One of the touching incidents of the day was the waiting upon Major Davis, the aged father of the late Senator, by a company of school children from Nelli School, which is just opposite the family ruined.

They presented the following psemorial: "The pupils of the Neill School remember most kindly the visit of their neighbor. Major Davis, to the school last psemorial day. They desire to express to him their loving sympathy in his present great sorrow for the loss of his own dear son." Major Davis was deeply affected by the tribute, as was the entire house-It was decided today that the funeral services would be held at the residence Satu day morning at 11 o'clock, the brief service being in charge of Rev. C. D. Andrews, rector of the church of St. John the Evangelist. In deference to the wish of the many friends who would be unable to attend the services at the house, and to strend the services at the house, and on the particular request of Governor Lind, it was also decided that the body shall lie in state at the Capitol from 10 thill is clock Friday. A detachment of the National Guard will escort the body from the residence to the Capitol and remain as guards during the day, later returning to the house. The interment with

COMMITTEES FROM CONGRESS,

Members of Senute and House Who Will Attend the Funeral.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 28.—It was the ex. pressed wish of Senator Frye, president pro tem. of the Senate, that the committee to attend the funeral of Senator Davis should be composed of the com-mittee on foreign relations, of which Sen-ator Davis was chairman, and its members were appointed and notified accordingly. But for warious reasons, sickness and otherwise, it was found that only a few members of the committee were able to strend, and other Senators were subto attend, and other Senators were substituted. The committee now consists of Senators Nelson, Cullom, Clark of Wybning, Bacon, Hansbrough, Spooner, Pettigrew, Carter and Foster. The two committees of the House and Senate, Incharge of the Sergeant-at-Arms of the Senate, will leave tomorrow afternoon, arriving at St. Paul Saturday morning. The funeral occurs at 1 o'clock. The committees will leave St. Paul Saturday committees will leave St. Paul Saturday vening, and arrive in Washington at 1 evening, and arrive in Washington at 1 melock Monday.

Speaker Henderson, of the House, appointed as members of the committee to attend, on the part of the House, the entire Minnesotts delegation, with Tawngey, as chairman; Cannon of Illineia, Grosvenor of Ohlo, Moody of Massachustts Jenkins of Wisconsin W & Smith

Grosvenor of Ohio, Moody of Massachusetts, Jenkins of Wisconsin, W. A. Smith of Michigan, Richardson of Tennessee, Balley of Texas, Clark of Missouri, Burks of Texas, Underwood of Alabama.

To Director of the Census Merriam, who was one of the President's callers to-day, the President spoke feelingly of the death of Schator Davis and the great loss which the Senate and country had sustained. Director Merriam has not yet decided whether he will become a candidate for the vacancy created by Senator Davis' death.

Judge Day's Words. CANTON, O., Nov. M.-Judge William R.

Day, ex-Secretary of State, and president of the Paris Peace Commission, of which Senator Davis was a member, said today: "The death of Senator Davis removes one of the first stateamen of the country. As chairman of the Senate committee on foreign relations he took a prominent and influential part in the foreign policy of the country for some years. Senator Davis was thoroughly acquainted with international law, and was one of the highest American authorities on this aubject of the present day. His services at Paris were of the highest value. He bore a leading part in the discussion before that tribunal, always acquitting himfore that tribunal, always acquitting him-self with honor.

"Senator Davis was a man of gental temperament and attractive personality. His place in the councils of the Nation will be hard to fill, and his death is a personal loss to a wide circle of friends, who were greatly attached."

May Not Attend the Funeral. WASHINGTON, Nov. 28.—Owing to the near approach of the convening of Congress, many prominent Benators and Representatives cannot attend the funeral of Senator Davis. The members of the of Senator Davis. The members of the ways and means committee will meet Saturday, probably to act on the war revenue reduction measure, so they cannot attend Mr. Tawney, of Minnesota, though one of the committee to attend the funeral, may be unable to go to St. Paul, as he is a member of the committee framing the war revenue act amendments. There is one vacancy, and General Grosvenor is absent, so upon party lines the committee would be a tie if Mr. Tawney should be away, unless a pair could be arranged with one of the minority. The seat formerly occupied by Senator Davis will be taken by Senator Hanna hereafter, he having applied for it some time ago, when Senator Davis sought a seat not yet vacant.

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., Nov. 28.—ExPresident Harrison today said:

"I learned with deep regret of the death of Senator Davis. While I was in Washington I grew to know him weil, and I regarded him as an able man. He was a man of strong personality and of high.
intellectual acquirements, and had begome a power in the Senate. His position at the head of the foreign relations committee was an important one, and his death at this time is a severe loss to the country."

