Special Announcement

—BY THE—
Wiley B. Allen Co.

209-211 FIRST ST., 210-212 SECOND ST.,

PORTLAND, OREGON

We have sold outright our good will, reputation and business interests, so far as relates to the piano trade, to a very rich and powerful corporation. We are to have a reasonable length of time to dispose of our present stock of sheet music, books and small goods, all used and rented pianos, organs, and in fact all the merchandise we possess. When this is done The Wiley B. Allen Co. will cease to exist in the Northwest and the new corporation, Gilbert & Jones, will become our successor.

The Wiley B. Allen Co. will establish headquarters in San Francisco, with branches in Los Angeles and Honolulu.

Now, we much prefer to sell out our small goods and sheet music departments to some person or persons who will go right along and continue the excellent business which has taken 20 years to establish.

Portland needs a first-class and complete music house. Our stock of music books and musical instruments should remain here. It is a shame to divide it up, shipping a portion here and there to different music concerns in the Northwest. We are very willing to make most liberal concessions to buyers who will take the stock as a whole, but if there are no buyers in the field for our business, then watch out for some fun. We will then open the "gates of commerce" to the public at large and the music trade will become so badly demoralized that it will take a long time for it to recover.

We tarry only a short period of time for the wholesale buyer, failing in this direction our stock will absolutely be sacrificed to the retail buyer. Genuine Martin guitars and mandolins, the Washburn celebrated makes, band instruments in great profusion, 'cellos, basses, drums, graphophones, musical boxes, etc., to say nothing of the thousands and thousands of musical publications which will all be disposed of in short order, when once the sale begins.

In the meantime we await the coming of the wholesale buyer, and, beginning at once, any of our sheet music publications will be sold at a discount of one-half and 20 per cent. Books at greatly reduced prices. All operas, band and orchestra music, edition Schirmer, Peters, studies classical, modern and otherwise, are on sale right now at a rate of discount which ought to bring all lovers of music within a radius of two hundred miles to our store.

Our great piano sale will also begin in the near future. Our fixtures are for sale, real estate, town lots, store building, in fact all our possessions are now offered for sale, and on easy terms of payment if desired.
