Opening of Toy Land

December 25th seems weeks nearer than it did yesterday--We begin to realize that there is hardly three weeks for all preparations--Unusual shopping has been helping along the Christmas spirit as it has not for years.

A child brought us Christmas: Fitting that its celebration should center in child life--So in all preparations here the Toy Land on the third floor is the inspiration--From it the Christmas spirit permeates every nook and corner of the Big Store--It is of the children we think first in our planning--It is the third floor that first took on its Christmas dress--For a moment let us think of the Toy Land--Its surpassing gathering of everything to amuse the little folks.
