COLONEL HAWKING AND THE CHILDREN. Forty nappy, wondering-eyed achool, children from the Harrison School were honored with an invitation from Colonel children from the Harrison School were henoced with an invitation from Colonel I. L. Hawkins yesterday afternoon to visit the City Museum. Every one of them accepted, of course. The principal, entering into the spirit of the occasion, dismissed them half an hour earlier than the regular closing time, and Miss Ella Crawford, their teacher, guided the procession in orderly familion down to the City Hall, where they listened with rapt faces as Colonel Hawkins dilated upon the virutes of the various minerals, corais, Indian relics and curios in the historical rooms. For two hours they listened to him with hated breath. They visited the Council Chamber, and the Mayor's room, and collected enough material for composition work to last six weeks. Everybody who saw them deciared that better-speak and calleges had been deciared that Everybody who saw them declared that better-behaved children had never been seen in Porliand Before they broke ranks and separated they gave a hearty vote of thanks to their courteous host, who had entertained them so delightfully.

COST OF LAST ELECTION.-The bills for rent of polling booths, salaries and the rent of polling booths, salaries and meals of judges and cierks at the election held on November 6, came up before the Board of County Commissioners, for approval yesterday. All the bills were in except for the rectail of some half dozen polling places. The total expense to the county on account of the election of Presidential Electors and a Representative to take the place of A. J. Knott in the com-ling Legislature, Auditor Pone Equires will Ing Legislature, Auditor Pope figures will not exceed $200. The rule made by the Commissioners some time ago allowing judges and cierks of elections 75 cents per day for meals, has been found to effect a considerable saving to the county. It used to be the custom of some of these Judges and elerks to order extravagant meals, and there was no end of trouble with those who furnished these meals, as the Board of Commissioners would refuse the Board of Commissioners would refuse to allow the bills, but in the end would have to pay them. No limit is placed on the amount the clerks and judges may expend on their menls, but most of them now content themselves with such meals as their allowance of 75 cents per day will procure, and their digestive organs are not injured, and the county saves

ADDED TO THE MUSEUM .- A very interesting exhibit of cotton in all stages of its growth, from the blossoms to the perfect boll bursting with the delicate, ecy fiber, which brings the United States to much money every season, was suded to the exhibits in the City Museum yesterday. Colonet Hawkins yesterday mailed for the museum the shell of a moneter lobster, the largest ever seen here, which had been purchased at one of the markets to make Thankagiving sailed for a private club. He will allow the club to extract the mest from the shell, which is then to be turned over to him to be "stuffed" for the museum. Such a large specimen of the lobster as the one in question is seldom seen, even at the East, mowadays, as the canners of lobsters have nearly exterminated these once pientiful crustaceans. With the falling off in the number of lobaters there has been a corresponding decrease in the number of cases of nightmare, for lobater is the terror of the human organs of digestion. BOAT SERVICE ON THE WILLAMETTE

BOAT SERVICE ON THE WILLAMETTE RIVER.—Commencing Thursday, Newmber 20, the O. R. & N. Co. will inaugurate a daily service on the Williamette between Portland and Independence, and a thrice-a-week service to Albany and Corvallis. The following schedule will be effective on the above date: Stemmer Modoc will leave Portland at 6 A. These boats have all been overhauled and are in first-class condition to handle freight and passengers.

TRYING TO FIND HIR RECTHER.-MISS Agnes 8. Mudle, of Erdington, near Bir-mingham, England, writes to Postmaster Croasman in hopes to learn the where-abouts of her brother, Joseph W. Mudle, who is supposed to have come to Port-land from Stockton, Cal., about three years ago. He was a draughtsman and had been connected with some large en-gineering works in Stockton. Anybody knowing the whereabouts of Mr. Mudle will confer a favor by communicating the knowing the whereabouts of Mr. Mudle will confer a favor by communicating the same to Mr. Cronsman. S. C. Crotton, the person inquired for a few days ago, has been found. He lives on the East Bide, and has been in attendance on a very sick wife of late, and so had neglected to write to his friends.

CHRISTEAS DIVIDEND COMING.—Receiver Nixon, of the Portland Savings Bank, is determined to do something toward mak-ing a Merry Christmas for the creditors of that institution. He fully expects to be ready to declare a 5 per cent dividend be-tween now and that holiday. When he paid the last dividend of 1 per cent he pant the isse dividend of a per cent he stated that he hoped within a short time to declare another dividend, and he now thinks he sees his way clear to do so, and also to make it 5 per cent. There are a large number of people who will count the cost of a Christmas turkey at nothing if they can pay for it out of a dividend of this kind.

