bratton's Buckbee. an instant note the worse for the mis-hap. All of the jumpers qualified but John S. Bratton's Buckbee.

Though a drizzing rain set in in the evening, the crowds did not seem to thin out. The judging of the saddle horses was the star event of the night, and after that the judging of the qualified hunters

"Their utterances show that the Euro-pean concert is not broken. They do not lend the slightest color to suspicions ex-pressed in the United Sates that the pledges of the powers to prevent parti-tion and to maintain an open door can-not be trusted. The assurance that pulse is exactly as it was yesterday after-noon. Food and tonic were taken in the usual quantities today. While at times his friends are encouraged to believe that with the help of nature he has conquered the destructive agency in his blood, a little later they are compelled to believe that Senator Davis is fighting a battle that Senator Davis is igniting a battle which he cannot win.

The bulletin issued by Dr. J. A. Stone tonight was less favorable than the one issued this afternoon, showing as it does that Senator Davis' periods of lucidity are becoming less frequent and the mental aberration more marked. The bulletin follows:

ws:
"Senator Davis" mental abergation has een more marked and continues this afternoon and evening. His temperature is 99; pulse, 108; respiration, 31."
