The Oregonian knows the great value of its classified columns for quick and positive returns on a minimum expenditure. Patrons of The Oregonian's "want" columns frequently find cash purchasers for farm, suburban and city property of a value running into the thousands of dollars, and sails for meetings, demands for servants and office help, announcements of articles lost and found, chances for profitable investment, calls for loans at low interest rates, etc., all meet with ready responses if advertised in The Oregonian's classified columns. The "want" columns of The Oregonian constitute a complete directory for giving publicity to the business demands of

As a token of appreciation of the generous use of its classified columns, The Oregonian will make a Thankagiving offering of Newton A. Wells' latest production,

A YARD OF ROSES

To all patrons who may insert a paid advertisement in the classified columns, issue of Sunday next (the 25th inst.). This famous work of art is printed in seven colors, and in technique and finish it is a masterpiece. It is displayed this week in the windows of The Oregonian's business office. The Oregonian enjoys the sole rights of distribution on the Pacific Coast, and the offer made in the present instance will afford Portland people the only opportunity to obtain a copy of this fine lithographic production.

When mailed to out-of-town patrons of the classified columns next Sunday, a 2-cent stamp will be required for postage.