PROSPERITE STIMULATES ATHLETICS. F. W. Gerould, manager for A. G. Spaulding

PROSPECTE STIMULATES ATHLETICS.—F. W. Gerould, manager for A. G. Spaulding, of Chicago, dealer in athletic goods, is in the city for a few days. He says the return of prosperity and the re-election of McKinley has given a new impetus to athletic sports, and there is a brisk demand for athletic goods from all parts of the country. At the East baseball is coming into favor again, and renewed interest is being taken in the arms. In interest is being taken in the game in California. Golf has caught on all over the country, but cricket shows no signs of ever becoming popular in this country.

It is too slow for the American people. It is too slow for the American people.

JEWEL, PRISENTATION.—The members of Williamette Lodge, No. 2, A. F. & A. M., on the occasion of the celebration of the semi-centannial anniversary of the organization of that lodge, Tuesday evening, presented J. W. Cook, the oldest living past master of the lodge, with a very handsome and expensive past master's jewel. The recipient was taken completely by surprise, but managed to express his appreciation of the honor done him by his brethren in fitting terms.

Won a Schotlanship.—The numerous friends in this city of Edward M. Huime, late teacher of history and English in the Fortland High School, will be pleased to learn that he passed so creditable an examination at Harvard University that he won a scholarship. Mr. Huime left here in September last to enter at Harvard for an advanced degree, and in his examination he secured the full number of credits, so his tuition will cost him nothing.

Poisoned by Bad Water.—It was re-ported at the Health Office yesterday that Mrs. S. Richardson and Frank Richard-son, who have been living for some time in a tent near the intersection of East Eighth and East Taylor streets, were sick with typhoid fever. The physician reported that they have been using water from an old well in that vicinity, which was undoubtedly the cause of their con-tracting this disease. They were sent to a hospital. a hospital.

STOLEN GAUGES RECOVERED,-Two cases STOLEN GAUGES RECOVERED.—Two cases containing steam pressure gauges, valued at $300, and recently stolen from the Astoria from Works, were found yesterday on a boat arriving at Portland, by Detectives Snow and Kerrigan. The latter said they received information giving the name of the consignee. Three cases of gauges were stolen in all, and the first case was recently recovered by the detectives.

THANKSGIVING MATINEES.

At the Marquam Grand this afternoon "Brown's in Town" will be produced, for the first time this season. The cast of "Brown's in Town" this season is said to surpass that of last year. Delcher & Hen-nessy are probably the only theatrical managers in the country who are alive to that fact that a company requires strengthening as the play grows old. Prices for the matince are 59 cents for the entire lower floor, and 25 cents for

"Tennessee's Pardner" at Cordray's. According to his time-honored custom. Manager Cordray has arranged to give a patrons, and the attraction will be "Teniessee's Pardner," which has been playing to crowded houses there all the week. The play is one of unusual interest, and is presented by one of the best companies that has been seen in Port-land for some time. There has been an unusually large advance sale both for this afternoon's and evening's performances, and there is no doubt that the house will be crowded on both occasions.

"Uncle Josh Spruceby" at the Metrepelitan.

A special Thankegiving matinee will be A special Thanksgiving matines will be given at the Metropolitan Theater at 2:30 today, when "Uncle Josh Spruceby" will be presented, by Dave B. Davis' big company. This play has been presented to almost the capacity of the theater at each performance, and, as the sale has been exceedingly large for this afternoon, it would be rolled to secure sects as early would be policy to secure seats as early as possible. Prices will be the same for the matince today as the regular evening house prices. One of the features of the play is the great sawmill scene, one of the most realistic pieces of stage mechanism in existence.

THE EYE AND THE BRAIN

AN IMPERFECT EYE OVERTAXES THE BRAIN

Eyeglasses or spectacles, properly fitted and adjusted, afford, in many instances, positive relief from a long list of nervous disorders. The eye is the only organ of the body that is completely controlled by the brain; therefore, if the eye is in any way imperfect, the brain must necessarily be on a constant strain to compel perfect vision through an imperfect eye. This may affect the brain, causing constant sick-headache, or, to replace the lost power necessarily used, the brain may draw too much upon the nervous system. This may be the direct cause of any trouble that comes from lack of strength in any of the nerve centers. If this is true, scientifically fitted glasses are THE ONLY CURE.

They give perfect vision without brain effort, thereby stopping the loss. For all that up-to-date science in this line can give you, call on
