About Diamonds

Our stock is most complete, all sizes, and special care we used in selecting them. Our cutters tell us we are among the most critical and particular firms in the United States. They are right. Our customers shall have only the very choice gems. We know what people want. We are not going to fool you and raise prices on account of the "war in the Transvaal," either. We will sell you a diamond at just what they are worth. No fancy prices. And our prices will bear comparison. We make our own settings, so can give you what you want.