Will Represent Court of Appeals. ST. LOUIS, Mo., Nov. 28.—The United States Circuit Court of Appeals today announced to the members of the bar the news of the death of Senator Davis, of Minnesota, and in view of the eminent services of Senator Davis in supporting the bill for the organization of this court and of his many acts of friendship to-ward it, the court appointed Judge Santo represent it at the funeral.

HER POLICY

GERMANY'S RETREAT FROM HER DEMAND FOR DEATH PENALTY.

The Powers Debating on the Wisdom of Sending an Ultimatum to China.

BERLIN, Nov. 28.—The semioficial Ber-liner Post, in the course of an evidently inspired article replying to the sugges-tions of more lenient punishment of the guilty officials in China made by the United States Government, says:

"Since doubts have been expressed here as to whether it is advisable to insist upon death for the ringleaders of the antiforeign movement as an irrevocable de-cision, it should be pointed out that such a doubt cannot be traced to considerations of humanity, as if some powers regarded such a punishment as too severe. The fact is rather that all the powers are convinced that the ringleaders deserve death; but the question has been raised on vari-ous sides as to whether such a measure should be insisted upon from the stand-point of political expediency. So far as Germany is concerned, she has never in-sisted upon the execution of specific per-sons, but has repeatedly declared that she laid chief emphasis upon the harmonious action of all the powers uponishing the action of all the powers in punishing the guilty. This attitude corresponds with the guiding principle of Germany's policy, which seeks above all else to preserve the harmony of the powers."

The Freissinnige Zeltung describes the Post's declaration as "Germany's retreat from the demand for the death possible."

from the demand for the death penalty. The Militar Wochenblatt, discus charges of cruelty on the part of the Germans in China, says:

"The usages of civilized warfare are not always applicable with the half-civilized. A commander must deviate from the laws of nations where observations of it is rendered impossible through the behavior of the enemy or his own situa-tion. In a critical situation, where care for prisoners would endanger self-preservation, prisoners must either not be taken or must be got rid of. The Ger-man Army should not be accused of cru-elty without considering the facts in the light of the conditions."

The Freissinnge Zeitung infers from Ambassador White's visit to the Foreign Office, and Dr. von Holleben's call upon President Mckinley and Secretary Hay that a serious difference of opinion exists between the United States and Germany. Ambaissador White reasserted today that in his recent interview with the Secretary of Foreign Affairs, Baron von Rich thofen, he did not present a new note, but only made an informal suggestion, which did not require an answer. He doubts that Germany will give an answer to those suggestions. ULTIMATUM TO CHINA. The Powers Debating on the Wisdom of Sending It.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 28.—It developed today that the chief point in the exchanges concerning China which have been on during the last few days among envoys, involving the possibility of a re-sulting declaration of war against China in case the demands of the ultimatum be not complied with. It appears that some of the powers desired the express use of the word "ultimatum" in the demand reiative to the decapitation or other extreme punishment of 11 of the princes and other high officials responsible for the outrages, and this view of using the most

Russia, and probably Great Britain, al-though a positive statement as to Great Britain cannot be made. At about the same time Secretary Hay took steps to express the view of his government that it was inadvisable to proceed to the extent of an ultimatum sgainst China, but that the demands should not be beyond what China reasonably might have the power to comply with.

The unanimity of sentiment among the powers gives ground for the belief that the demands of the Ministers will be mod-ified by the omission of an ultimatum, al-though it is not yet clear what the final attitude of the remaining powers—Germany, Austria and Italy—will be. The negotiations in this particular were carried on in London through Ambassador Choate, and it is regarded as significant that one of the parties to the Angio-German alliance should give its adherence to the moderate position advanced by the United States. What havocl Scrofula, let alone, is capable of all that and more. It is commonly marked by bunches in the neck, inflammations in the eyes, dyspepala, catarrh, and general debility. It is always radically and permanently cured by Hood's Sarsaparilia. "I was a sufferer from scrofula from birth. My eyes were so affected that I was almost blind for days at a time. 'My neck began to swell so that I could not breathe freely. Medicines falled to do me any good until I began taking Hood's Sarsaparilla. Today I have excellent health." Muss Kar-THE MOGUIES, Silver Creek, Ky. "I was troubled with scrofuls and came near losing my eyesight. For four months I could not see to do anything. After taking two bottles of Hood's Sarasparilla I could see to walk around the house and when I had taken eight bottles I could see as well as I ever could." Soun A. HAIR-STOR Withers, N. C.

Hood's Sarsaparilla expels all humors, cures all cruptions, and Timal Pill. builds up the whole system.
