A BIG BARK ASHORE

Potallooh Grounded on the Washington Coast.

Half the Crew Got Off in a Boat—Two More Tugs to Go to Her Assistance.

SOUTH BEND, Wash., Nov. 26.—The British four-masted bark Potallooh, Captain Young, in ballast from Santa Rosalia to Portland, was ashore at 2 o'clock this morning about two miles north of the entrance to Willapa Harbor. She has lost all anchors and lies stern-on in a perilous position. The tug Astoria stayed near her all day, but on account of the heavy seas was unable to pass a line. The tug arrived here at 8 this evening, to telegraph for another tug, and brought 13 of the crew of the Potallooh, who came off in a boat.

ASTORIA, Or. Nov. 26.—A telephone message from South Bend says the tug Astoria reports that the British bark Potallooh, 85 days from Santa Rosalia for the Columbia River, went ashore during a dense fog this afternoon on the north spit at the entrance of Willapa Harbor. Seventeen men had landed and 13 were still on board. The sea was running very high, but there had been no loss of life.

Two tugs are expected to leave here early tomorrow morning and go to the vessel's assistance.

CHARLES HOYT'S WILL. Requests Made to Personal Friends, Employees and Charities.

NEW YORK, Nov. 26.—The will of Charles H. Hoyt, the playwright, was filed today in the Surrogate's office. It was executed October 15, 1898. After making bequests to personal friends and employees, the testator says: "It is my wish that the theatrical business of Hoyt & McKee be continued and conducted solely by Frank McKee, as it is now managed, and that I be allowed to receive all of my share of the profits thereof, as a recompense for the services, and excepting such portion as heretofore has been bequeathed to Elwood M. Dasher. On the death of said Frank McKee, the said business shall cease."

Readers' letters are the Lamb's Club of this city and the Actors' Fund.

"In making my will at the present time," the will concludes, "I have no relatives nearer than cousins to be considered by me, and my cousins and distant relatives have never shown any interest in my welfare, and to such charities as, in my judgment, are as fitting."

Commissioners Entertained. NEW YORK, Nov. 26.—The National Commissioners of the Paris Exposition will be entertained at a banquet given by Louis Stern at his residence in this city Sunday evening. The following day the commissioners will proceed to Philadelphia, where they will be the guests of William Elkins at the Hotel Bellevue.

In the afternoon a meeting will be held and the evening will be given by their host at the Hotel Bellevue. The commissioners are Mr. E. B. Smith, Mr. Daniel Manning, Mr. H. De Young, Louis Stern, Brutus J. Clay, Ogden H. Fether, Thomas F. Walsh, Calvin Hanning, Alvin Sanders, W. L. Elkins, James Allison, Arthur F. Volose, H. H. Putney, Peter Jansen, W. H. Thornton, Franklin Murphy, Henry A. Parker and W. G. Thompson.
